The govereign camp of the Woodmen of the World will convene in blennial session in St. Louis on next Tuesday morning and remain in secsion for several days. The sovereign officers who are located in this city expect that the session will continue some ten days and possibly two weeks. This year's meeting is the second giated meeting of the sovereign camp. It will be practically the first representative gathering in its history. The acssion of two years ago was to some degree representative, but not entirely so. This year the new system of convention head camps was inaugurated. These convention head camps are something of the character of states of the same or approximate healthful-ness. Each state is entitled to one delegate.

Consequently it is estimated that the at-tendance at the meeting, including the offi-cers, will be thirty-five or forty. There will be no election of officers. According to the constitution of the order subordinate camps elect yearly, convention head camps bicanially and the sovereign camp every four years, although its sessions are

The principle consideration will be over the di-vision of the territory of the order into socalled departments, each of which shall be assessed and pay its claims separately, stathough the entire business will be transacted through the head offices. It is believed that the department plan will be In preparation for the meeting the finance committee has been busied the last week in auditing the accounts in Sovereign Clerk

Yates' office in order to be ready to report to the sovereign camp. The sovereign clerk has compiled a very complete and exhaustive report of the condition of the order.

The finance committee is composed of the following: B. W. Jewell of Manchester, Ia.;

Dr. W. N. Dorward of this city and L. G. Blaine of Lyons, Ia. The meeting will be attended by all the sovereign officers resident in this city. They are: Sovereign Commander Root, Sovereign

Clerk Yates, Sovereign Banker Roose, Sov-ereign Physician Rodgers and Sovereign Finance Committeeman Dorward. Nebraska's delegate to the session is A. S. Churchill of Some forty-five members of Alpha camp surprised the members of Florence camp last Wednesday night by descending upon them unexpectedly. The visitors brought their band with them and this assisted very materially in adding to the enjoyment of the occasion. The evening was spent in listen-ing to speeches, music and songs and in will hold a grand entertainment in celebration of the two recent consolidations. It is promised that the affair will be the biggest that has ever been undertaken by the lodge. An exceptional literary and musical pro gram will be rendered and refreehments will be served. A committee is still at work on the arrangements. The entertainment is likely to be the event in Odd Fellow circles of this city, and will be attended by a goodly number of the membership of all the local odges.

The first extensive attempt that the order has made to illustrate one of its cardinal principles, which is the advancement of the commercial interests of each particular section of the state and of the state itself, occurred in Fremont last week when an industrial exhibit of the products of that town was held under the auspices of the Fremont lodge. The show was an excellent one and exhibited the products of about sixty of Fremont's manufacturers. On last Tue-day the members of the Omaha lodge were invited to attend. Some 100 responded, going to Fremont on a special train in the afternoon and returning late a night. They were entertained in royal fash on. After viewing the show they were given a reception and were later invited to a anquet at which only Nebraska products ere served. One of the objects of the order is to enhas obtained a creamery which it is said was obtained through the lodge at that place. A scheme to have a headquarters at the Transmisslesippi Exposition is being considered by the supreme lodge. It is proposed to have each ledge donate a small amount for the purpose. This will be placed in a fund, out of which the building will be built. The benefit that was given by Roland Reed to the Elks last week was a decided financial success. The house on Wednesday evening was crowded. This will be placed in the charity fund, which was almost depleted, on account of the many calls that were made upon it during the past year.

The social session that was held on Tuesday evening, and at which Reland Reed and members of his and other theatrical companies in the city were the guests of honor, was another huge success. It was undoubtedly the local lodge. It was largely attended and the guests remained until the final performance. The members of the lodge entertained in most royal fashion.
