

YOUNG FIREBUG IS CAUGHT

Ed McConnell in Custody at Beatrice Charged with Arson.

WAS DOING IT TO SEE FIREMEN RUN

Confesses to Having Set Several Fires Recently and Says He Had Others Ready to Touch Off in Turn.

BEATRICE, Neb., March 21.—(Special Telegram.)—The fire department was called out this afternoon to extinguish the flames in an empty building on the south side of Court, between Second and Third streets. Soon after the fire the police captured a young tough, named Ed McConnell, aged 18 years, who, upon being put into the swabbers, finally admitted that he started the fire, and was also guilty of setting other fires in the city which had been set during the past few months. He gave no motive other than that he wanted to see the fire boys make a run. He also admits that he had two more fires ready to set out tonight, one at the corner of Eighth and Ella streets, and another at Fourth and Ella. He has been in the habit of securing wages about the round house and saturating it with kerosene. McConnell is a son of Joseph McConnell, a druggist in this city, and has done a term in the state reform school, at which place one of his brothers is now located.

NOMINATING THE LOCAL TICKETS.

Citizens of Nebraska Getting Ready for the Municipal Elections. CHADRON, Neb., March 21.—(Special Telegram.)—The following city ticket was put in the field last night by the citizens' caucus: Mayor, A. W. Critch; treasurer, C. C. Johnson; clerk, L. J. Pease; engineer, W. B. Burr; members of the school board, Ben Loewenthal, H. Lambert, counselor, F. M. Merritt, I. N. Harbaugh, Charles Torgerson, E. E. Garner, William Agnew, Jr. It is not supposed there will be any other nominations made, as usually the citizens caucus controls the city nominations without opposition.

JAIL WATCHMAN SUES FOR PAY.

A caucus was held at the court house Friday night, at which the following ticket was nominated and elected: Mayor, C. C. Johnson; treasurer, W. M. Rank; engineer, S. H. Hutchison; board of education, N. Kronquist, D. B. Smith and A. P. Erickson; school board, J. W. Anderson, J. W. Anderson, councilman for West ward, William Koehler. This caucus was held by the high license element, although it was called the "Republican caucus" and was made up of democrats. They decided to head the ticket with "for license; against license" and let the voter make his own choice. Since the caucus was held, D. H. Smith and J. W. Anderson, the nominees for board of education, have resigned, as also have William Koehler and J. W. Anderson. The city has always been high license, but the revival this winter has converted many of the former high license voters to the low license side. The caucus will be held and a new ticket placed in the field.

CLARKS, Neb., March 21.—(Special.)—The citizens' party place their caucus last evening and placed in nomination for trustees Messrs. Castle, Smith, Johnson, and Peterson. It is expected that these men will be acceptable to the temperance as well as the license people. They are the only nominees in the field so far, but it is not too late to have other names put in. The question of license or no license is being hotly discussed on the streets.

CRITCH, Neb., March 21.—(Special.)—The following were nominated: Mayor, H. M. Wells; treasurer, W. L. Lovell; clerk, William Warnick; police judge, H. C. Smith; school board, D. H. Smith and J. W. Anderson; councilmen: First ward, A. Smith; second ward, J. C. Cole; third ward, John Bryson. The caucus will be held and a new ticket placed in the field.

IN DISTRICT COURT AT HASTINGS.

Sale of the Half Farm to Charles Adams is Confirmed. HASTINGS, Neb., March 21.—(Special.)—In the district court last week a few important cases were decided. The case of Charles Adams against John Y. Hair ended in favor of the plaintiff. John Y. Hair came to Hastings from Chicago about four years ago and purchased a drug store. Mr. Adams was employed as chief clerk. After a couple of years Mr. Hair sold out to H. Spicer and at the time of the sale Mr. Hair was owing his chief clerk, Charles Adams, a large sum of money for services and money loaned. Mr. Hair left for Chicago without paying Adams any part of his dues. In the deal between Hair and Spicer an eighty-acre farm was traded to Mr. Hair part payment for the debt. It was learned from Mr. Hair's sudden departure he commenced suit in the district court and attached the farm. Soon after the attachment was levied a deed was put on record by which Hair conveyed the farm to his brother. On November 23, 1905, Adams obtained a judgment on his claim for $319.25 and an order for the sale of the attached farm. The sale took place last January and Adams bid the farm in. The court has confirmed the sale and Adams is now in possession of the farm.

Ring as a Forting Present.

