THE OMAHA DAILY BEE: MONDAY, MARCH 15, 1897.

| SPECIAL NOTICES  | MASSAGE, BATHS, ETC.   | BUILDING AND LOAN ASSOCIATION  | *   | *   | honored guest. Mrs. Barrett, Marcia'smother, fainted outright. Mr. Barrett, be-   |          |
|--|--|--|--|--|---|----------|
| SILUIAL NUTIOLS  | MME SMITH, 1131 DOUGLAS, ROOM 5; MAS-sage and steam baths. T-M466 15*  | SHARES IN MUTUAL L. & B. ASS'N PATS 67, 8 per cent when 1, 2, 3 years old; always re-deemable. 1704 Farnam street. Nattinger, Sec.             | FROM ANGEL   | TO DEMON   | ing better able to control the tempestuousemotions aroused by the sudden news, left   | H        |
| Advertisements for these columnswill be taken until 12:30 p. m. for the  | MRS, DR. LEON, ELECTRIC MASSAGE BATHparlors; restful and curative. 417 S. 11th st.,upstairs. T-M454 20 <sup>4</sup>  | HOW TO GET A HOME OR SECURE GOOD   | *   |  | the house to find if the story were true.The police confirmed the rumor.  | te       |
| evening and until 8 p. m. for themorning and Sunday editions.  | PERSONAL.  | Interest on savings. Apply to Omaha L. & B.Ass'n, 1704 Farnam. G. M. Nattinger, Sec.183  | By Samuel  | W. McCoy.  | Before taking his flight the heartless fraudindited a few words to poor Marcia, fullydisclosing to her the cause of his sudden        | 81       |
| Advertisers, by requesting a num-bered check, can have answers ad-   | $25.00-RUPTURB, CURED-TILL MARCH 15for $55.00; no pain; no detention from busines;   | CARPET CLEANING.   |    | *  | departure, and telling her that she wouldnever see his face again. While the guests   | C        |
| dressed to a numbered letter in careof The Bee. Answers so addressed   | We refer to hundreds of patients cured. TheO. E. Miller Co., 717 New York Life Bldg.,Omaha. U-159  | CHAMPION CARPET CLEANING CO., CARPETbeaten, scoured and repoynted; refitting and re-   | At the age of 18 Marcla Barrett was an   | forced cheerfulness she was now compelled  | in the drawing room were just beginning torecover from the amazement and consterna-tion into which they had been thrown, this         | 11       |
| will be delivered on presentation of the check only.   | OMAHA DENTAL COLLEGE, 12 & PACIFIC STSTeeth filled with gold, amaigam, tin, gutta-   | laying carpets a specialty; new management,715-720 South 14th street, Omaha, Neb., Tel. 655868 M-17  | and a second of the state of the second second   | to wear as a mask, and she looked at her-self as she really was, she shuddered at  | letter reached her.She broke the seal and at a glance read  | H        |
| Rates, 1 1-2c n word first insertion;le a word thereafter. Nothing taken   | perch, cement, and plates made for cost ofmaterial only. Teeth extracted and cleaned freeU-162   | SHORTHAND AND TYPEWRITING.   | lavished her charms-a creature all bright-ness, grace and sweetness, sent into the   | what she saw. Her eyes, her mouth andlips, her brow, all assumed a demoniacalexpression, and the gladsome smile was re-        | her fate. With a shriek, like the bitter cryof despair from the depths of a lost soul,  | 01       |
| for less than 25c for the first inser-tion. These advertisements must be   | BATHS, MASSAGE, MME. POST, $19% 8. 15TH.U-189-  | A. C. VAN SANT'S SCHOOL 513 N. T. LIFE.  | world to carry sunshine and gladness wher-ever she went. Her dark eyes were large and  |  | she sank to the floor.A few months later had you visited a  | te       |
| run consecutively.   | VIAVI FOR UTERINE TROUBLES, 346-8 BEEBidg. Physician, computation or health book   | AT OMAHA BUS. COLLEGE, 16TH & DUGLAS.  | lustrous, and through them could be seenthe kindness and simplicity of her heart.  | horror from the glass, exclaiming:"What evil spirit possesses me that my   | certain madhouse, where we see the truetype of the demon in human form, and   | nitř |
| WANTED_MALE HELP.  | free. U-161I CURE WRINKLES. BALDNESS AND SU-   | PHYSICAL CULTURE.  | Her silken hair was of an auburn color, andfell in wavy tresses to her waist. Her skin   | face of which I was once so proud has nowthe expression of demons and devils?"Had she looked into the innermost re-            | passed up and down the long corridors, looked through the iron bars into every cell,  | 1 te     |
| WANTED-AN IDEA. WHO CAN THINK OFsome simple thing to patent? Protect yourideas; they may bring you wealth. Write John                                | perfucus hair. 326 Chamber of Commerce.True Co. U-M798 M 15*   | ELOCUTION, MRS. W. N. DORWARD, 623 N. 19   | was soft, white and clear, with sufficient   | cesses of her heart she would have found thecause for the transformation of her features.  | you would have found the most diabolical.fiendish, ghoulish looking face, in all thathouse of evil, to be the face of the once        | p        |
| Wedderburn & Co., Dept. V. Patent Attorneys,Washington, D. C., for their $1,800 prize offerand a list of 200 inventions wanted. B-143               | 125.00 REWARD WILL BE PAID AND NO questions asked for the return of pocketbook.  | M981 Mch22*  | health. Her lips were cherry-red, and when   | There she would have seen unfaithfulness,cruelty and the wicked ambition to ensnare  | beautiful Marcia Barrett. She had sownwith a free hand and her harvest was abund-   | 10       |
| A FFW ENERGETIC, HUSTLING MEN CANand steady, profitable work with C. F. Adams  | containing rings, etc., lost at 26th and Harneyor between that and 26th and Howard, Ad-dreas F 66, Hec. U-M329   | ASTROLOGY.PROFESSOR A. MASERY OF EGYPT, PALM-  | parted with a smile they revealed her ivory-white, well-shaped teeth glistening like rows  | men, only to rejoice in crushing them. Awise Creator never intended a black heartand a condemning conscience to go with an     | the start when the start work to be wer office destruction  | H        |
| Co., 524 So. 16th St. B-894WANTED, YOUR ADDRESS; WILL SEND   | MISS TERRILI, HAS REMOVED HER DRESS-making parlors to 2d floor, Paxton block, 16thstreet; elevator, U-M452 AR*   | istry and astrology, the wender of the age;past present and future told or no charge, at2026 Harney st., Omaha, Neb. 503-13*                   | of pearls. Her throat was full and round.Add to this the fact that her body was per-   | angel's face. To look beautiful one must bebeautiful. What a price poor Marcia had   | tion.   | d        |
| particulars of how one man made $22,000 infive years; you can do the same by trying.  | MONEY TO LOAN_REAL ESTATE.   | WATCHMAKERS.   | fectly symmetrical, every lineament addingto the sum total of beauty, a superb car-  | paid for her five short years of conquest!By a mighty effort and as a result of much   | Current Literature  | fa       |
