BOARD OF PUBLIC WORKS MEETS.

Railroads Must Pay Their Share in Repairing Viaducts.

The Board of Public Works met yesterday afternoon on several important matters. The chairman first directed to be read a copy of the ordinance recently passed by the city council, approving the plans for the repair of the Eleventh street viaduct and ordering the railroads to make the repairs, on all the railroads that cross the city streets under the viaduct. If the railroads now neglect to make the repairs, after a reasonable time, the board will have the work done and assess the cost against the railroads.

The Capitol avenue sewer was discussed and the chairman was directed to advertise for bids for the construction of the sewer as soon as the city engineer has completed the plans and profiles.

P. H. Mahoney petitioned the board to order South Fourteenth street under the viaduct closed. He stated that he had about to put a large force of men and teams at work constructing the piers for the new viaduct, and that it would be necessary to temporarily shut off the traffic on that street. The necessary order was promulgated.

The matter of the new permanent sidewalk on Park avenue was left over to give the chairman time to wish to decide on the material. The order to the contractor to go ahead with the work will be given in a few days. It will probably be given for most of the walls.

The plans for the water connections on South Sixteenth street were approved and the chairman was instructed to serve a copy on the water company.

ICE BREAKS AND MOVES AWAY.

River Continues High, but No Serious Results Are Anticipated. Those who were able to watch the Big Muddy for about five miles above Florence yesterday was a sight looking stream. Indeed it seemed for a while as though some of the points lying adjacent on the river's bank were likely to suffer considerable damage from the battering current. The river was fully four feet higher at Florence yesterday morning than it was Friday morning. About 9 o'clock the ice, which had been gathering above the city, broke up and was serious for a time, but, as the river was clear, the ice passed down the channel without doing any damage.

There was no damage reported anywhere between Florence and Omaha yesterday. As the river was free from obstructions from bank to bank, the ice passed without harm to either side.

Nearly all the railroads of this state and Iowa report high water along their lines. The Omaha line had a bad washout north of Sioux City and traffic was interrupted. The Elkhorn suffered some damage out in Madison county, where the tracks lie close to the Elkhorn river. The Union Pacific yesterday reported that no damage had been done along its line. The Burlington officials say that their road has not been damaged by any high water. There was a rumor yesterday that the bridge at Schuyler had gone out, but nothing of the matter was known at headquarters. The Iowa line and the roads running toward the north, as shown in the telegraphic columns of the Bee yesterday, suffered in most of any of the roads.

Teachers' Aid Association.

Articles of incorporation for the teachers' annuity and aid association were filed with the county clerk yesterday. The incorporation was in compliance with a request signed by 150 teachers that the principals' club at once appoint a committee for that purpose. The incorporators are Mrs. Lathin, Ida E. Mack, Emma Williams, Mary A. Phipps, Sarah E. McCheane, Nora B. Leman, Edith E. Field, Emma Wheatley, Elizabeth Shirley, Jennie M. Moran, Mary E. Nelson, Edna Arnold, Mary Luma, Martha M. Powell, Julia W. Nichols, and Frances Butterfield.

The Omaha teachers are now in line with those in Iowa, where the National Education Association and many other clubs, which have had similar associations for years.

Watching for a Stolen Boy.

A red-headed boy was kidnapped Friday from Albia. He is said to be the chief of police received yesterday from that town. The missing lad's name is Roy Crowell and he is 14 years of age. He was taken by two men and a boy. One of the men has two fingers missing from one hand. The police of this city have been asked to detain the parties if they come here. The strangers told people about Albia that they resided in Omaha.

Depositors Get Their Money.

The American Savings bank was yesterday paying out $12,500 to the old depositors in the defunct institution. This is a portion of the amount that was received from eastern stockholders. The remainder will be expended in the litigation that the bank has in its hands.

NEW MILLINERY STORE.

Opening Takes Place Tomorrow at 10 o'clock. The State Millinery and Cloak company will open for business Monday morning. A new era in millinery lines will be inaugurated by this opening when the aesthetic, as well as the most practical, in hats will be shown. Elegant French patterns have as well as hats of their own manufacture will be on exhibition.