CALHOUN, Neb., March 21.—(Special.)—The Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor and Sunday school of the Congregational church gave a reception in the new city hall in honor of Miss Lillian Price, who has been the president of the Sunday school for the last two years. She was presented with a beautiful ring as a token of esteem from her fellow workers. There was a large number present. Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served. Miss Price leaves in a few days with her parents for their new home in the southern part of the state.

Caught in a Stink Cutter.

A distressing accident occurred to August P. Freeman, a farmer, living west of town, yesterday morning. He was cutting stalks and was stepping too far, and his foot caught in the knives, tearing the sole of his foot and cutting into the bone of his leg. Dr. Freese was seen at his side and bandaged his cuts. The doctor thinks Freeman will not be able to do any work this season.

Well Known in Nebraska.

PREMONT, March 21.—(Special.)—W. H. Sawtelle, who met with a horrible death in being run over by a trolley car in Toledo, Ohio, was a well known citizen of this county. He came to Premont in 1860 and was engaged in the freighting business between the Missouri river and the coast. He was a successful business man and was later employed by Smith

Fire Insurance company of Omaha a verdict was given to the plaintiff for the sum of $619.25.

Saturday morning the case of Gordon H. E. Freeman vs. the Fire Insurance company of Omaha was tried by the jury bringing in a verdict in favor of the defendant. The jury was then discharged for the term.

LITERARY ENTERTAINMENT.

Program closes with a Debate on the Cameron Resolution. HASTINGS, March 21.—(Special.)—A fine program was rendered at the Hastings Presbyterian college on the occasion of the opening of the Whitman Literary society. The program was carried out as follows: Devotional exercises, Charles Steiner; music by the Orpheus Banjo club; paper on prominent questions of the day, Joseph Hally; vocal duet, Mr. Will Lawson and Mrs. Ducky; paper, Henry Miller and Clarence Cook; violin duet, James Brown and Julius Blackburn; recitation, Miss Margaret Jones; violin solo, Miss Lillian Price; recitation, Norman Webster; recitation, William Chapman; vocal solo, Miss Lillian Price; debate: "Resolved, That congress did right in not allowing the Cameron resolution to be taken" by Edward R. Bushnell and Penton Kelsey were for the affirmative and the negative. The judges decided in favor of the affirmative. Mr. Stern of Chicago is in Hastings looking to business interests. The Hornetmen held a dance. Mr. and Mrs. Oble of Denver are visiting in Hastings. Rev. Harry Omar Scott, who was the pastor of the First Presbyterian church in this city during the past six years, has accepted the pastorate of the First Presbyterian church at Carthage, Mo.

Horses Stopped at the Bridge.

FAIRMONT, Neb., March 21.—(Special.)—While Edison Hall was driving his team near the Blue river, six miles northwest of here, the horses became frightened and ran away. Mr. Hall was thrown from the wagon, sustaining some bruises. The horses ran toward the bridge and when found one horse was on the bridge and the other hung over the railing about fifteen feet above the water. It was cut loose and the horse was driven only with a few slight bruises.

Helps an Irrigating Ditch.

BURWELL, Neb., March 21.—(Special.)—District court convened here Thursday with Judge Kendall presiding. Among other things transacted the proceedings of the Forks Irrigation district, in relation to the issuance of district bonds in connection with the permit of the putting of the bonds on the market, and in all probability, the ditch will be built the coming summer.

Drives Off with a Team.

NEBRASKA CITY, March 21.—(Special.)—A few days ago a stranger registered at the Nebraska City Hotel, and represented himself as being a commercial traveler for a Chicago house. He hired a team of Levi Bros., ostensibly to drive to Talmage, but has not been seen since. Levi Bros. have sent descriptions of the man to neighboring towns and hope to recover it.

Guards Appear as Actors.

FAIRBURY, Neb., March 21.—(Special.)—Company D, Second regiment, Nebraska National guards, has been playing "The Union Spy" three nights during the past week to the benefit of the Elkhorn National guards. The principal characters of the drama, the entertainments were successful and satisfactory in every respect.

Woman's Relief Corps Anniversary.

FAIRMONT, Neb., March 21.—(Special.)—The Woman's Relief Corps celebrated its anniversary in the city of Fairmont, Neb., on Saturday evening of the 21st inst. An interesting program was rendered in the early part of the evening, after which a bountiful supper was served. About 150 were present.

Garrison-Brown.

ORD, Neb., March 21.—(Special.)—Mr. R. D. Garrison and Miss Carrie B. Brown were married Friday evening at the home of the bride's parents in Ord, Neb. The Rev. H. W. Hildreth, the Methodist Episcopal church.