| Address P. O. box 5308, Boston, Mass.B-M299  | MONEY TO LOAN ON IMPROVED OMAHA  | HARD TIME PRICES: WATCHES CLEANED.   | riage, grace in every movement, and you have some idea of this charming young  | practice before the glass she managed tocontinue to shine as a beauty. Night afternight her real ugliness was hidden under a   | LEL LEDEL LEL LEL LE CARA EL C                                | Lm       |
| 100 WEEKLY SALARY AND EXPENSES PAIDsalesmen for cigars; experience unnecessary;permanent position. The W. L. Kline Co.,St. Louis, Mo. B-M314 A2* | real estate. Brennan, Love Co., Paxton block.W-163   | The: genuine main spring, 75c: watch crystals,15c; clocks cleaned and repaired cheap: specta-cles and eyeglasses half price; eyes tested free; | woman.Marcia was fully aware of her striking   | mask of deceptive smiles and an outward  | Five short stories are embraced under onecover and named after the first, "The Last   | 1 Sector |
| RELIABLE MAN TO HANDLE AGENTS FOR  | ON OMAHA PROPERTY, LOWEST RATES;building loans wanted. Fidelity Trust Co.W-163   | work warranted. Ashibel Patterson, 1611 Parn'm.892 M23   | since half of the young men in her circle of   | and it was always with great relief that she   | Recruit of Clare's," by S. R. Keightley. Thefirst of these bearing above title, tells of  | to       |
| Telephone Tablet and specialities. Pays$5,000 a year. Enclose stamp. Victory Mfg.Co., Cleveland, Ohlo. B-M618 15*                                   | MONEY TO LOAN AT LOW RATES. THEO. F. Davis Co., 15% Farnam St. W-184   | BEST WORK AND LOWEST PRICES. FORE-man for Max Meyer & Bro. Co. for ten years.Main springs, 75c; watches cleaned, 75c, and                      | On her debut into society she at once be-  | reached her room after these nightly ordeals.There she could be alone, and with nohuman eye to observe her she could throw     | the slege of Rayonville, wherein the Irishregiment in the employ of Louis XIV, of   | 1.1.7.5  |
| WANTED_FEMALE HELP.  | 6 PER CENT MONEY TO LOAN ON OMAHAproperty, Neb. farms. W. B. Meikle, 1st Nat'l BkW-165   | all other work on the same scale. E. Ketterer,Manufacturing Jeweler and Engraver, 116 S.15th St. upstairs. 522-25                              | world, and other beauties who had hithertoreigned supreme were thrown into a shadow  | off the mask.No one can doubt that such a life must  | which Dillon is then lieutenant, distin-guishes itself, and Mahoney, a sergeant, saves  | 81       |
| FOR GOOD AND RESPECTABLE GIRLS CALLScandinavian Y. W. C. Assn. Home, 2018 Dav-   | the second s   |  | by her superior charms. Her quick wit,   | be a miserable one. She began to thinkthat she was the most unhappy creature on  | a little orphaned boy who becomes the pet ofthe regiment at once. The description of thedeath of the boy and of Mahoney is the        | H        |
| enport street. C-M511 22*WANTED, AT ONCE, WOMAN HOUSE-   |  |  | manners, won all hearts to her.In the throng of admirers, who constantly   | earth. But her cup was not yet full. Shehad a vague fear that her heart was deadwithin her, for, though she had many hand-     | climax of the story. Dillon reappears in twoother tales, "The King's Favor" and "The  | in       |
| keeper; German preferred; small family. Ad-dress Robert Budatz, 1050 East Broadway.  | and the second state of th | (P)  | gentleman named Harold Reed. He was  | some, accomplished and worthy men in the   | Knees of Fate," the latter giving an accountof Dillon's accidental discovery of one ofMadame de Pompadour's state secrets and         | of       |
| WANTED, A GIRL TO COOK AND DO GEN-   |  |  | and worthy family, and held a high and   | in her breast a spark of love. She tried to love but could not. Must she pass the  | his immediate restoration to favor and pros-  | b        |
| eral housework at 2573 Dodge street; smallfamily, C-M391 15*   | <ul> <li>An address of the start</li> </ul>  | F.A.   | So far in life he had escaped the charmsof the gentier sex, but at first right he fell   | remainder of her life in loneliness and miserybecause she had not the power to love?The thought haunted her night and day, and | geath's."When Hearts are True." by Fannie E.  | be       |
| FOR RENT_HOUSES.   | free free  |  | deeply in love with pretty Marcia. Hertranscendant beauty and queenly grace kin-dled the fire in his breast, and it burned with  | brought her even more anguish than the ter-  | Ostrander, is a story full of heart-trying sus-penses that end with a removal of the cloudsthat darken two lives. The lovers both be- | th       |
| HOUSES IN ALL PARTS OF THE CITY. THEO. F. Davis Company, 1505 Farnam. D-144  |  |  | such fervor that it all but consumed him.With what ecstatic joy he perceived that  | before the mirror. She had done worse thanto bury her talents—she had put them to a  | lieve themselves free at the time of wooing,though the hero, Lawrence Arlington, has  |          |
| HOUSES-BENEWA & CO., 108 N. 15TH ST.D-145  | - K- C   | A A A A A A A A A A A A A A A A A A A  |  | wicked use—and she must reap as she hadsown.About this time a man named Lawrence   | puzzled over the problem of the binding   | N        |
| MODERN HOUSES, C. A. STARR $25 N. Y. LIFED-145  | Star Star  |  | not hide it from him. In those many little   | Wylle made his appearance in the littlesocial world, and he immediately became one   | sacredness of marriage when there is no lovein the union, they decide an a renunciationof each other. The unloved wife, fortunately   | н        |
| CHOICE HOUSES AND COTTAGES ALL OVERthe city, 45 to 450. Fidelity, 1702 Farnam St.D-147   | The Stand Stand Stand  |  | understood by a man in love, she told himthat his affection was reciprocated in a  | of the number who paid homage to MarciaBarrett. It was whispered about that he   | for them, dies and the two lovers are happilyunited the happier for the course they had   | As       |
| HOUSES, WALLACE, BROWN BLOCK, 16THand Douglas, D-148   | HUID TE  |  | filled with unsneakable lov. As he pressed   | was wealthy, and that he was descendedfrom a good family. These rumors weresufficient to give him entrance into society.       | adopted. Laird & Lee, Chicago.In "Natural Law in the Business World,"Mr. Walter W. Felts endeavors to trace the                       |          |
