

IN A BROWN STUDY

Republicans Find Difficulty in Figuring Out Senate Organization.

THWARTED ON ALL SIDES BY DEMOCRATS

Silverites and Populists Also Join in Making Things Unpleasant.

INSIST ON COMMITTEE REPRESENTATION

New Republican Senators Not Likely to Receive Committee Appointments.

NJ SEATS FOR APPOINTED SENATORS

Democrats Hope to Aggrandize Party Interests by Prolonging Debate on All Sections of the Tariff Bill.

WASHINGTON, March 11.—The republican committee on the situation in the senate held a meeting this afternoon.

The conference with the new senators for the purpose of advising them of the difficulties in the way of filling committee assignments.

At present none of the new senators will have committee places, and if there is no reorganization they will be without places.

The situation was explained by members of the committee as being one of "considerable importance."

The democrats insisted that in making up the committees all the silver republicans and populists should be included in the majority assignments.

The republicans, said one of the committee to the senators, must give places to silver republicans and populists who would not act with them, but on the other hand, would be likely to vote with the democrats in committee and in the senate.

On many questions to come before the body, nor was there the slightest understanding that silver republicans and populists would support the party in any way.

There was entire agreement and harmony on the part of all who participated in the conference today, the new senators in committee and in the senate.

While no definite conclusion was reached, it is probable that nothing will be done and that the committee will remain in existence until the republican committee will have a further conference with the democratic committee.

As a result of the several conferences which have taken place, it is believed that the democrats, it may be definitely said that the men who have been appointed by the governors in states where republicans have had an opportunity to elect, will not be admitted.

The republican managers say that it would be a fruitless waste of time to bring the cases before the senate.

The republican managers say that the republican committee will have a further conference with the democratic committee.

As a result of the several conferences which have taken place, it is believed that the democrats, it may be definitely said that the men who have been appointed by the governors in states where republicans have had an opportunity to elect, will not be admitted.

The republican managers say that it would be a fruitless waste of time to bring the cases before the senate.

The republican managers say that the republican committee will have a further conference with the democratic committee.

As a result of the several conferences which have taken place, it is believed that the democrats, it may be definitely said that the men who have been appointed by the governors in states where republicans have had an opportunity to elect, will not be admitted.

The republican managers say that it would be a fruitless waste of time to bring the cases before the senate.

The republican managers say that the republican committee will have a further conference with the democratic committee.

As a result of the several conferences which have taken place, it is believed that the democrats, it may be definitely said that the men who have been appointed by the governors in states where republicans have had an opportunity to elect, will not be admitted.

The republican managers say that it would be a fruitless waste of time to bring the cases before the senate.

The republican managers say that the republican committee will have a further conference with the democratic committee.

As a result of the several conferences which have taken place, it is believed that the democrats, it may be definitely said that the men who have been appointed by the governors in states where republicans have had an opportunity to elect, will not be admitted.

The republican managers say that it would be a fruitless waste of time to bring the cases before the senate.

The republican managers say that the republican committee will have a further conference with the democratic committee.

As a result of the several conferences which have taken place, it is believed that the democrats, it may be definitely said that the men who have been appointed by the governors in states where republicans have had an opportunity to elect, will not be admitted.

The republican managers say that it would be a fruitless waste of time to bring the cases before the senate.

The republican managers say that the republican committee will have a further conference with the democratic committee.

As a result of the several conferences which have taken place, it is believed that the democrats, it may be definitely said that the men who have been appointed by the governors in states where republicans have had an opportunity to elect, will not be admitted.

The republican managers say that it would be a fruitless waste of time to bring the cases before the senate.

The republican managers say that the republican committee will have a further conference with the democratic committee.

As a result of the several conferences which have taken place, it is believed that the democrats, it may be definitely said that the men who have been appointed by the governors in states where republicans have had an opportunity to elect, will not be admitted.

The republican managers say that it would be a fruitless waste of time to bring the cases before the senate.

The republican managers say that the republican committee will have a further conference with the democratic committee.

As a result of the several conferences which have taken place, it is believed that the democrats, it may be definitely said that the men who have been appointed by the governors in states where republicans have had an opportunity to elect, will not be admitted.

The republican managers say that it would be a fruitless waste of time to bring the cases before the senate.

The republican managers say that the republican committee will have a further conference with the democratic committee.