Hunters Break Up Their Camp.

PAPILLION, Neb., March 21.—(Special.)—Several of Papillion's sports have returned from a two-weeks' hunting trip. Their camp was located at the mouth of the Elkhorn, near Lyons.

Lyons Man Disappears.

LYONS, Neb., March 21.—(Special.)—Frank Wivims has been missing for the last two days. His wife is much worried over his absence. A public reading room has been opened at Lyons. A new G. A. R. post has been organized at Harvard. Hildreth will soon have a free public reading room. W. T. Howard has started a new paper called the Star has been started at Burr, Otoe county. The school house in district 13, near Beaver City, was burned recently. Nelson people are trying to raise some money to improve the school. The town of Arapahoe is out of debt and has a small balance in the treasury. Three spans of the Platte river bridge at Schuyler were taken out by the high water. One hundred and fifty cords of lumber are now being felled in the vicinity of Howell. George Patch, formerly a resident of Wakefield, was murdered recently in Texas. The Oakland Independent, which was recently burned out, has resumed publication. Mrs. J. E. Hackett of Exeter slipped and fell while entering her seat in church and dislocated her ankle. Close to 3,000 head of cattle are being fed near Nelson for the winter company represented by A. C. McCormick. Representative Sheldon of Dawes county has sold his paper, the Chadron Signal-Recorder, to Claude T. Taggart. A Tekamah man is being held on a cash recently in Lake Quinnebog while fishing through a hole in the ice which was big to come through the hole. Geneva merchants are preparing for the past couple of years from petty burglaries. Every once in a while some store is entered and articles of small value taken. James Plummer of Wood River died last week of starvation. He had no active friends in every way. A funny feature of the First ward is the fact that I. S. Hasall is a candidate for the republican nomination. Hanson of York, who has been killed several times, but now asserts that he is once more a republican. F. K. Darling has a strong following in this ward and is a candidate for the republican nomination. Councilmen Bingham and Flynn seem to be conceded the nomination by their respective parties in the second ward, and no other candidates are being seriously considered. In the Third ward Sol Prince is again a candidate against Burmaster and Hanson. Frank K. Shepard of the Fourth is said to have acquired a taste for office and will make the race against Bechel for the republican nomination. It will probably be Brough and Kennard against Moore and Flynn. There are no active candidates in this ward for the fusion nomination, although Dr. J. H. Peabody, D. Clemmeyer and other prominent men are in the Fifth. Councilmen Christie and Lunt and W. S. Askwith are out for the republican nomination and Henry Olson, Tom Dalley and others for the other end. Councilman Karr and Axford are fighting it out in the Sixth, with Jeff Bedford as the probable candidate of the opposition. D. T. Mount has no apparent opponent for re-nomination in the Seventh and neither has Tom Crocker in the Eighth. Democratic candidates are scarce in the Seventh, and James Conroy is the only one who is making a fight in the Eighth. Mercer and Ben-ava are rivals for re-nomination in the Ninth, and Fred Simpson and Charles H. Parker are the leading democratic candidates.

ACCEPT THE NEW CHARTER

No Disposition on the Part of Republicans to Resist Its Constitutionality.

PREPARING FOR THE CITY ELECTION

Just Four Weeks Remain in Which to Make a Campaign, and All Political Elements Are Grooming Their Candidates.

Just four weeks remain in which to win or lose the administration of municipal affairs for the next three years, and according to present indications, a sensational campaign will occur about in the middle of this period. The effort of Mayor Broatch and his supporters to force the Crawford system on the city central committee seems to have been effectually squelched and it is now understood that the committee will be called together some time this week and the call for the primaries and convention issued. The expressions of members of the committee indicate that the sentiment is favorable to having the primaries immediately after those of the democrats and this would mean that about two weeks would remain between the convention and the election. Most of the candidates are heartily in favor of making the campaign as early as possible, and only a few months ago that most of them went through a race for office and now that they are compelled to begin all over again they are anxious to get it over as soon as possible. It is pretty well established that the men who are displaced by the new charter will accept the situation as they find it. As a result of the new charter, the city central committee in the courts has been confined to appointive officers who were permanently sidetracked and to one or two councilmen who were cut loose from the city government. It is ten of the republicans who are directly interested in the matter are emphatically in favor of allowing the election to proceed as early as possible, and the republican victory is practically assured at this time if the right sort of a ticket is nominated, while if the election was postponed to apply for the writ of mandamus, the republican leaders that no more favorable time could be selected in which to go before the people, and talk of making a legal case to get the election postponed, and a deal of pressure has been brought to bear on Mayor Broatch to induce him to refuse to call the election and thus compel the courts to apply for the writ of mandamus. This would open the way for a judicial consideration of the constitutionality of the charter, but the mayor's friends are telling him that the chief reason why some gold demerits refuse to go into a coalition to elect Broatch is that it would fence the city to the silver republicans, and that they have their own reasons for not wanting done. Prominent politicians from all over the state are arriving here to take part in the fight for the city government, and Broatch and Bradley, who refuses to be depressed by even the influence of the national administration.