| HOUSES, COTTAGES & STORES, ALL PARTSof city. Brennan, Love Co., 430 Paxton block.  | NO.59  |  | he was loved in return, and that he wouldsoon possess the object of his adoration! How   | He had dark hair and eyes, was tall, straight,and well formed. He was young and would  | evils of the day to violation of what he inter-   | lit      |
| D-149HOUSES, FLATS, GARVIN BROS, 1613 FARNAM   |  |  | bright all the world seemed to him now!  | have been handsome but for a sinister ex-  | Felts is remarkably lucid and often elo-quent in the fervent zeal with which he pur-  | ad       |
| D-150HOUSES FOR RENT. BEMIS, PANTON BLK.   |  |  | beautiful to him, for a man who is lovedwhere he loves sees only the sunny side ofthe world.                                     | tleness and affability. He lived in magnifi-   | sues his theme, but a lack of sound concep-tion of fundamental principles leads himastray, landing him as an exponent of some         | Pı       |
| D-151LARGE LIST. M'CAGUE, 15TH & DODGE.  |  |  | O, beautiful Marcia! What a good and   | fellow.Something in this man touched a cord in   | prevalent isms rather than as a creator ofharmony in industrial science. Thus, he   | pa       |
| D-152TURKINGTON, 605 BEE BUILDING.   |  |  | from you causes a heart to overflow with   | Marcia's heart, and kindled there a feeblefire of love. With what joy she halled the   | largely engages in denouncing trusts, analleged corner of the money of the country,protective tariffs and snarulative land owner.     | Fe       |
| D-103FOR RENT-DETACHED EIGHT-ROOM MOD-   |  |  | for mod  | return of those feelings of which she hadthought herself no longer capable! A newlife seemed to open up before her-a life      | ship as the primary evils, mixing brillianttruths with gross misconceptions and im-   | 1 14.    |
| ern house. Nice lawn, 2611 Pierce st. D-472LARGE LIST. F. D. WEAD, 16TH & DOUGLAS  |  | N/AS THE HILL AND A  | importance to happy, infatuated Harold Reed.   | her joy was great. She resolved never again  | practical remedies. Published by the author,112 Fifth avenue, New York.   | lis      |
| D-502-31MODERN 8 ROOM HOUSE. HICKS AGT.  |  |  | days when he should call Marcia "wife."  | to triffe with love. She would marry thisman and spend the remainder of her days in  | The third part of Manie Sands' "The Op-posites of the Universe" is devoted to a dis-course about God, in which imaginary              | sti      |
| D-497-15TEN-ROOM HOUSE, MODERN IMPROVE.  |  |  | that had commanded his attention were un-noticed now. He had given himself up com-pletely to the pursuit of this fair creature.  | such a way as at least partly to atone forher misdeeds.As the day set for the wedding approached                               | parties participate. The writer states hisobject in the work "to demonstrate that the   |          |
| ments, 1811 Cass St. Inquire Reed Hotel, SouthOmaha. D-521-19*   | As ocean tides th  |  | and his success was so plainly apparent that   | she began to feel that after all her life wasto be a happy one. She loved this man   | universe is a whirl of opposites, and thatthese opposites, such as love and hate, good  | &()  |
| FOR RENT_FURNISHED ROOMS.  | Our faithful carrieAs ships bring free   | ers come and go,ight from o'er the sea,  | Thus Harold lived for manths-the happiestof men. True, he had not openly declared  | passionately, and never doubted his attach-ment for her. She began already to be   | and evil, light and dark, etc., are eternal,which implies that they are neither creatablenor destroyable, when the whole kosmos is    | TI       |
| FURNISHED ROOMS, 614 SOUTH 17TH AVE.E-362  |  | oring wealth to thee.  | asked for her hand, but he knew that she   | happy again, although, many times, thefiend, over which she seemed to havetriumphed, tempted her to discard this, as           | considered." Both sides of the questions in-volved are discussed with fine discernment.   | at       |
| FURNISHED ROOMS FOR HOUSEKEEPINGfor man and wife. Rent taken in board, 319 N.  | and status and a law of the second   | (R. B. Wallace.)   | book.During this time Marcia, too, was happy.  | she had her former lovers, and enjoy thesight of his anguish and misery. But her   | Peter Eckler, New York.John Strange Winter's new story, "Grip,"gives us a rather improbable bull dog, whose                           | Y        |
| FURNISHED ROOM FOR LIGHT HOUSE-keeping. Enquire 1924 Douglas St. E-520-15*   |  |  | She had been awakened to the power thatlay in her beauty and to see herself idolizedhad a strange charm and fascination for her. |  | young Yorkshire master comes from a familyin which that name runs as a hereditary   | UI       |
| NICELY FURNISHED ROOMS; HOUSE-keeping, 1112 South 11th. E-557-20*  | ANTHONY LOAN & TRUST CO., 315 N. Y. L.;quick money at low rates for choice farm loans  | LOST.  | She was conqueror and her field of conquestwas in the hearts of men.   | power to love would leave her, never to re-turn, and her future life would be but adreary waste-her heart desolate. Now it     | motto. George Somers prides himsolf uponhis inveteracy, and when his sweetheart jiltshim for a titled Frenchman he decides upon       | Ch       |
| ROOMS FOR LIGHT HOUSEKEEPING, 1224/2N. 15th. E-M555-18*  | in Iowa, northern Missouri, eastern Nebraska.W-167   | LOST, WEDNESDAY, NEAR 26TH & HARNEYstreets, ladles' leather pocket book, contain-ing 5 rings, keys and money; finder will re-                  |  | was not always a forced smile that playedon her face, and the task of hiding the   | vengeance. For eight years he nurses the determination to kill his rival, and through   | w        |
| FURNISHED ROOMS: HOUSEKEEPING. 2623  | WE WILL HAVE $200,000 TO $200,000 TO LOANin April, May, June and July on first-classimproved Omaha property in sums of $1,000 to  | turn to Bee office and receive liberal reward.Lost-108.  | loved him, but not with that ardor withwhich a woman should love the man shewould make her husband. She daily ex-                | longer so hard. To her, as she stood before  | all sorts of difficulties makes his way to hisvictim, then suddenly he falls in love witha younger sister of his old sweetheart and   | sel      |
| St. Mary's, E-616 18*8 NICELY FURNISHED ROOMS: HOUSE,  | 10,000; want applications at once; lowestrates on best loans. Fidelity Trust company,  | LOST, ST. BERNARD, BROWN AND WHITE,10 months old, answers name of Major; liberal   | pected him to unbosom himself and ask for  | the glass, it seemed that her old, natural beauty was returning.   | a younger sister of his old sweetheart andall ends happily. Stone & Kimball, New  | Yew      |

