COMPROMISE ON REVENUE BILL.

Iowa Ways and Means Committees Reach a Satisfactory Agreement. DES MOINES, Feb. 27.-(Special Telegram.)-The ways and means committees of both houses have agreed on a revenue bill, a conservative compromise measure, which they feel sure will be favorably received. Both have yielded to secure agreement and brought the bill out early so it will have full consideration. It will be printed and reported Tuesday and a special order will e made about a week ahead. The 33 s per cent valuation, protected by safeguards to levies, and the senate provision on moneys and credits, remain in

This morning was not eventful in the legis lature, as the attendance was small in both houses. The house slocided to adjourn ove till Tuesday, licened to the reading of the committee amendments to the chapter or otes and bills, laid it over till next week and adjourned.

The senate passed the dairy commissione The senate passed the unity commensue of hill, giving that officer some additional pow-ers in regard to the collection of statistics. In considering the shill on the hospitals for the insane, an animalment by Senator Fank reducing the salaries paid to the superin-tendents of the hospitals for the insane from the non-set 34 door wai 32500 each, was adouted. DEPARTMENT BULES TOO STRICT.

Payment to Freedmen Will Have to He Suspended Temporarily.

HAYDEN, I. T., Feb. 27.-Government Paymaster Dixon has all but decided defer further payments of the $800,000 awarded to the Cherokee freedmen until the olls can be returned to Washington for revision. Although the payment has been in progress for several days, but 100 out of 2,000 tie and Anna Madden, Kate and Mary Kirby, Brainerd: Messrs. George Brainerd, Henry Steiner, both of Omaha, and J. F. for the first time at Shaw' resterday Springs. After a lengthy interview Cor-bett announced that White and Dehave absolute charge of would his training, dictating his method of fight-ing, and be chief advisers in the ring. White will decide in a day or two just laney how the Californian can fight the Cornishnan. White, who has the reputation of being one of the best judges of boxers, as well as one of the best of advisers, as watched Jim closely throughout his exer-cise, both in the morning and in the after-White trained Fitzsimmons when he was matched against Corbett two years ago and consequently knows something of He was very favorably impressed methods. with Corbett's condition and work.

Everybody at Fitzsimmons' training quarters is depressed at the news of the death of Mrs. Julian, and the stout little manager has not yet got his brother-in-law fully started at his work. It is rumored that Fitzsimmons does not rest well, but lays awake thinking of his bereavement. Yet he did not wake until nearly 9 o'clock. Fitz-simmons carried a piece of sponge between his lips and teeth, while running yesterday, and thinks his experiment a decided benefit. as the sponge takes the rawness out of the atmosphere and prevents it aggravating the cold on his lungs. He did not believe Corbett's wind was as good as it was reported to be, and expressed the opinion that a ouple of punches in the stomach will take the starch out of him, and if he got just one smash at his head, he would be satisfied. Fitzsimmons declines to further discuss his recently raised objection to the rules which are to govern the battle. He says his obection has been wrongfully construed as an indication of cowardice on his part in some respects, and for that reason he is going to stop talking. "They will find out on the 17th of March whether or not I am afraid of that dude with the pompadour," said Bob, clenching his fists and shaking his head ominously. "I'll give them a little something to sing, mark me." Martin Flaherty Starts for Carson. LYNN, Mass., Feb. 27.-Martin Flaherty has started for Carson City, Nev., where he will fight Dal Hawkins some time during the week of the Corbett-Fitzsummons fight. He was unaccompanied and will depend on find-ing trainers at his destination. He was feel-