WOOLEN MILLS RUN ON FULL TIME.

Marked Revival in Manufacturing in Massachusetts. PITTSFIELD, Mass., March 21.—There is a great revival in the woolen business in this city and vicinity. All the mills are running on full time and have more orders than they have had any spring before in a long time. The Pontonoco Woolen company has been ordered to run on full time, and the manufacture of dress goods. The mill will start in a few days, and will employ about 100 hands.

Deaths of a Day.

FREMONT, March 21.—(Special.)—Zadoc P. Stevens, who died from the result of an operation at the Presbyterian hospital at Omaha Saturday, had been a resident of Fremont for the past four years, being engaged during a part of the time in the carriage business. He leaves a wife and five small children. His remains will be taken to Birmingham, Ill., his former home, for burial.

CARROLL, Neb., March 21.—(Special.)—C. M. Andrews, druggist, died at an early hour yesterday of a short illness. He leaves a wife and two small children. The body will be taken to Bethelville, Ia., for burial.

NEBRASKA CITY, March 21.—(Special.)—Dr. Spencer L. Grant died yesterday, aged 80 years. He has practiced medicine in this county for the last thirty years. He was born in Vermont, and his father was a member of the Third Ohio regiment in the civil war, and in later years became fast friends. Several times within the past few years he has visited Nebraska. He has visited President McKinley at his Canton home. When the fight for delegates was being waged in California, Col. Grant was in the city, and he was one of the delegates for Major McKinley and later in the campaign, after the St. Louis convention, he worked for McKinley and was elected to the position of delegate to the national convention. He was a member of the Grand Army of the Republic and was a member of the Grand Army of the Republic. He was a member of the Grand Army of the Republic. He was a member of the Grand Army of the Republic.

NEBRASKA CITY, March 21.—(Special.)—Dr. Spencer L. Grant died yesterday, aged 80 years. He has practiced medicine in this county for the last thirty years. He was born in Vermont, and his father was a member of the Third Ohio regiment in the civil war, and in later years became fast friends. Several times within the past few years he has visited Nebraska. He has visited President McKinley at his Canton home. When the fight for delegates was being waged in California, Col. Grant was in the city, and he was one of the delegates for Major McKinley and later in the campaign, after the St. Louis convention, he worked for McKinley and was elected to the position of delegate to the national convention. He was a member of the Grand Army of the Republic and was a member of the Grand Army of the Republic. He was a member of the Grand Army of the Republic.

NEBRASKA CITY, March 21.—(Special.)—Dr. Spencer L. Grant died yesterday, aged 80 years. He has practiced medicine in this county for the last thirty years. He was born in Vermont, and his father was a member of the Third Ohio regiment in the civil war, and in later years became fast friends. Several times within the past few years he has visited Nebraska. He has visited President McKinley at his Canton home. When the fight for delegates was being waged in California, Col. Grant was in the city, and he was one of the delegates for Major McKinley and later in the campaign, after the St. Louis convention, he worked for McKinley and was elected to the position of delegate to the national convention. He was a member of the Grand Army of the Republic and was a member of the Grand Army of the Republic. He was a member of the Grand Army of the Republic.

NEBRASKA CITY, March 21.—(Special.)—Dr. Spencer L. Grant died yesterday, aged 80 years. He has practiced medicine in this county for the last thirty years. He was born in Vermont, and his father was a member of the Third Ohio regiment in the civil war, and in later years became fast friends. Several times within the past few years he has visited Nebraska. He has visited President McKinley at his Canton home. When the fight for delegates was being waged in California, Col. Grant was in the city, and he was one of the delegates for Major McKinley and later in the campaign, after the St. Louis convention, he worked for McKinley and was elected to the position of delegate to the national convention. He was a member of the Grand Army of the Republic and was a member of the Grand Army of the Republic. He was a member of the Grand Army of the Republic.