As a result of the several conferences which have taken place, it is believed that the democrats, it may be definitely said that the men who have been appointed by the governors in states where republicans have had an opportunity to elect, will not be admitted.

STIRAM OF CALLERS SLACKENS

Attends at the White House First Assuming Their Normal Course.

WASHINGTON, March 11.—Affairs at the white house are fast assuming a normal aspect and there is a marked falling off of the crowds of public men and of the general visitor.

There was comparative quiet today in Secretary Forster's office and in the main room, so that the president was able to give considerable time to public business.

The congressional callers dropped in from time to time, but at no period was there a rush such as occurred during the first few days.

Among the callers were Senators Morrill of Vermont, chairman of the finance committee; Culom and Mason of Illinois; Platt of Connecticut; White California; Spooner of Wisconsin; Stewart of Nevada; Clarke and Warren of Wyoming; and Representative Lacey of Iowa, and Harrison administration.

Archbishop Chapelle of the Catholic archdiocese of Santa Fe called. Another clerical caller was Rev. T. DeWitt Talmage, Secretary of the National Board of Christian Work of New Hampshire, who have been prominent in advancing the proposed interstate monetary conference, called. Mr. Coombs of the Pacific railroads, saw the president for the purpose of explaining the present status of the litigation against these roads.

Among other callers were Senators Hanna and Foraker of Ohio, Elkins of West Virginia, Penrose of Pennsylvania, ex-Senator Sawyer of Michigan, and Senator Soren of Ohio. Mr. Sawyer was accompanied by ex-Representative Richard Guenber of Wisconsin, candidate for consul general to Mexico.

Edward Elliott of Chicago as a candidate for assistant attorney general. J. C. Napier of Nashville, Tenn., was presented by Secretary of Agriculture Langdon of Virginia for register of the treasury.

EVANS TO DISTRIBUTE PENSIONS.

Tennessee Man Tendered the Commission.

WASHINGTON, March 11.—H. Clay Evans of Tennessee tendered the office of commissioner of pensions and it all probability will accept the appointment, which is one of the most important in the departmental service at Washington outside of the cabinet.

Mr. Evans is well known to public men throughout the country, and for many years has been a leader among southern republicans. He represented the Chattanooga district in congress for some years, and was first assistant postmaster general of Tennessee.

Later he was a candidate for governor of Tennessee on the republican ticket, and made a remarkable run. The result was in doubt for many weeks, but he was finally defeated by a board appointed to review the election that it finally was announced officially that Governor Turney his democratic opponent had been elected.

Mr. Evans was considered for some time unlikely to be the south's representative in Mr. McKinley's cabinet. Mr. Evans is a business man and has a large factory, and is a manufacturer and has large railway supply repairing shops. He is a forceful and effective speaker.

VISIT IS PURELY A SOCIAL ONE.

Chinese Consul at San Francisco Reaches Washington.

WASHINGTON, March 11.—Fung Yung Yan, the Chinese consul general at San Francisco, said today in explanation of his presence here at this time that Mr. Yang Yu, the Chinese minister, was an old friend of his and that he desired to see him and to discuss with him the various matters which were pending in the Chinese consulate at San Francisco.

Mr. Yan said that he had been in San Francisco for some time and that he had been in San Francisco for some time and that he had been in San Francisco for some time.

Mr. Yan said that he had been in San Francisco for some time and that he had been in San Francisco for some time and that he had been in San Francisco for some time.

Mr. Yan said that he had been in San Francisco for some time and that he had been in San Francisco for some time and that he had been in San Francisco for some time.

Mr. Yan said that he had been in San Francisco for some time and that he had been in San Francisco for some time and that he had been in San Francisco for some time.

Mr. Yan said that he had been in San Francisco for some time and that he had been in San Francisco for some time and that he had been in San Francisco for some time.

Mr. Yan said that he had been in San Francisco for some time and that he had been in San Francisco for some time and that he had been in San Francisco for some time.

Mr. Yan said that he had been in San Francisco for some time and that he had been in San Francisco for some time and that he had been in San Francisco for some time.

Mr. Yan said that he had been in San Francisco for some time and that he had been in San Francisco for some time and that he had been in San Francisco for some time.

Mr. Yan said that he had been in San Francisco for some time and that he had been in San Francisco for some time and that he had been in San Francisco for some time.

Mr. Yan said that he had been in San Francisco for some time and that he had been in San Francisco for some time and that he had been in San Francisco for some time.