The State Millinery and Cloak company have spared no expense to make their millinery opening a success. The beautiful patterns and designs will, no doubt, surprise the ladies of this city, who have never seen anything approaching this display of the west.

Mr. Morris Mayer, a gentleman of known worth, is the general manager, and his many years' residence in New York has brought to the attention of millinery such as can be obtained in no other way.

The latest Parisian styles in hats will be the principal feature of the fitting, although the great line of millinery will be paid to the selling of perfect fitting gloves and corsets of a superior make at a moderate price.

Art in Home Decorations.

That prettiness is not always an expensive luxury has been demonstrated in a room by the artistic effects obtained by the G. R. Shafer Decorating Co., who make fine interior house furnishing the feature of their business.

Their store room at 103 S. 15th street is thus early besieged by those constantly on the lookout for the newest and most beautiful home decorations. In the line of Indian, Persian, Turkish, Oriental and other rare goods, including draperies, curtains, carpets, and upholstery, special designs in artistic architecture, etc. Mr. Shafer, who has been with Shafer & Co. for the past twelve years, numbers among his patrons some of the best families in the city, every one of whom will be pleased to learn of his new establishment.

This company also make fine frescoing and wall papering specialties.

CLEANING UP THE CITY STREETS.

Knapser Says There's No Politics in Employment of Men. Street Commissioner Knapser has about 250 men at work cleaning up the streets. At the present rate of progress the entire city will be cleaned up in two or three days. The business district is now practically cleared of the winter's accumulation of refuse and the men are scattered over the residential and suburban districts.

There has been some criticism during the past day or two by people who declare that the street cleaning gang is being manipulated in the interest of Mayor Brodhead's candidacy for re-election. Mr. Knapser emphatically denies that the street gang is being used for campaign purposes. He employed every man who came to the road house and who had the sympathy of his political friends. He says that he is a candidate for tax commissioner, and is in the campaign purely in his own interest. He has an unpledged delegation for mayor in the Second ward.

BICYCLE PATH OUT TO FLORENCE.

Project Is Favored by the County Commissioners. The Board of County Commissioners at its regular meeting yesterday concurred in the action of the city council with reference to the construction of a bicycle track along Thirtieth street from the end of the pavement near Fort Omaha to the village of Florence. The committee on roads, to which the report was made, has already been referred, reported favorably on the resolution and recommended that the board comply with the terms of the resolution and that the clerk from the city engineer at Florence after the city shall have constructed its portion, provided that the city shall keep the track in repair. The report was unanimously adopted.

A resolution by Mr. Hocter instructed E. D. Van Court & Co. to repair the macadam pavement on the West Douglas and Center streets, in accordance with their contract.

After passing on a number of routine matters the board adjourned until March 31.

OLD BOARD QUITS DOING BUSINESS.

Waiting for New Fire and Police Commissioners to Take Hold. Just at the present time Clerk Brownlee of the Board of Fire and Police Commissioners is having a nice quiet time all by himself. The members of the old board have apparently quit doing business, and so far nothing has been heard from the newly appointed members. The new members expect to meet and organize early this week. Commissioner Herdman prepared his bond and sent it to Lincoln yesterday, and Commissioner Bulhart will present it Monday. The other members will qualify not later than Monday and will then be ready to take charge of the office. There will be no opposition on the part of the board. One or two of the old commissioners were in favor of making a fight against the new board, but after a good deal of discussion they decided that such action would not be advisable. Consequently the change will be effected without incident.

WORK FOR INDIAN SUPPLY DEPOT.

Commercial Club Members Taking Hold of the Matter. The committee recently appointed by the executive committee of the Commercial club to look after the scheme for the location of the Indian supply depot in Omaha, and consisting of Edgar Allan, H. P. Gady and J. E. Pitt, has sent out a circular letter to Omaha business and manufacturers asking them to use their influence with Senators Thurston and Congressman Mercer to induce them to follow this matter up with all the force at their disposal. The committee calls attention to the fact that Omaha is the logical location for the depot as it is nearer the reservations and that it would have located here, but for the previous administration had no political considerations interfered.