NEBRASKA CITY, March 21.—(Special.)—Dr. Spencer L. Grant died yesterday, aged 80 years. He has practiced medicine in this county for the last thirty years. He was born in Vermont, and his father was a member of the Third Ohio regiment in the civil war, and in later years became fast friends. Several times within the past few years he has visited Nebraska. He has visited President McKinley at his Canton home. When the fight for delegates was being waged in California, Col. Grant was in the city, and he was one of the delegates for Major McKinley and later in the campaign, after the St. Louis convention, he worked for McKinley and was elected to the position of delegate to the national convention. He was a member of the Grand Army of the Republic and was a member of the Grand Army of the Republic. He was a member of the Grand Army of the Republic.

NEBRASKA CITY, March 21.—(Special.)—Dr. Spencer L. Grant died yesterday, aged 80 years. He has practiced medicine in this county for the last thirty years. He was born in Vermont, and his father was a member of the Third Ohio regiment in the civil war, and in later years became fast friends. Several times within the past few years he has visited Nebraska. He has visited President McKinley at his Canton home. When the fight for delegates was being waged in California, Col. Grant was in the city, and he was one of the delegates for Major McKinley and later in the campaign, after the St. Louis convention, he worked for McKinley and was elected to the position of delegate to the national convention. He was a member of the Grand Army of the Republic and was a member of the Grand Army of the Republic. He was a member of the Grand Army of the Republic.

NEBRASKA CITY, March 21.—(Special.)—Dr. Spencer L. Grant died yesterday, aged 80 years. He has practiced medicine in this county for the last thirty years. He was born in Vermont, and his father was a member of the Third Ohio regiment in the civil war, and in later years became fast friends. Several times within the past few years he has visited Nebraska. He has visited President McKinley at his Canton home. When the fight for delegates was being waged in California, Col. Grant was in the city, and he was one of the delegates for Major McKinley and later in the campaign, after the St. Louis convention, he worked for McKinley and was elected to the position of delegate to the national convention. He was a member of the Grand Army of the Republic and was a member of the Grand Army of the Republic. He was a member of the Grand Army of the Republic.

NEBRASKA CITY, March 21.—(Special.)—Dr. Spencer L. Grant died yesterday, aged 80 years. He has practiced medicine in this county for the last thirty years. He was born in Vermont, and his father was a member of the Third Ohio regiment in the civil war, and in later years became fast friends. Several times within the past few years he has visited Nebraska. He has visited President McKinley at his Canton home. When the fight for delegates was being waged in California, Col. Grant was in the city, and he was one of the delegates for Major McKinley and later in the campaign, after the St. Louis convention, he worked for McKinley and was elected to the position of delegate to the national convention. He was a member of the Grand Army of the Republic and was a member of the Grand Army of the Republic. He was a member of the Grand Army of the Republic.

NEBRASKA CITY, March 21.—(Special.)—Dr. Spencer L. Grant died yesterday, aged 80 years. He has practiced medicine in this county for the last thirty years. He was born in Vermont, and his father was a member of the Third Ohio regiment in the civil war, and in later years became fast friends. Several times within the past few years he has visited Nebraska. He has visited President McKinley at his Canton home. When the fight for delegates was being waged in California, Col. Grant was in the city, and he was one of the delegates for Major McKinley and later in the campaign, after the St. Louis convention, he worked for McKinley and was elected to the position of delegate to the national convention. He was a member of the Grand Army of the Republic and was a member of the Grand Army of the Republic. He was a member of the Grand Army of the Republic.

NEBRASKA CITY, March 21.—(Special.)—Dr. Spencer L. Grant died yesterday, aged 80 years. He has practiced medicine in this county for the last thirty years. He was born in Vermont, and his father was a member of the Third Ohio regiment in the civil war, and in later years became fast friends. Several times within the past few years he has visited Nebraska. He has visited President McKinley at his Canton home. When the fight for delegates was being waged in California, Col. Grant was in the city, and he was one of the delegates for Major McKinley and later in the campaign, after the St. Louis convention, he worked for McKinley and was elected to the position of delegate to the national convention. He was a member of the Grand Army of the Republic and was a member of the Grand Army of the Republic. He was a member of the Grand Army of the Republic.

NEBRASKA CITY, March 21.—(Special.)—Dr. Spencer L. Grant died yesterday, aged 80 years. He has practiced medicine in this county for the last thirty years. He was born in Vermont, and his father was a member of the Third Ohio regiment in the civil war, and in later years became fast friends. Several times within the past few years he has visited Nebraska. He has visited President McKinley at his Canton home. When the fight for delegates was being waged in California, Col. Grant was in the city, and he was one of the delegates for Major McKinley and later in the campaign, after the St. Louis convention, he worked for McKinley and was elected to the position of delegate to the national convention. He was a member of the Grand Army of the Republic and was a member of the Grand Army of the Republic. He was a member of the Grand Army of the Republic.