7

Stories," by Ellen Douglass Deland, contains in all three stories, the first, "In the Old Herrick House," telling how Elizabeth Her-rick lived alone in Philadelphia with her two rick lived alone in Philadelphia with her two aunts, who misunderstood her. She wrote to her fahrer begring him to come home to her, and she pined for other children until she got sick. Her father returned, and Eliza-beth was the means of finding an aunt who had been absent for many years. In "At the Camerons'," Hilda and Rose Von Dalbers-dorf came to their grandmother's house to live. Rose was stolen by a French maid servant, but found again, and with her her cousin Noel, who had been stolen before. Harper & Bros, New York. Megeath's. "Beauty and Hyglene" is a simple treatise

"Beauty and Hygiene" is a simple treatise on cultivation and preservation of beauty, presented in seventeen chapters, each one telling how to take care of some particular feature or to deal with some defect. It is not an advertising scheme for nostrums, but the beauty to be gained or taken care of is the beauty to be gained or taken care of is to have that sort of rational attention that the florist gives to his flowers to bring them to fullness of bloom and perfection. It is pointed out how to avoid excessive thinness as well as corpulence, and how to attain grace of carriage and a sweet well-modu-lated voice. There are also recipes for pure cosmetics and for the cure of minor maladies. Harper & Bros New York Merseth cosmetics and for the cure of minor maiadies. Harper & Bros., New York. Megeath. The hero in Eva Wilder Brodhead's "Bound in Shallows" is a young man with a disgraceful past, who is given a good posi-tion with a chance to redeem himself. He falls in love with Lucy Morrow and she with him. He is found out in another swindle and here here a star and the swindle and him. He is found out in abother swindle and Lucy gives him up. Later she makes up her mind to marry him in spite of everything and is only saved from this rash resolve by proof of his having married another woman. proof of his having married another woman. The story emphasizes the truth that in order to lift up those who have fallen we are not bound to sacrifice ourselves. Lucy is a beau-tiful character. She sees how deep down in the hearts of the worst of men there are germa of good and she thinks nothing is so surprisingly pleasant as to watch those kindly impulses creeping out in bad lives. Harper & Bros. New York. Megeath's.

Following the same plan that he adopted Following the same plan that he adopted in regard to the points of literary interest in London, Edinburgh, Jerusalem and Venice, Mr. Hutton, in "Literary Landmarka of Florence," tells his readers of the houses, palaces and villas in Florence that have been made famous by literature or by liter-ary men; and sometimes of houses that have become famous from having sheltered men who were renowned for other reasons-notably Amerigo Vespucci, to whom we owe the name of our continent. Harper & Bros., New York. Megeath's.

MAGAZINES RECEIVED. Outing. The Outing Publishing company,

New York. The American Kitchen Magazine. The Home Science Publishing company, Boston. The Outlook. The Outlook company, 13

Astor Place, New York. Book News. John Wanamaker, Philadelphia. Medical Sentiment. Portland, Ore.

Annals of the American Academy of Po-litical and Social Science. Philadelphia. Sothoron's Magazine. Sothoron's Magazine company, 131 South Fifth street, Philadelphia.

Short Stories. The Current Literature Publishing company, New York. The Forum. The Forum Publishing company, New York. Self-Culture. The Werner company,

Akron, O. The Month. The Critic company, 287 Fourth avenue, New York.

The Hypnotic Magazine. Psychic Publishing company.

lishing company. The Open Court. The Open Court Pub-lishing company, Chicago. The State's Duty. W. H. Moore, 106 Pine street, St. Louis, Mo. Current History. Garretson, Cox & Co.,

Buffalo, N. Y. Woman's Home Companion. Mast, Crowell

& Kilpatrick, Springfield, O. The Chap-Book. Herbert S. Stone & Co., Chicago.

The American Art Journal. William M. Thous & Co., New York. Current Literature. The Current Liter-ture Publishing company, New York. The Bookman. Dodd, Mead & Co., New York.

The Art Amateur, Montague Marks, 23 Union Square, New York. BOOKS RECEIVED.

