GOLD WATER TO THE PARTY OF THE AMUSEMENTS.

The Payton Comedy company appeared in 'Driven from Home' and "Braving the World" at Boyd's yesterday. The bill for tonight will be "A Much Married Man," a omedy in which the Paytons claim to be it their best. At every performance the moving pictures are shown by the triograph.

Opening with tonight's performance, when a new comedy, entitled "Three Silk Hats," will be presented, the Woodward Theater company will inaugurate a ten-night season of low-priced amusement at the Creighton. large advance sale would indicate that this familiar organization is still popular. A number of additions have been made to the cast since the company's last appearance, among these being little Marie Snowden. "That Cheerful Liar" is underlined for tomorrow night, while "The Octoroon" will be the Saturday evening bill. A special souvenir matince will be given Boyd's theater will have Salter & Martin's "Uncle Tom's Cabin" company as the at-traction next week, commencing with Sunmatinee. It seems strange what a hold this old play has on the public, but when it is well mounted and presented in an acceptable manner no American play is its equal in drawing powers. Saiter & Mar-tin claim to have engaged a large company and to have surrounded the players with an abundance of special scenery and effects. In order to give the scenes a gen-uine southern appearance a troupe of Ala-bama pickaninnics have been engaged, who will appear in the plantation scenes in songs and dances.

Results of the Annual Contests in the Nebraska Towns.

LICENSE MAKES GAINS IN THE STATE

Several Places Formerly Run on the Prohibition Plan Will Be Provided with Saloons During the Coming Year.

ALBION, Neb., April 7 .- (Special Telegram.)-Albion goes dry. Arista Harris, no license, was elected mayor and Robert Patterson and Herbert M. Bronson, both no liconse were elected councilmen.

ARLINGTON, Neb., April 7 .- (Special.)-The following were elected: Henry W. Schoettger, Fred Echtenkamp, O. K. Lewis, C. H. Linn and J. C. Blackburn. It is said to be a license board.

AURORA, Neb., April 7 .- (Special Telegram.)-The nonpartisan ticket was elected as follows: Mayor, G. W. Curry; clerk, J. B. Cunningham; treasurer, J. P. Chapman; all re-elected; councilmen, J. F. Forbes, William Rutherford and U. J. Ronin. Liwillam Retherford and U. J. Ronin. Li-cense was submitted to a yea and nay vote, and resulted in a tie. The question of whether the city should have a curfew or-dinance was decided in the affirmative by a dinance was decided in the affirmative by a large majority.

BANCROFT, Neb., April 7.—(Special.)—
There were two tickets in the field. The election resulted in a majority of two in favor of high license and the victory of one populist, one democrat and three republicans named below as trustees for the ensuing year: F. B. Barber, populist; J. E. L. Carey, democrat; F. H. aPark, G. H. Ransson, R. and John W. Watson, republicans.

BATTLE CREEK, Neb., April 7.—(Special.)—The election of town officers was a complete populist victory. The successful candidates were: W. B. Fuerst, C. E. Hansson, C. A. Lampert, Samuel McCalister and W. A. Venable.

BEATRICE, Neb., April 7.—(Special.)—The BEATRICE, Neb., April 7.—(Special.)—The republican victory was sweeping. The Black Eagle Bryan club had passed a resolution to the effect that the club would put no ticket in the field, but would assist in a citizens' movement, hoping thereby to draw strength from the republican ranks. The result shown how vain was their hope. Walter Scott, city treasurer, led the list with 742 majority, followed by Judge Brown for mayor with 577 and Harry Harper for clerk with a majority of 573. There is a probability that under the incoming administration there will be changes in the office of water commissioner, chief of police and street commissioner.

BEEMER, Neb., April 7.—(Special.)—W.

H. Laughton, Charles Grunke, John Steotzel, C. E. Decker and John Nellor were elected village trustees. All are republicans. There was no party issue.