Mr. Yan said that he had been in San Francisco for some time and that he had been in San Francisco for some time and that he had been in San Francisco for some time.

Mr. Yan said that he had been in San Francisco for some time and that he had been in San Francisco for some time and that he had been in San Francisco for some time.

Mr. Yan said that he had been in San Francisco for some time and that he had been in San Francisco for some time and that he had been in San Francisco for some time.

Mr. Yan said that he had been in San Francisco for some time and that he had been in San Francisco for some time and that he had been in San Francisco for some time.

Mr. Yan said that he had been in San Francisco for some time and that he had been in San Francisco for some time and that he had been in San Francisco for some time.

Mr. Yan said that he had been in San Francisco for some time and that he had been in San Francisco for some time and that he had been in San Francisco for some time.

Mr. Yan said that he had been in San Francisco for some time and that he had been in San Francisco for some time and that he had been in San Francisco for some time.

Mr. Yan said that he had been in San Francisco for some time and that he had been in San Francisco for some time and that he had been in San Francisco for some time.

Mr. Yan said that he had been in San Francisco for some time and that he had been in San Francisco for some time and that he had been in San Francisco for some time.

Mr. Yan said that he had been in San Francisco for some time and that he had been in San Francisco for some time and that he had been in San Francisco for some time.

Mr. Yan said that he had been in San Francisco for some time and that he had been in San Francisco for some time and that he had been in San Francisco for some time.

Mr. Yan said that he had been in San Francisco for some time and that he had been in San Francisco for some time and that he had been in San Francisco for some time.

Mr. Yan said that he had been in San Francisco for some time and that he had been in San Francisco for some time and that he had been in San Francisco for some time.

Mr. Yan said that he had been in San Francisco for some time and that he had been in San Francisco for some time and that he had been in San Francisco for some time.

Mr. Yan said that he had been in San Francisco for some time and that he had been in San Francisco for some time and that he had been in San Francisco for some time.

Mr. Yan said that he had been in San Francisco for some time and that he had been in San Francisco for some time and that he had been in San Francisco for some time.

Mr. Yan said that he had been in San Francisco for some time and that he had been in San Francisco for some time and that he had been in San Francisco for some time.

Mr. Yan said that he had been in San Francisco for some time and that he had been in San Francisco for some time and that he had been in San Francisco for some time.

PREPARED FOR THE PUSH OFF

Everything Ready for the Launch of the Fifty-Fifth Congress.

TARIFF BILL READY FOR INTRODUCTION

Dingley Has the Measure in Hand for Presentation as Soon as the Extra Session Opens on Monday Next.

WASHINGTON, March 11.—(Special Telegram.)—Congressman Dingley stated tonight that a tariff bill would be introduced by Congressman Dingley either Monday or Tuesday, and that the committee on ways and means would be announced shortly after the convening of congress and the election of Reed as speaker. There is little or no opposition to the present house officers, and it is expected a vote will be cast Saturday evening when the republicans get together in caucus to choose their officers for the Fifty-fifth congress.

Ex-Congressman Pickler, who has fallen to be made commissioner of pensions, will in all probability be given a place on the Dawes commission or be made commissioner of Indian affairs. It is certain, however, that Pickler will be taken care of, although Secretary Bliss has stated that he would much prefer having a man unconnected with Indian affairs at the head of this important bureau.

J. Warren Keifer, Jr., will in all probability be appointed postmaster at Boston, Neb., his recommendation for the position having gone to Assistant Secretary Maxwell today.

Fred E. Adams of Ord, Neb., George A. Duncan of Allerton, Ia., and Charles M. Bardwell of Radcliff, Ia., have been appointed railway mail clerks.

William L. Sutherland and his private secretary, C. H. Polzema of Nelson, arrived last night and stopped at the St. James.

Congressman Samuel Maxwell and son Jacob, who will officiate as his private secretary, got in today.

Congressman John E. Osborne of Wyoming is at the Riggs hotel.

Charles H. Marple and wife (nee Mora Balcombe) of Omaha are domiciled at the Shoreham.

APPLICATIONS STILL COMING IN.

Men Who Want Positions in the Treasury Department.