Houghton, Miffin & Co., Boston: "The Chief End of Man," by George S. Merriam. Cloth; $1.50. Charles H. Sergel Company, Chicago: "The Wreck of the Corsaire," by W. Clark Rus-sell. Cloth; $1. Town Topics Publishing company, New York: "A Martyr to Love," by Joanna E. Wood. Paper; 50 cents. all ends happily. Stone & Kimball, New York, Megeath's. "The Story of the Chosen People," by H. Peter Fenelon Collier, New York: "Dr. Darch's Wife," by Florence Warden, Paper; A. Guerber, comprises a series of tales derived from the Old Testament, told from a purely secular standpoint, simply as historical 25 cents. American Railway Guide company, Chicago: "Rand-McNally Official Railway Guide for March. Paper; 40 cents. Laird & Lee, Chicago: "When Hearts are stories, without any reference to their doc-trinal or religious significance. The book is well adapted for supplementary reading is well adapted for supplementary reading in schools, the narrative being written in the simplest style and easily within the com-prehension of pupils in the third and fourth reader grades. It is beautifully illustrated by twenty-two full page reproductions of celebrated paintings, and by numerous small cuts, and by sketch maps of Jerusalem and the Holy Land. American Book Company. of Ass True," by Fannie E. Ostrander. Cloth ,50 cents; paper, 25 cents. Peter Fenelon Collier, New York: "Life's Fitful Feyer," by Edgar Fawcett. Paper 25 cents, "Lying Prophets," by Eden Phill-potts. Paper, 25 cents, Charles Wallace & Co., Omaha: "Directory of Associate Attorneys of Charles E. Walters & Co." Cloth, 223 pages. Continental Publishing Company, New York: "Lo-to-Kah," by Verner Z. Reed. the Holy Land. American Book Company, The green and yellow heroines with floral soubriquets who have been afflicting us with their unnaturally hued lives and nauseating frankness must go! The sensitive mind of Cloth. $1. The Home Publishing company, New York: "Don Balasco of Key West," by the constant reader has decreed it. For Phroso is here—sweet, womanly Phroso. With Phroso to read about one cares no more York: "Don Balasco of Key West," by Archibald Clavering Gunter. Paper, 50 cents, The Lancet Publishing company for any world but hers. To make her ac-quaintance properly, Mr. Anthony Hope Hawkins has devised most clever dialogue. Minn.: "Why We Punctuate," by a journalist. Cloth, $1. By authors: "National and Municipal Questions," by O. A. Myers. Paper, 50 cents; very exciting adventures, and thrilling cli-maxes to carry one suliably and effectively cloth, 75 cents. "National Law in the Busito an intimate and appreciative friendship with Lady Euphrosyne of Neopolia. After Lord Charles Wheatley has bought the beaunes World," by Walter W. Felts. Paper; 128 pages. "Christ and Christianity from the Standpoint of the Modern Jew," by Rabbi Leo M. Franklin. Paper.

G. P. Putnam's Sons, New York: "In the Crucible." by Grace Denio Litchfield. Paper; 50 cents. tiful island called Neopila, situated in the Mediterranean, with Rhodes, the nearest land, 100 miles away, he finds that the na-tives are not so good-hearted and un-sophisticated as represented. Enraged at the