BENNINGTON, Neb., April 7.—(Special.) -The republican ticket was elected for vil-lage trustees, as follows: Henry Arp, M. H. Frederichsen, Claus Oft, Eggert Oft, Gustav Paulsen. Frederichsen and Paulsen were on both tickets. Peter Bunz and Peter Mangold, who composed the balance of the citigold, who composed the balance of the cit-zens' ticket, were defeated. BLAIR, Neb., April 7.—(Special.)—The en-tire city ticket is republican with the ex-ception of two councilmen, and the republicans re-elected two members of the school board. The council now stands five republicans to three popocrats and a republican mayor. The school board stands four re-publicans, one gold democrat and one free silver democrat.

Calhoun, Neb., April 7.—(Special.)—The city election resulted as follows: L. Crounse, republican, was elected mayor over E. N. Gernell, democrat, by 1 majority. L. Clasen, democrat, was elected treasurer and Will Sievers, democrat, clerk. In the First ward Henry Jipp, republican, was elected councilman by one majority, and in the Second ward H. H. Conchman was elected.

CLAY CENTER, Neb., April 7.—(Special.)

—There were two tickets in the field; the republican and citizens' reform, the latter Leaves | MISSOURI PACIFIC. | Arrives | CLAY CENTER, Neb., April 1. | Specially | Clay Center, Neb., April 1. | Spe day was rainy and cold, and a light vote was COZAD, Neb., April 7 .- (Special.)-There were two tickets in the field for village board of trustees—license and anti-license. The ontest was very close, and resulted in the election of three on the license or citizens' ticket and two on the temperance ticket. ELWOOD, Neb., April 7.—(Special Telegrom.)—The following named persons were elected village trustees: S. B. Yeoman, F. W. Perry, T. G. Reynolds, W. R. Patrick and A. M. White, While there was no issue on the question, the board is probably against granting saloon license. EXETER, Neb., April 7.—(Special.)—The election passed off quietly. There were two ickets, a straight license and a non-partiian. A mixed ticket was elected as follows: A. D. Cookus, non-partisan; W. L. Bill, peo-ple's-license; H. A. Greenawalt, people'siconse; J. L. McLeese, people's-license; R. R. Williams, non-partisan. License received a najority of two votes. FAIRFIELD, Neb., April 7 .- (Special.)-A very light vote was polled. There were two tickets in the field, one labeled prohibition, the other free silver. All the candidates were opposed to license with the dif-ference that the prohibitionists proposed to make war on bootleggers and drug store whisky. The following were elected, all by close margins: The free silverites elected A. B. Palmer, mayor; H. A. Roberts, clerk; A. H. Latzke, treasurer; Z. H. Riggs, alderman; the prohibitionists elected C. M. Prick-ett, surveyor; J. A. Shiveley, alderman. FALLS CITY, Neb., April 7.—(Special.)— Something over 600 votes were polled. The entire citizens' ticket was elected as follows: . H. Miles, mayor; E. E. Mettz, treasurer C. Davis, clerk; J. W. Towle, engineer; J. E. Leyda, police judge; Gus Neitzel, coun-cilman First ward; C. F. Cain, councilman Second ward; L. A. Ryan, councilman Third ward; W. H. Crook, T. F. Sullivan and W.

L. White, members of the Board of Education. FREMONT, April 7.—(Special.)—Complete returns for members of the school board elect Miss Lucy Griswold, republican, for the short term, and Andrew Peterson, republican, and E. W. Martin, democrat, for the long term. There is considerable dissatisfaction over the count in some of the wards. The ticket was not arranged in good shape, the candidates for both the short and long terms being grouped together in alphabetical order. There were two to be elected for the full term and one to fill a vacancy. It is said some votes were cast for three candidates for the long term and counted. A recount may be had, though it is doubtful if it would affect the result. FULLERTON, Neb., April 7.—(Special.)— The election was quiet. The republican ticket was elected as follows: Mayor, J. W.