WASHINGTON, March 11.—Additional applications for appointment to presidential offices in the Treasury department have been made as follows: T. T. Allan of New York, as auditor for the Navy department; W. W. Bates of Illinois, commissioner of navigation; William Odlin of Massachusetts, assistant secretary; John H. Keatley of Minnesota, assistant secretary; W. B. Howell of New Jersey, assistant secretary; T. T. Rockwood of New York, assistant secretary; J. A. Ockerson of Missouri, superintendent coast and geodetic survey; M. C. Garland of Pennsylvania, commissioner of immigration.

Mrs. McKinley Oils on Gen. Hastings.

WASHINGTON, March 11.—The condition of General Hastings, who was shot yesterday, was broken yesterday, is very satisfactory.

Today Mrs. McKinley, accompanied by Miss Mabel McKinley and General and Mrs. Ford, drove out from the white house to the hospital and Mrs. McKinley carried a large bouquet of flowers for the sick man.

Daily Treasury Statement.

WASHINGTON, March 11.—Today's statement of the condition of the treasury shows: Available cash balance, $211,470,742; gold reserve, $151,989,295.

WANTS A DETAILED STATEMENT.

Interesting Demand Made in a Noted Kansas Insurance Case.

TOPEKA, Kan., March 11.—A new turn in the famous Hillman insurance case, a fight over the settlement of which last week resulted in State Superintendent of Insurance Welch McNall's resignation, is being fought today in the courts.

Mr. Hillman, who is the plaintiff, is suing McNall for the amount of money advanced to him by McNall for the purpose of carrying on his business in Kansas. McNall, who is the defendant, is suing Hillman for the amount of money advanced to him by Hillman for the purpose of carrying on his business in Kansas.

Mr. Hillman, who is the plaintiff, is suing McNall for the amount of money advanced to him by McNall for the purpose of carrying on his business in Kansas. McNall, who is the defendant, is suing Hillman for the amount of money advanced to him by Hillman for the purpose of carrying on his business in Kansas.

Mr. Hillman, who is the plaintiff, is suing McNall for the amount of money advanced to him by McNall for the purpose of carrying on his business in Kansas. McNall, who is the defendant, is suing Hillman for the amount of money advanced to him by Hillman for the purpose of carrying on his business in Kansas.

Mr. Hillman, who is the plaintiff, is suing McNall for the amount of money advanced to him by McNall for the purpose of carrying on his business in Kansas. McNall, who is the defendant, is suing Hillman for the amount of money advanced to him by Hillman for the purpose of carrying on his business in Kansas.

Mr. Hillman, who is the plaintiff, is suing McNall for the amount of money advanced to him by McNall for the purpose of carrying on his business in Kansas. McNall, who is the defendant, is suing Hillman for the amount of money advanced to him by Hillman for the purpose of carrying on his business in Kansas.

Mr. Hillman, who is the plaintiff, is suing McNall for the amount of money advanced to him by McNall for the purpose of carrying on his business in Kansas. McNall, who is the defendant, is suing Hillman for the amount of money advanced to him by Hillman for the purpose of carrying on his business in Kansas.

Mr. Hillman, who is the plaintiff, is suing McNall for the amount of money advanced to him by McNall for the purpose of carrying on his business in Kansas. McNall, who is the defendant, is suing Hillman for the amount of money advanced to him by Hillman for the purpose of carrying on his business in Kansas.

Mr. Hillman, who is the plaintiff, is suing McNall for the amount of money advanced to him by McNall for the purpose of carrying on his business in Kansas. McNall, who is the defendant, is suing Hillman for the amount of money advanced to him by Hillman for the purpose of carrying on his business in Kansas.

Mr. Hillman, who is the plaintiff, is suing McNall for the amount of money advanced to him by McNall for the purpose of carrying on his business in Kansas. McNall, who is the defendant, is suing Hillman for the amount of money advanced to him by Hillman for the purpose of carrying on his business in Kansas.

Mr. Hillman, who is the plaintiff, is suing McNall for the amount of money advanced to him by McNall for the purpose of carrying on his business in Kansas. McNall, who is the defendant, is suing Hillman for the amount of money advanced to him by Hillman for the purpose of carrying on his business in Kansas.

Mr. Hillman, who is the plaintiff, is suing McNall for the amount of money advanced to him by McNall for the purpose of carrying on his business in Kansas. McNall, who is the defendant, is suing Hillman for the amount of money advanced to him by Hillman for the purpose of carrying on his business in Kansas.

Mr. Hillman, who is the plaintiff, is suing McNall for the amount of money advanced to him by McNall for the purpose of carrying on his business in Kansas. McNall, who is the defendant, is suing Hillman for the amount of money advanced to him by Hillman for the purpose of carrying on his business in Kansas.