| St. Mary's. E-616 18*NICELY FURNISHED ROOMS: HOUSE.keeping. 1112 South 11th. E-372-13*   | improved Omaha property in sums of $1,000 to$10,000: want applications at once; lowest   | 10 months old, answers name of Major; liberareward for return to 1709 Jackson.   |
|--|--|--|
| FURNISHED ROOMS AND BOARD.   | CITY LOANS. C. A. STARR, 925 N. Y. LIFE.W-166  | Lost-M578 16*  |
| FRONT ROOMS WITH BOARD; MODERN;reduced rates, 613 So, 19th. F-876 M18*   | LOANS ON IMPROVED & UNIMPROVED CITYproperty. W. Farnam Smith & Co., 1220 FarnamW-176   | FINANCIAL.LIFE INS. POLICIES BOUGHT, W. F. HOLDEN  |
| FURNISHED ROOMS, BOARD. 2210 HARNEY.F-M925 M20*  | MONEY TO LOAN ON IMPROVED OMAHAproperty. Pussy & Thomas, 207 First Natl.Bank Bidg. W-169   | SEWING MACHINES AND SUPPLIES   |
| HANDSOMELY FURNISHED ROOMS, GOODboard; rates reasonable. The Rose, 2029 Har-ney. F-M441 29   | Bank Bldg. W-103FARM LOANS, ONE TO TEN YEARS; LOW-est rates. Garvin Bros., 1613 Farnam st.   | NEW HOME, HOUSEHOLD AND WHITEsewing machine office, 1514 Cap. Ave. Tel 1574181   |
| MODERN BRICK, FROM $3.50 UP, 518 N, 19TH.F-M322 a5*   | W-M465 A8$100 TO $2,000. F. D. WEAD, 10TH & DOUGLAS.W-502-31   | PHYSICIANS.  |
| ROOMS AND BOARD. 1724 DOUGLAS ST.F-485 16*THE MERRIAM, 25TH AND DODGE.   | MONEY TO LOAN_CHATTELS.  | DR. W. R. HOBBS, 2816 SHERMAN AVENUEResumed practice. Telephone-Office, 1476residence, 374M563 11  |
| F-M594 27*DESIRABLE ROOMS AND BOARD, 212 S. 25TH   | MONEY TO LOAN ON FURNITURE. PIANOS,  | FURNITURE PACKED.  |
| st. F-M58ALBANY, 2101 AND 2103 DOUGLAS; ROOMSfurnished or unfurnished; excellent table;  | no removal of goods; strictly confidential; youcan pay the loan off at any time or in anyamount. OMAHA MORTGAGE LOAN CO.,200 So, 16th St   | GET M. S. WALKLIN'S PRICES ON FURNI-ture packing, repairing, upholatering; mat-tresses made and renovated; 2111 Cuming. Tel.   |
| tratisients accommodated. F-M611 20*   | X-170  | 1331. 138MUSIC, ART AND LANGUAGE.  |
| E-M619 15*FOR RENT_STORES AND OFFICES.   | ture, planos, etc. Duff Green, room 8, Barker blk  | GEORGE F. GELLENBECK, BANJO, MANDO-lin and guitar teacher. Room 412 Bee Bidg.  |
| FOR RENT, THE 4-STORY ERICK BUILDINGat 916 Fornam st. This building has a firstroof  | BUSINESS CHANCES.  | PAWNBROKERS.   |
| cement basement, complete steam heating fix-tures; water on all floors; gas, etc. Apply atthe office of The Ree. I-$10                    | double iron stands for two-third cases. This   | H. MAROWITZ LOANS MONEY, 418 N. 16 ST.184  |
| WANTED_TO RENT.  | in fairly good condition. Will be sold cheapin bulk or in quantities to suit purchaser.Apply in person or by mail to The Bee Pub-  | BICYCLES.  |
| WANTED TO RENT, TEN ROOM HOUSE INgood location, with stable. Apply to E. W.Gannett, Brown Block. K-M563-16*                                | MY PROFITABLE AND WELL ESTABLISHED   | NEW $100 FOWLERS $65; MIDLAND, $35.Bicycles repaired. Omaha Bicycle Co.265-   |
| STORAGE.   | printing business, with two newspapers, Ger-mand and English, well equipped steam print-ing office, brick office building and motheradjoining frame building. I offer for sale; no | FARM FOR RENT.   |
| 0M. VAN. & STORAGE, 1415 FARNAM, TEL 1559M-154   | agents wanted. For cash price address M. O.Gentzke, West Point, Neb. Y-M514 15FOR RENT, IN COUNCIL BLUFFS, MEAT  | DAIRY FARM, 4 MILES S. W., FOR RENT;80 acres; fine buildings. D. C. Patterson, agent,1823 Farnam. —M528  |
| PACIFIC STORAGE AND WAREHOUSE CO.,808-910 Jones. General storage and forwarding.M-155  | FOR RENT, IN COUNCIL BLUFFS, MEATmarket and fixtures: doing good business. Ad-dress A 10, Bee office, Council Binfft.Y-M612 16   | SUES & CO.,PATENT SOLICITORS,  |
| WANTED-TO BUY.   | FOR EXCHANGE.  | Bee Building.  |
| <ul> <li>OR 7-R. HOUSE AND PAY $500 CASH ANDsome clear Holt Co. meadow land. W. L.Selby, 334 Board of Trade. N-104</li> </ul>           | 50 ACRES IN 10WA, $1,500.Stock hardware, $1,500.Flour mill.  | Advice and Patent Book   |
| I WILL PAY CASH FOR ALL KINDS OFJunks: guarantee satisfaction as to weight.A. B. Alpirn, 107 S. 10th. N-556-A4*                            | Clear lot for horses.WantedGrocery business and grain elevator.F. D. Wead, 16th & Douglas. Z50113  | SOAP BUBBLES STRANGELY MADE.A Remarkable Scene Witnessed in  |
| WANTED, CHEAP FOR CASH, GENTLEhorse and pheaton. Call Saturday eye and allday Sunday. 1125 South 36th st. N-518 15*                        | FOR SALE_REAL ESTATE.  | the Pennsylvania Oil Region.About half a mile above Franklin, up   |
| WANTED-A GOOD SECOND-HAND BICYCLEIn good repair. Address G 23, Bee. N-522-15*  | HOUSES, LOTS, FARMS, LANDS, LOANS-Geo, P. Bemis Real Estate Co., Paxton blk.RE-113   | the Eric railroad track, relates the OilCity Bilzzard, is to be seen one of themost curious sights in this country and   |
| 2D HAND FURNITURE AND STOVES.Brown's, 102 S. 14th. N-M615 A13*   | KOUNTZE PLACE HOMES AT 56C ON THEdollar; $2,550, $3,500 to $6,500; see photos at  | one which the reporter would not believeexisted until yesterday, when he went therewith a friend.  |
| FOR SALE_MISCELLANEOUS.  | 16th and Farnam, Morze bldg, J. J. Gibson,514 First National bank bldg. RE-175   | Approaching a small, sluggish stream, wewere surprised to see rising from the sur-face of the water a number of bubbles.   |
| HARDWOOD CRIBBING, HOG AND CHICKENPence, cheaper than "all wire." C. R. Lee. 901Douglas. Q-156   | PARTIES WANTING ACRE FROPERTY, INtracts of from five to forty acres, near thecity, desirable building iots or homes of fromfive to tan rooms, at very low figures, should          | which glistened in the sun like glass. Itwag a beautiful sight. The iridescentspheres revolving swiftly alter the manner   |
| REST SEED SWEET POTATOES, $1.25 PERbbl ; all sorts. Address Theo Williams, Omata,Q-MBS  | see Potter & George Company, S. W. cor. 16th& Farnam streets. RE-M430 31OMAHA SAVINGS BANK ACCOUNTS BOUGHT   | of soap bubbles, floated rapidly upward,some breaking at a height of ten or twentyfeet, others soaring away above the treetops and out of sight, resembling, more  |
| NEW BICYCLE, GUARANTEED, FOR ONLY125. Nebraska Cycle Co., 15th and Harney,Q-M336 M15   | for cash, taken at par for checke 1st mortgagesor taken at par in exchange for real estate atpresent low values. G. G. Wallace, Brownblock, 16th and Douglas. BE-879               | than anything else, gorgeous toy balloons.These bubbles were all sizes, from an inchin diameter to more than a foot. They  |
| CHICKEN, HOG AND LAWN FENCE; AIAwire; cheaper than wood. Wire Works, 460 S.14th. Q-346-M-1   | SNAPS-Osti20 foet; price, $10,000; near 15th and Dodge  | were apparently much stronger and agreat deal more brilliant than ordinarysoap bubbles.A gas line and an oil line had passed   |
| OPEN BUGGY, 220; TOP BUGGIES, $18 TO$60; good survey, $75; another at $45; good phas.  | Sty.45x65 feet; 42,700; near 18th and Capitol avenue.Corner, 100x145 feet, east. Hanzcom park; 4350.Near 27th and Mahderson streets. full lot, 59x                                 | HINDON THE STAR OF THE MOTION MATERIAN & Form  |
| ton, 575; nice open trap at less than cost.Drummond Carriage Co., 18th and Harney, opp.court house. Q-M384 A5                              | 125 feet; $400.00 John N. Frenzer, spp. F. O.RE-M366  | inches of each other, and in each pipe wasa small leak. The digging and refilling ofthe trenches had made a dam which helda few barrels of stagnant water. Therewas some alkall in the muddy bottom,which in combination with the out formed |
| HORSE CLIPPING MACHINES & CLIPPERS:standard make: all kinds repair; clippersgroundprompt attention. A. L. Undeland, 106 S. 14.Q-234.A4 | ABSTHACTS. THE BYRON REED COMPANY,RE-IT5-R. COTTAGE AND LOT, 25x133 CITY WATER,1850.00, half rule south of dept, a bargain.  | saponule, a kind of soap. This, while notbeing a perfect soap, was sufficiently sapo-naceous and cohesive to make heautiful  |
| PURE PLYMOLTH ROCK EGGS PER SETTING500 933 N. 16th St Q-347-A-3  | P. D. Wead, 16th & Douglas. RE-500-17*8-R. ROUSE, SPLENDID CELLAR, BATH &  | The fact that the bubbes were full of gas, caused them to ascend more switch   |
| COLUMBIA BICYCLE; FIRST-CLASS REPAIR;only 540.00, B. R. Hastings, 212 S. 14th st.Q-21434   | closet, full lot. $1,600 $300 cash, balance 7 percent.12 meres just outside city junits, mear Miller park.$2,400  | and the presence of the oil made themmore brilliant, many colored and unusu-ally beautiful. The bubbles are rising con-stantiy and can be seen by any one who  |
| INVESTIGATE, THE FAMOUS BORN STREEL,rauget 6 hales; complete; $22.86. Brown's, 1028. 14th. Q-ME14 A13*                                    | East front lot, 40th St., between Farnam andLeavenworth, 4500.F. D. Wead, 16th & Douglas. RE-501-13  | desires to take a walk out to where theyare.The strength of these bubbles may beimagined from the fact that small twice  |
| CLAIRVOYANTS   | TYPEWRITERS.   | leaves, etc., had been floating on thesurface of the water and were carried upin the large bubbles.  |
| MRS. MARY FRITZ, CLAIRVOYANT. 517 N.16th. B-M672 MHS   | GET THE BEST TTPEWRITERS: SUPPLIES,repairs. United Typewriter & Supplies Co., 16/Farnam st.  | When dizzy or drowsy take Beecham's pills  |