NEBRASKA CITY, March 21.—(Special.)—Dr. Spencer L. Grant died yesterday, aged 80 years. He has practiced medicine in this county for the last thirty years. He was born in Vermont, and his father was a member of the Third Ohio regiment in the civil war, and in later years became fast friends. Several times within the past few years he has visited Nebraska. He has visited President McKinley at his Canton home. When the fight for delegates was being waged in California, Col. Grant was in the city, and he was one of the delegates for Major McKinley and later in the campaign, after the St. Louis convention, he worked for McKinley and was elected to the position of delegate to the national convention. He was a member of the Grand Army of the Republic and was a member of the Grand Army of the Republic. He was a member of the Grand Army of the Republic.

NEBRASKA CITY, March 21.—(Special.)—Dr. Spencer L. Grant died yesterday, aged 80 years. He has practiced medicine in this county for the last thirty years. He was born in Vermont, and his father was a member of the Third Ohio regiment in the civil war, and in later years became fast friends. Several times within the past few years he has visited Nebraska. He has visited President McKinley at his Canton home. When the fight for delegates was being waged in California, Col. Grant was in the city, and he was one of the delegates for Major McKinley and later in the campaign, after the St. Louis convention, he worked for McKinley and was elected to the position of delegate to the national convention. He was a member of the Grand Army of the Republic and was a member of the Grand Army of the Republic. He was a member of the Grand Army of the Republic.

NEBRASKA CITY, March 21.—(Special.)—Dr. Spencer L. Grant died yesterday, aged 80 years. He has practiced medicine in this county for the last thirty years. He was born in Vermont, and his father was a member of the Third Ohio regiment in the civil war, and in later years became fast friends. Several times within the past few years he has visited Nebraska. He has visited President McKinley at his Canton home. When the fight for delegates was being waged in California, Col. Grant was in the city, and he was one of the delegates for Major McKinley and later in the campaign, after the St. Louis convention, he worked for McKinley and was elected to the position of delegate to the national convention. He was a member of the Grand Army of the Republic and was a member of the Grand Army of the Republic. He was a member of the Grand Army of the Republic.

NEBRASKA CITY, March 21.—(Special.)—Dr. Spencer L. Grant died yesterday, aged 80 years. He has practiced medicine in this county for the last thirty years. He was born in Vermont, and his father was a member of the Third Ohio regiment in the civil war, and in later years became fast friends. Several times within the past few years he has visited Nebraska. He has visited President McKinley at his Canton home. When the fight for delegates was being waged in California, Col. Grant was in the city, and he was one of the delegates for Major McKinley and later in the campaign, after the St. Louis convention, he worked for McKinley and was elected to the position of delegate to the national convention. He was a member of the Grand Army of the Republic and was a member of the Grand Army of the Republic. He was a member of the Grand Army of the Republic.

NEBRASKA CITY, March 21.—(Special.)—Dr. Spencer L. Grant died yesterday, aged 80 years. He has practiced medicine in this county for the last thirty years. He was born in Vermont, and his father was a member of the Third Ohio regiment in the civil war, and in later years became fast friends. Several times within the past few years he has visited Nebraska. He has visited President McKinley at his Canton home. When the fight for delegates was being waged in California, Col. Grant was in the city, and he was one of the delegates for Major McKinley and later in the campaign, after the St. Louis convention, he worked for McKinley and was elected to the position of delegate to the national convention. He was a member of the Grand Army of the Republic and was a member of the Grand Army of the Republic. He was a member of the Grand Army of the Republic.

NEBRASKA CITY, March 21.—(Special.)—Dr. Spencer L. Grant died yesterday, aged 80 years. He has practiced medicine in this county for the last thirty years. He was born in Vermont, and his father was a member of the Third Ohio regiment in the civil war, and in later years became fast friends. Several times within the past few years he has visited Nebraska. He has visited President McKinley at his Canton home. When the fight for delegates was being waged in California, Col. Grant was in the city, and he was one of the delegates for Major McKinley and later in the campaign, after the St. Louis convention, he worked for McKinley and was elected to the position of delegate to the national convention. He was a member of the Grand Army of the Republic and was a member of the Grand Army of the Republic. He was a member of the Grand Army of the Republic.