Theater Sale Declared Off.

The sale of the Creighton theater buildings, which was advertised to take place at the east door of the court house yesterday morning, did not occur, the auctioneer being prevented from allowing a stay on the application of Messrs. Reed and Kirkendall having put a stop to proceedings in that direction for the present. Mr. Hall, attorney for the Post Mutual Life Insurance company, the plaintiff in the foreclosure proceedings, said yesterday that he next sitting for an order vacating the stay.

HELD FOR EMBEZZLEMENT

C. Christenson of Holdrege Arrested at the Oxford Hotel in This City Yesterday. DEERING COMPANY MAKES A COMPLAINT

Had Been Employed as Collector for Several Years and Failed to Report Part of the Money in His Hands.

Upon information in a telegram received from Sheriff Knudson of Holdrege C. Christenson was arrested yesterday afternoon at the Oxford hotel on the charge of embezzlement. The prosecutors in the case are the members of the Deering Harvester company of Chicago, who allege that Christenson collected $1,000 or more while in their employ for five years and turned it into his own pocket.

The accused man was employed by the harvester company for five years previous to some time last fall. He was collector in Lincoln and had been employed in full by the Deering company for some time. He failed to account for, but the specific charges have been picked out in the county jail which Holdrege is located. The prosecution is being directed from the company's headquarters in Chicago. Ed McGee, the local agent, was instrumental in bringing about the arrest, but he is unable to state the amount it is charged the prisoner embezzled.

Christenson says that there is nothing in the case against him. After his arrest he said that he had made a settlement in full with the company, but the latter claimed a balance on expense bills and for alleged collections which he never made. He said that he had been held responsible for the bills which he never collected. He would not talk much before consulting an attorney.

Since the severance of his connection with the company, which occurred some months ago, Christenson has not been employed to any considerable extent. The local agents of the company say that they have been looking for him, but have never succeeded in getting him. He has been in the city a number of times, stopping at different hotels. On his last visit he was employed on a construction train on the company's lines in Kansas. This was the fourth trial of the case. At the first trial the case was taken from the jury and a verdict returned for the railway company. At the second trial McCarty recovered a judgment for $5,000 and a $100,000 trial he recovered a judgment for $10,000.

SAYOUR AND MONDRIK ASK DAMAGES.

Asaad Sayour and Kattar Mondrik, the two men arrested March 12 on complaint of Joseph Dahrooge, charging them with being fugitives from justice, have each commenced a suit in the district court against Dahrooge for $2,500 damages. They allege that they are merchants in business in Norfolk, this state, and have been restrained from attending to their business by the arrest and that they have been subjected to indignities which nothing but a large sized piece of Dahrooge's money will repair.

FILE ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION.

Nebbraska Sugar Company Getting Ready to Do Business. The first tangible steps in the direction of securing a beet sugar factory for Omaha were taken yesterday, when the Nebraska Sugar company filed articles of incorporation with the county clerk. These articles provide that the company shall have authority to manufacture and sell sugar, glucose, alcohol and vinous products, and to do all things necessary for the establishment and maintenance of a factory for that purpose. The amount of capital stock is fixed at $350,000, divided into shares of $100 each, and it is provided that the company may commence business when $50,000 in stock is subscribed. The incorporators are G. R. Williams, W. N. Nason, Encel Martin, J. E. Utz and W. D. McHugh.

BILL BOARD FOR THE CITY HALL.

Proceedings of the City Council to be posted. The rotunda of the city hall was decorated yesterday with a reminder of one of the provisions of the new city charter. This is a huge bill board on which are to be posted such public documents as are of public interest. The board is far from enhancing the attractiveness of the rotunda, and excites more ridicule than curiosity. Clerk Higby says that with the amount of stenographic work already required in his office it will be impossible with his present force to get out the posters for the bill board. It will be necessary to employ a stenographer for that specific purpose for a couple of days after every council meeting.