LANGUAGE. BANJO, MANDO om 412 Bee Bldg. 100 EY, 418 N. 16 ST. MIDLAND, $35 Bicycle Co. CNT. W., FOR RENT Patterson, agent -- M598 S & CO., SOLICITORS, omaha Neb nd Patent Book FREE GELY MADE Witnessed 1 il Region. rish stream, we from the sur-er of bubbles. iridescent like ter the manner apidly upward. f ten or twenty above the tree sembling, more s toy balloons a foot. They onger and a than ordinary ine had passed t, within a few i each pipe was and refilling of am which held water water. There uddy bottom, the oil, formed so soon? Could she, for the sake of one man, barter away years of triumph so great, so enchanting that to enjoy it for a single day scores of women would have sold them-selves into purgatory?

One night Harold stood at the plano listening while Marcia sang. Her voice was as sweet as that of a nightingale. On this night she sang as she never sang before, or at least Harold thought so. The rich music entered into his soul and fanned the flame of his love to a yet flercer heat. The singing censed, yet he still heard that sweet voice. To everything else he was dead and only RMAN AVENUE.

knew that his heart was full. Coming upon Marcla at an opportune time and place, al-most before he was aware of it and scarcely knowing what ha did, he poured out to her in eloquent words the story of his love and asked her to become his wife,

This sudden outburst of a full heart did not surprise her. She had calculated on it. Again she reflected: "He asks me to give up all my pleasures for him. I was made to whine, and he asks me to obscure my light for his sake. It is asking too much of me." Then she turned to him and said in a low, irm voice: "No, no! It cannot be." Poor Harold's face became pallid. He was stunned. For a moment he contemplated he cold beauty before him, and then, his head dizzy and his whole body trembling, he reeled and staggered from the room. The ofty castles he had erected came down with a crash. His happy dream was at an end. His hope was gone. His very life was crushed within him, and henceforth his struggle was to be that of a heartbroken man. Had this beautiful woman thrust a dagger into his heart it would have been an act of mercy compared to the cruel stab of her words, which must embitter and blacken his whole future life as the words with the state of the his whole future life as the worm that eats into the heart of a tree embitters the wood. When Marcia was alone in her room that night she stood before the miror and con-templated her great beauty. She felt then, templated her great beauty. She felt then, more than ever before, her power over men. "How greatly I have been blessed." she thought. "Beauty is my talent, and it would be wasting it to give myself up to the dull dutles of a wife. No, ho, I must shine in the world and enjoy my cooquests. Notwithstanding the face that she secretly whore the overthrow and disconstruct of a Franklin, up relates the Oil cen one of the is country and build not believe in he went there not loved deeply, and as she saw no more of Harold, he was soon forgotten. Another young manireserived the beautiful sirl's attentions. Even as Harold had done, this new lover basker in the smiles while she led him to the great height from which he, too, was thrown into the abyes of despair and misery. Still another, and another, fell victims to Marcla's unsurpassable beauty and charm. In return for their blind, mad love their hearts were bruised and broken-their lives hearts were bruised and broken-their lives filled with bitterness. and Infatuated with her'sense of power, Marcia continued her wicked work, and was able to exult over the ruin and desolation she exult over the ruln and desolation she wrought without being punished by her con-science. When she had sent Harold Reed from her, a crushed being, she had recoiled from the thought of the deed. But, like an oxecutioner, who, at the beginning of his career would become faint-hearted at sight of a drop of blood, with a little practice at his awful work is able to chop off a human head without a quayer of a merve or a thought of pity, so Marcia's cruel heart soon delighted in her work of destruction. A few short years flaw by, Marcia was designted in her work of destruction. A few short years flew by, Marcia was now three-and-twenty. What a wonderful change these fleeting years have wrought in her. The crucity of ther heart and her wicked ambition had gained the mastery over her body no less than over her mind. Those beautiful features were distorted even as her muides increases and music hed

WN AND WHITE. e of Major; liberal telkson. Lost-M578 16* L. Lost-M578 16* L Marcia felt that it was a propitious sign for her. Was heaven so kind that she, who had caused so much misery in the world, was now to enter upon a life of sunshine and bliss? The arrangements for the wedding were on a scale of magnificence befitting the a scale of magnifice bentful in the marriage of one who had been an idol in the social world. For five and one-half years she had reigned as queen of beauty and now that she was to be married the event must be attended with due pomp and circumbe attended with due pomp and circum-stance. The large house was filled with guests. Men and women of wealth, influence and distinction were there. The rooms were lavishly and richly decorated. Money was not spared. Everything that could add to the brilliancy of the affair was secured and Mayola felt that that day was to be to be a Chicago Marcia felt that that day was to be to her a