Mr. Hillman, who is the plaintiff, is suing McNall for the amount of money advanced to him by McNall for the purpose of carrying on his business in Kansas. McNall, who is the defendant, is suing Hillman for the amount of money advanced to him by Hillman for the purpose of carrying on his business in Kansas.

Mr. Hillman, who is the plaintiff, is suing McNall for the amount of money advanced to him by McNall for the purpose of carrying on his business in Kansas. McNall, who is the defendant, is suing Hillman for the amount of money advanced to him by Hillman for the purpose of carrying on his business in Kansas.

Mr. Hillman, who is the plaintiff, is suing McNall for the amount of money advanced to him by McNall for the purpose of carrying on his business in Kansas. McNall, who is the defendant, is suing Hillman for the amount of money advanced to him by Hillman for the purpose of carrying on his business in Kansas.

Mr. Hillman, who is the plaintiff, is suing McNall for the amount of money advanced to him by McNall for the purpose of carrying on his business in Kansas. McNall, who is the defendant, is suing Hillman for the amount of money advanced to him by Hillman for the purpose of carrying on his business in Kansas.

Mr. Hillman, who is the plaintiff, is suing McNall for the amount of money advanced to him by McNall for the purpose of carrying on his business in Kansas. McNall, who is the defendant, is suing Hillman for the amount of money advanced to him by Hillman for the purpose of carrying on his business in Kansas.

Mr. Hillman, who is the plaintiff, is suing McNall for the amount of money advanced to him by McNall for the purpose of carrying on his business in Kansas. McNall, who is the defendant, is suing Hillman for the amount of money advanced to him by Hillman for the purpose of carrying on his business in Kansas.

Mr. Hillman, who is the plaintiff, is suing McNall for the amount of money advanced to him by McNall for the purpose of carrying on his business in Kansas. McNall, who is the defendant, is suing Hillman for the amount of money advanced to him by Hillman for the purpose of carrying on his business in Kansas.

Mr. Hillman, who is the plaintiff, is suing McNall for the amount of money advanced to him by McNall for the purpose of carrying on his business in Kansas. McNall, who is the defendant, is suing Hillman for the amount of money advanced to him by Hillman for the purpose of carrying on his business in Kansas.

Mr. Hillman, who is the plaintiff, is suing McNall for the amount of money advanced to him by McNall for the purpose of carrying on his business in Kansas. McNall, who is the defendant, is suing Hillman for the amount of money advanced to him by Hillman for the purpose of carrying on his business in Kansas.

Mr. Hillman, who is the plaintiff, is suing McNall for the amount of money advanced to him by McNall for the purpose of carrying on his business in Kansas. McNall, who is the defendant, is suing Hillman for the amount of money advanced to him by Hillman for the purpose of carrying on his business in Kansas.

Mr. Hillman, who is the plaintiff, is suing McNall for the amount of money advanced to him by McNall for the purpose of carrying on his business in Kansas. McNall, who is the defendant, is suing Hillman for the amount of money advanced to him by Hillman for the purpose of carrying on his business in Kansas.

ALTIQED MEN ARE IN CONTROL

Ex-Governor However, Not Present at the Convention.

CHICAGO, March 11.—The democratic city convention was called to order about noon today by Chairman Thomas Cahoon, who introduced Charles H. Thompson as temporary chairman.

This removal of ex-Governor However from the outcome of the convention for the Fifty-fifth congress was generally conceded that had ex-Governor Altiqed been named, as was expected some days ago, a lively fight would have been made over the nomination of Altiqed.

Trade, who a day or two ago, withdrew from the majority contest on account of alleged bribery on the part of Altiqed. The ex-governor has been in the city since the convention today. It was well known that the Altiqed influence was to dominate the gathering.

Chicago, March 11.—(Special Telegram.)—Congressman Dingley stated tonight that a tariff bill would be introduced by Congressman Dingley either Monday or Tuesday, and that the committee on ways and means would be announced shortly after the convening of congress and the election of Reed as speaker.

There is little or no opposition to the present house officers, and it is expected a vote will be cast Saturday evening when the republicans get together in caucus to choose their officers for the Fifty-fifth congress.

Ex-Congressman Pickler, who has fallen to be made commissioner of pensions, will in all probability be given a place on the Dawes commission or be made commissioner of Indian affairs.