NEBRASKA CITY, March 21.—(Special.)—Dr. Spencer L. Grant died yesterday, aged 80 years. He has practiced medicine in this county for the last thirty years. He was born in Vermont, and his father was a member of the Third Ohio regiment in the civil war, and in later years became fast friends. Several times within the past few years he has visited Nebraska. He has visited President McKinley at his Canton home. When the fight for delegates was being waged in California, Col. Grant was in the city, and he was one of the delegates for Major McKinley and later in the campaign, after the St. Louis convention, he worked for McKinley and was elected to the position of delegate to the national convention. He was a member of the Grand Army of the Republic and was a member of the Grand Army of the Republic. He was a member of the Grand Army of the Republic.

NEBRASKA CITY, March 21.—(Special.)—Dr. Spencer L. Grant died yesterday, aged 80 years. He has practiced medicine in this county for the last thirty years. He was born in Vermont, and his father was a member of the Third Ohio regiment in the civil war, and in later years became fast friends. Several times within the past few years he has visited Nebraska. He has visited President McKinley at his Canton home. When the fight for delegates was being waged in California, Col. Grant was in the city, and he was one of the delegates for Major McKinley and later in the campaign, after the St. Louis convention, he worked for McKinley and was elected to the position of delegate to the national convention. He was a member of the Grand Army of the Republic and was a member of the Grand Army of the Republic. He was a member of the Grand Army of the Republic.

NEBRASKA CITY, March 21.—(Special.)—Dr. Spencer L. Grant died yesterday, aged 80 years. He has practiced medicine in this county for the last thirty years. He was born in Vermont, and his father was a member of the Third Ohio regiment in the civil war, and in later years became fast friends. Several times within the past few years he has visited Nebraska. He has visited President McKinley at his Canton home. When the fight for delegates was being waged in California, Col. Grant was in the city, and he was one of the delegates for Major McKinley and later in the campaign, after the St. Louis convention, he worked for McKinley and was elected to the position of delegate to the national convention. He was a member of the Grand Army of the Republic and was a member of the Grand Army of the Republic. He was a member of the Grand Army of the Republic.

NEBRASKA CITY, March 21.—(Special.)—Dr. Spencer L. Grant died yesterday, aged 80 years. He has practiced medicine in this county for the last thirty years. He was born in Vermont, and his father was a member of the Third Ohio regiment in the civil war, and in later years became fast friends. Several times within the past few years he has visited Nebraska. He has visited President McKinley at his Canton home. When the fight for delegates was being waged in California, Col. Grant was in the city, and he was one of the delegates for Major McKinley and later in the campaign, after the St. Louis convention, he worked for McKinley and was elected to the position of delegate to the national convention. He was a member of the Grand Army of the Republic and was a member of the Grand Army of the Republic. He was a member of the Grand Army of the Republic.

NEBRASKA CITY, March 21.—(Special.)—Dr. Spencer L. Grant died yesterday, aged 80 years. He has practiced medicine in this county for the last thirty years. He was born in Vermont, and his father was a member of the Third Ohio regiment in the civil war, and in later years became fast friends. Several times within the past few years he has visited Nebraska. He has visited President McKinley at his Canton home. When the fight for delegates was being waged in California, Col. Grant was in the city, and he was one of the delegates for Major McKinley and later in the campaign, after the St. Louis convention, he worked for McKinley and was elected to the position of delegate to the national convention. He was a member of the Grand Army of the Republic and was a member of the Grand Army of the Republic. He was a member of the Grand Army of the Republic.

NEBRASKA CITY, March 21.—(Special.)—Dr. Spencer L. Grant died yesterday, aged 80 years. He has practiced medicine in this county for the last thirty years. He was born in Vermont, and his father was a member of the Third Ohio regiment in the civil war, and in later years became fast friends. Several times within the past few years he has visited Nebraska. He has visited President McKinley at his Canton home. When the fight for delegates was being waged in California, Col. Grant was in the city, and he was one of the delegates for Major McKinley and later in the campaign, after the St. Louis convention, he worked for McKinley and was elected to the position of delegate to the national convention. He was a member of the Grand Army of the Republic and was a member of the Grand Army of the Republic. He was a member of the Grand Army of the Republic.