CAN'T FIND A PLACE FOR CHAFFEE.

Prisoner Who is Giving the Authorities Much Trouble. The county attorney is in a quandary as to what to do with Harry G. Chaffee. He is in the county jail awaiting trial on the charge of forgery. He waived examination in the police court and was bound over to the district court. He is charged with having forged and uttered checks for small amounts, the checks being payable to himself and endorsed by him.

Since he has been in the county jail the county attorney has had Chaffee examined by the insanity commission and that body pronounced him insane. The county attorney then communicated with the authorities of the Lincoln asylum and received a reply from the superintendent to the effect that the institution was filled with inmates. The superintendent added that "Chaffee is a chronic insane man and in case any vacancies occur preference will be given to acute cases." Since receiving this letter the county attorney has consulted with the court and with the county commissioners as to what disposition shall be made of the case. He says Chaffee is a dangerous man to be at large, as he is sane enough to be constantly committing petty crimes, but too insane to be punished.

FINDS MARRIAGE A FAILURE.

Mrs. Slostsky Seeks a Divorce from Abraham. Golda E. Slostsky has applied to the courts for a divorce from Abraham J. Slostsky. She alleges that her husband has pursued a constant system of cruelty toward her and abused her shamefully. The story they run at South Omaha was neglected, and she al-

SUES TO RECOVER ON GAS STOCK.

Suit Grows Out of Capital National Bank Failure. Kent K. Hayden, receiver of the Capital National bank at Lincoln, has brought suit in the United States court against Homan J. Walsh and the Lincoln Gas company to recover an assessment on bank stock. The defendants owned 160 shares of the bank stock, on which the assessment of $100 a share had been made by the receiver. Of the amount represented by the assessment $12,000 had been paid, leaving a balance of $8,800 yet due. The defendants gave no security for the payment of the assessment and the receiver now asks that they be ordered to pay the amount yet due on the assessment.

Judgment for the Loss of Some Ties.

Patrick McCarty recovered a judgment against the Rock Island Railway company in Judge Powell's court yesterday for $4,000. He sued the company for the loss of the ties of his left foot while employed on a construction train on the company's lines in Kansas. This was the fourth trial of the case. At the first trial the case was taken from the jury and a verdict returned for the railway company. At the second trial McCarty recovered a judgment for $5,000 and a $100,000 trial he recovered a judgment for $10,000.

INTERESTING TALK

No doubt the public has come in contact with a certain class of physicians when they unfortunately had sickness in their family and they know what they supposed was a doctor. But since our exposure of the Doc many are convinced they employed a Doc instead of a doctor. Of course the Doc wrote two or three prescriptions, where one would have done it, and then insisted on their being filled at a certain drug store. In some cases the Doc took them himself, but the fellow who sold them was not a doctor.

But things seem to have changed somewhat since we began advertising. The public are now convinced that what we have stated is true. Now we are looking for this new class of pure and fresh drugs used by Doc instead of a doctor. Of course the Doc wrote two or three prescriptions, where one would have done it, and then insisted on their being filled at a certain drug store. In some cases the Doc took them himself, but the fellow who sold them was not a doctor.

With Specific Tincture Doc out of town and out of town. Friend out of town. With Specific Tincture Doc out of town and out of town. Friend out of town. With Specific Tincture Doc out of town and out of town. Friend out of town.

Empty can be thankful that we were muzzled during the hospital fund affair. Now if we were Doc we'd kick till we got ears, sets, fragments and ivory bills as well as the rest of the world. Now if we were Doc we'd kick till we got ears, sets, fragments and ivory bills as well as the rest of the world. Now if we were Doc we'd kick till we got ears, sets, fragments and ivory bills as well as the rest of the world.

Our proposition to use our space to publish articles of interest to the public is still open to the six percentage paying Ptes—as well as the other Ptes who are not paying. The stock of iodoforn in the middle of the block must be getting low, as our friend had been getting away lately on little 5-year-old Doc.