It is certain, however, that Pickler will be taken care of, although Secretary Bliss has stated that he would much prefer having a man unconnected with Indian affairs at the head of this important bureau.

J. Warren Keifer, Jr., will in all probability be appointed postmaster at Boston, Neb., his recommendation for the position having gone to Assistant Secretary Maxwell today.

Fred E. Adams of Ord, Neb., George A. Duncan of Allerton, Ia., and Charles M. Bardwell of Radcliff, Ia., have been appointed railway mail clerks.

William L. Sutherland and his private secretary, C. H. Polzema of Nelson, arrived last night and stopped at the St. James.

Congressman Samuel Maxwell and son Jacob, who will officiate as his private secretary, got in today.

Congressman John E. Osborne of Wyoming is at the Riggs hotel.

Charles H. Marple and wife (nee Mora Balcombe) of Omaha are domiciled at the Shoreham.

APPLICATIONS STILL COMING IN.

Men Who Want Positions in the Treasury Department.

WASHINGTON, March 11.—Additional applications for appointment to presidential offices in the Treasury department have been made as follows: T. T. Allan of New York, as auditor for the Navy department; W. W. Bates of Illinois, commissioner of navigation; William Odlin of Massachusetts, assistant secretary; John H. Keatley of Minnesota, assistant secretary; W. B. Howell of New Jersey, assistant secretary; T. T. Rockwood of New York, assistant secretary; J. A. Ockerson of Missouri, superintendent coast and geodetic survey; M. C. Garland of Pennsylvania, commissioner of immigration.

Mrs. McKinley Oils on Gen. Hastings.

WASHINGTON, March 11.—The condition of General Hastings, who was shot yesterday, was broken yesterday, is very satisfactory.

Today Mrs. McKinley, accompanied by Miss Mabel McKinley and General and Mrs. Ford, drove out from the white house to the hospital and Mrs. McKinley carried a large bouquet of flowers for the sick man.

Daily Treasury Statement.

WASHINGTON, March 11.—Today's statement of the condition of the treasury shows: Available cash balance, $211,470,742; gold reserve, $151,989,295.

WANTS A DETAILED STATEMENT.

Interesting Demand Made in a Noted Kansas Insurance Case.

TOPEKA, Kan., March 11.—A new turn in the famous Hillman insurance case, a fight over the settlement of which last week resulted in State Superintendent of Insurance Welch McNall's resignation, is being fought today in the courts.

Mr. Hillman, who is the plaintiff, is suing McNall for the amount of money advanced to him by McNall for the purpose of carrying on his business in Kansas. McNall, who is the defendant, is suing Hillman for the amount of money advanced to him by Hillman for the purpose of carrying on his business in Kansas.

Mr. Hillman, who is the plaintiff, is suing McNall for the amount of money advanced to him by McNall for the purpose of carrying on his business in Kansas. McNall, who is the defendant, is suing Hillman for the amount of money advanced to him by Hillman for the purpose of carrying on his business in Kansas.

Mr. Hillman, who is the plaintiff, is suing McNall for the amount of money advanced to him by McNall for the purpose of carrying on his business in Kansas. McNall, who is the defendant, is suing Hillman for the amount of money advanced to him by Hillman for the purpose of carrying on his business in Kansas.

Mr. Hillman, who is the plaintiff, is suing McNall for the amount of money advanced to him by McNall for the purpose of carrying on his business in Kansas. McNall, who is the defendant, is suing Hillman for the amount of money advanced to him by Hillman for the purpose of carrying on his business in Kansas.

Mr. Hillman, who is the plaintiff, is suing McNall for the amount of money advanced to him by McNall for the purpose of carrying on his business in Kansas. McNall, who is the defendant, is suing Hillman for the amount of money advanced to him by Hillman for the purpose of carrying on his business in Kansas.

Mr. Hillman, who is the plaintiff, is suing McNall for the amount of money advanced to him by McNall for the purpose of carrying on his business in Kansas. McNall, who is the defendant, is suing Hillman for the amount of money advanced to him by Hillman for the purpose of carrying on his business in Kansas.

Mr. Hillman, who is the plaintiff, is suing McNall for the amount of money advanced to him by McNall for the purpose of carrying on his business in Kansas. McNall, who is the defendant, is suing Hillman for the amount of money advanced to him by Hillman for the purpose of carrying on his business in Kansas.