NEBRASKA CITY, March 21.—(Special.)—Dr. Spencer L. Grant died yesterday, aged 80 years. He has practiced medicine in this county for the last thirty years. He was born in Vermont, and his father was a member of the Third Ohio regiment in the civil war, and in later years became fast friends. Several times within the past few years he has visited Nebraska. He has visited President McKinley at his Canton home. When the fight for delegates was being waged in California, Col. Grant was in the city, and he was one of the delegates for Major McKinley and later in the campaign, after the St. Louis convention, he worked for McKinley and was elected to the position of delegate to the national convention. He was a member of the Grand Army of the Republic and was a member of the Grand Army of the Republic. He was a member of the Grand Army of the Republic.

NEBRASKA CITY, March 21.—(Special.)—Dr. Spencer L. Grant died yesterday, aged 80 years. He has practiced medicine in this county for the last thirty years. He was born in Vermont, and his father was a member of the Third Ohio regiment in the civil war, and in later years became fast friends. Several times within the past few years he has visited Nebraska. He has visited President McKinley at his Canton home. When the fight for delegates was being waged in California, Col. Grant was in the city, and he was one of the delegates for Major McKinley and later in the campaign, after the St. Louis convention, he worked for McKinley and was elected to the position of delegate to the national convention. He was a member of the Grand Army of the Republic and was a member of the Grand Army of the Republic. He was a member of the Grand Army of the Republic.

NEBRASKA CITY, March 21.—(Special.)—Dr. Spencer L. Grant died yesterday, aged 80 years. He has practiced medicine in this county for the last thirty years. He was born in Vermont, and his father was a member of the Third Ohio regiment in the civil war, and in later years became fast friends. Several times within the past few years he has visited Nebraska. He has visited President McKinley at his Canton home. When the fight for delegates was being waged in California, Col. Grant was in the city, and he was one of the delegates for Major McKinley and later in the campaign, after the St. Louis convention, he worked for McKinley and was elected to the position of delegate to the national convention. He was a member of the Grand Army of the Republic and was a member of the Grand Army of the Republic. He was a member of the Grand Army of the Republic.

NEBRASKA CITY, March 21.—(Special.)—Dr. Spencer L. Grant died yesterday, aged 80 years. He has practiced medicine in this county for the last thirty years. He was born in Vermont, and his father was a member of the Third Ohio regiment in the civil war, and in later years became fast friends. Several times within the past few years he has visited Nebraska. He has visited President McKinley at his Canton home. When the fight for delegates was being waged in California, Col. Grant was in the city, and he was one of the delegates for Major McKinley and later in the campaign, after the St. Louis convention, he worked for McKinley and was elected to the position of delegate to the national convention. He was a member of the Grand Army of the Republic and was a member of the Grand Army of the Republic. He was a member of the Grand Army of the Republic.

NEBRASKA CITY, March 21.—(Special.)—Dr. Spencer L. Grant died yesterday, aged 80 years. He has practiced medicine in this county for the last thirty years. He was born in Vermont, and his father was a member of the Third Ohio regiment in the civil war, and in later years became fast friends. Several times within the past few years he has visited Nebraska. He has visited President McKinley at his Canton home. When the fight for delegates was being waged in California, Col. Grant was in the city, and he was one of the delegates for Major McKinley and later in the campaign, after the St. Louis convention, he worked for McKinley and was elected to the position of delegate to the national convention. He was a member of the Grand Army of the Republic and was a member of the Grand Army of the Republic. He was a member of the Grand Army of the Republic.

NEBRASKA CITY, March 21.—(Special.)—Dr. Spencer L. Grant died yesterday, aged 80 years. He has practiced medicine in this county for the last thirty years. He was born in Vermont, and his father was a member of the Third Ohio regiment in the civil war, and in later years became fast friends. Several times within the past few years he has visited Nebraska. He has visited President McKinley at his Canton home. When the fight for delegates was being waged in California, Col. Grant was in the city, and he was one of the delegates for Major McKinley and later in the campaign, after the St. Louis convention, he worked for McKinley and was elected to the position of delegate to the national convention. He was a member of the Grand Army of the Republic and was a member of the Grand Army of the Republic. He was a member of the Grand Army of the Republic.

NEBRASKA CITY, March 21.—(Special.)—Dr. Spencer L. Grant died yesterday, aged 80 years. He has practiced medicine in this county for the last thirty years. He was born in Vermont, and his father was a member of the Third Ohio regiment in the civil war, and in later years became fast friends. Several times within the past few years he has visited Nebraska. He has visited President McKinley at his Canton home. When the fight for delegates was being waged in California, Col. Grant was in the city, and he was one of the delegates for Major McKinley and later in the campaign, after the St. Louis convention, he worked for McKinley and was elected to the position of delegate to