Her wedding trousseau was in keeping with her station and wealth. As she sur-veyed herself, arrayed in her bridal costume, she indeed presented an appearance of dazzling brilliance, and her breast heaved with joy and pride. Her face was wreathed in smiles this beautiful morning, her checks glowed, her eyes sparkled, her step was light. She felt that, for all her conquests, the hour of her great triumph was come. The hour set for the ceremony was ap-proaching, the guests were assembled, but the bridegroom had not arrived. "What if he should not come?" thought Marcia. As the idea flashed through her mind she turned deadly hale. Her form that belowed with sale of the island by its owner, their lord and ruler, the Neopalitans begin an obstrucdeadly pale. Her face, that had glowed with happiness all morning, was instantly clouded tive campaign immediately upon the arrival of Wheatley and his friends. The new owner has no idea of relinquishing without with a dark expression, full of despair, hatred and desire for revenge. Her beauti-ful countenance was changed in a twinkling owner has no idea of reinquishing without a struggle a purchase upon which £375,600 have been paid and gives notice of his in-tentions. So there are the materials for a rattling good tale. Add a scheming, villain-ous relative of the murdered lord of the island and the beautiful and charming daughter of the same lord and the story be-comes a remance of first water which it most would have been frightened. "My God!" she exclaimed. "If he should not come! If he, whom I love so dearly, and in whom I have trusted so implicitly, should deceive me, dishonor me and humiliate me before all these people! They who would se-cretly rejoice at my discomfiture and gloat over it! To bring ridicule on me! I, who have sarred so bight to be crubed at any have soared so high, to be crushed at one

These terrible thoughts overcame her, and, burying her face in her hands, she sank down on a couch. But she soon began to collect her scattered senses and to reason. It was absurd, she reflected, to have given herself up to such strange and unwarranted thoughts. Her lover had probably met with some accident that had detained him, and it yet lacked a full half-hour of the appointed yet lacked a full half-hour of the appointed time. Perhaps he was at that moment hur-rying toward the house. Then she consid-ered that she would make a very sorry ap-pearance as a bride in such a state of dis-traction. So she composed herself and soon resumed her cheerful manner. About this time there arrived at the house a young sentieman who had been considered

About this time there arrived at the house a young gentleman who had been considered a particular friend of Lawrence Wylle. Soon after his arrival a very strange rumor was set afloat in the house and spread quickly to every one present. It was to the effect that the man who was that day to have taken Marcia Barrett for his wife had fied from the city. This stranger who had enjoyed the society of the best people had, at the last moment, been discovered in his real character—that of a base villain and hypocrite. Besides being an impostor he hypocrite. Besides being an impostor he was a rascal of the first water. He had concocted a scheme which was rendered easy by the position he was allowed in the social world, by which he was to have defrauded a business firm out of some thousands of dol-lars. For some reason his plans miscarried at the very last, and his schemes were re-at the very last, and his schemes were re-vealed to the police. However, he had heard that the officers were on his trail, and made good his escape. The whole house was thrown into con-fusion by the startling intelligence. Marcia's family and friends were shocked and humili-ated. Even those who had secretly envied and even hated the handsome woman, be-cause of her beauty, were humbled by the thought that they had all been more or less viotimized by the perfidious Wyile. He had ubbles may be at small twigs, loating on the were carried up Beesham's pills

Laird & Lee, Chicago: "Practical Palm-istry," by Comte C. de Saint Germain. Cloth, $1; paper, 25 cents,

FROM MEGEATH STATIONERY CO., OMAHA.

Harper & Brothers, New York: "Beauty and Hyglene." Cloth; 75 cents. "Literary Land Marks of Florence." by Lawrence Hut-ton, Cloth; 31. "The Last Recruit of Clare's." ton, Cloth; $1. "The Last Recruit of Clare's." by S. R. Keightley. Cloth; $1.50. "In the Old Herrick House." by Ellen Douglas De-land. Cloth; $1.50. "Bound in Shallows." by Eva Wilder Brodhead. Cloth; $1.25. "Six Cups of Chocolate." translated by Edlith V. B. Matthews. Paper; 25 cents. "A Previous Engagement." by W. D. Howells. Paper; 50 cents. comes a romance of first water, which it most assuredly is, but which it might not be with anything like the same success were it not the facile pen of Mr. Hawkins which takes the characters through their parts. The in-genuity and harmony of the plot strike one 50 cents.

D. Appleton & Co., New York: "The Story of Extinct Civilizations," by Robert E. An-derson. Cloth; diminutive; 213 pages. "The more forcibly during the period of reflection than at the time of reading, which is a Careeer of Candida," by George Paston. strong test for a story's structure. "Phroso" is as great a romance as "The Prisoner of Zenda," with the accent on the adventure Paper; 50 cente

FROM CLEMENT CHASE, OMAHA.

Rand, McNally & Co., Chicago: "Fontenay, he Swordsman," by Fortune du Boisgobey. loth; 325 pages. Stone & Kimball, New York: "A Woman's element and with a more satisfactory, though not so dramatic, a finale. However, the next to the last chapter sets the heart beating fast, but Phroso and her English-but that's telling a story which is too good to be told. Courier," by William Joseph Yeoman. Cloth; $1.50. "Grip," by John Strange Winter. Cloth; $1.25. "John Gabriel Borkman." by telling a story which is too good to be told. The book is elaborately illustrated by Wechsler and bound in handsomely dec-orated cloth. Frederick A. Stokes company. New York. Megcath's. "In the Old Herrick House and Other" *In the Old Herrick House and Other

"Out of the frying-pan into the fire." Take care that you don't go that way, when you try to make your washing easier. Better be sure of what you're doing.

Get Pearline, the original washingcompound, the best-known, the fully-proved. There are plenty of imitations of it. But even if they're not dangerous -and some are-they're not economical.

開目 Pearline used properly, goes farther, does more work, and saves more wear, than anything else that's safe to use.

