

BLUFFS DEPARTMENT.

MINOR MENTION.

Ladies' tickets will be free at Dohany's on Sunday evening. Mrs. J. D. Spaulding and Miss Spaulding of Sioux City are the guests of Mrs. J. N. Cassidy on Oakland avenue.

PLANNING FOR GOOD ROADS

Board of County Supervisors Propose to Improve Highways. Will Discard Antiquated Methods.

Better roads, in fact, good roads, permanently built, is the shape into which the demand for improvement of the highways leading into Council Bluffs has at last crystallized.

GRANTS THREE MORE DIVORCES

Judge Smith Corrects Some Mistakes Made by Cupid. Judge Smith, sitting on the bench in the district court yesterday, got rid of three more of his divorce cases.

FIRST DECIDES IT HAS 'LEGALLY PASSED'

SENATORS DENY THAT THEY HAVE BEEN CORRUPTLY INFLUENCED BY THE BURLINGTON ROAD-CHANGING BUILDING AND LOAN LAWS.

DES MOINES, April 9.—(Special Telegram.)—Today was one of sensations in the senate. The parliamentary status of the Berry substitutes for the temple amendment was decided yesterday.

DES MOINES, April 9.—(Special Telegram.)

Today was one of sensations in the senate. The parliamentary status of the Berry substitutes for the temple amendment was decided yesterday.

HUNTING FOR A RUNAWAY BOY

R. H. Woodmansie of Macedonia was in the city last night hunting for his 12-year-old son, Henry, who ran away from home three days ago.

FEARS NO TROUBLE WITH JAPAN

HAWAIIANS HAVE FOLLOWED THE PRECEDENT OF THE UNITED STATES. SAN FRANCISCO, April 9.—A. F. Judd, supreme justice of the supreme court of Hawaii, is here with his wife, enroute to the eastern states on a visit.

ARE WAITING FOR A REVELATION

LATTER DAY SAINTS AT LAMONI MAKE PROGRESS WITH BEANS. LAMONI, Ia., April 9.—(Special Telegram.)—The forenoon sermon by Elder Daniel was lengthy and earnest, including the citation of a host of scriptural passages, showing a wide acquaintance with the sacred record.

SPANISH INDIET LIVES ON THE CABANAS

HAVANA, April 9.—The Gerona battalion, while reconnoitering in the vicinity of Encruclada, province of Pinar del Rio, surprised the insurgent force commanded by Poroco Delgado and the remainder of the force commanded by Ducaes.

BRITISH ACQUIRE MORE LAND

CAPE TOWN, April 9.—The Argus of this city announced today that it had received information from Pretoria that the British have secured Nyack island, at the entrance of Delagoa bay, and that a squadron of warships from the port will proceed there to take possession of the island and proclaim it British territory.

REBELS SWEEPING THE COUNTRY

MONTEVIDEO, April 9.—The revolutionary party now practically possesses the whole of eastern Uruguay. They will collect customs on the Brazilian frontier. An independent force of Blancos, white revolutionists, is within a short distance of this city.

TO PROMOTE MORALITY IN FRANCE

PARIS, April 9.—M. Darlin, minister of justice, announced in the Chamber of deputies today that he would soon submit a bill to amend the laws relating to the moral conduct of public functionaries.

WRITING FOR REINFORCEMENTS

MADRID, April 9.—Despatches received here from Manila, capital of the Philippine islands, states that the insurgents have killed several monks and have burned some churches of Buena Vista, Guleveda and Endang. Insurgents are said to be erecting fortifications in favorable positions.

TO PRAY FOR RAIN

SYDNEY, N. S. W., April 9.—In view of the suffering from protracted drought the government has proclaimed that April 16 be observed as a day of humiliation and prayer for rain.

MINISTER MCKENZIE RECOVERS

LIMA, Peru, April 9.—United States minister McKenzie's malady has pronouncedly improved and his physicians now pronounce him out of danger.

EDITOR FOR PARK COMMISSIONER

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., April 9.—William Penn Nixon succeeds Andrew Crawford as park commissioner. In the appointments sent in yesterday it was stated Frederick Winston succeeded Crawford. This was a mistake. Winston was appointed, but did not succeed Crawford.

South Omaha News.

No Chance to Rate a Crop in the Vicinity of Greenview. JACKSON, Miss., April 9.—The Associated Press reporter at Greenview, the heart of the flooded district, telegraphs at 1 p. m. as follows: "The first cry of distress from the flood sufferers of this portion of the Mississippi valley was sent out yesterday by the citizens of Greenview, when they appealed to the government for supplies to feed 40,000 people. In this county alone this morning's appeal means that the people in Washington county at least have thrown up the sponge and have turned their backs on making crops this year. This was addressed to Congressman Catchings and Governor McLaughlin and asked for $125,000 for immediate use to ration those who will soon be left without means of sustenance.

Want to Build a Church. The colored people intend making an attempt to raise money enough to erect a church here. Rev. Jordan Allen, pastor of the African Methodist church in this city, is at the head of the movement and stated yesterday that four subscription papers would be placed in the hands of a few good condition, but on account of the almost impassable roads little stock is being shipped to market. Mr. Lee leaves today for Rapid City, S. D., to attend the annual convention of the South Dakota Stock Breeders' association.

Lively Social Combin. Next Thursday evening the members of the Young Men's Christian association and the Woman's auxiliary will give a Whoop-Em-Up social at the association parlors. Each member will be allowed to bring one friend. A special program has been prepared and light refreshments will be served.

Magie City Gossip. E. C. Dennett has gone to Iowa on a visit. Ed Cahow has gone to Cheyenne, Wyo., on business. William McCormick is visiting the family of Mrs. Jeff Ogg, who has been quite sick, is reported better.

Next Tuesday evening the Sons of Veterans will hold an important meeting. Wallace H. Vernon, Central City, here for the day, the guest of J. B. Eriou. The Union Veterans' Republican club will meet at Judge Howe's office Monday night. James Frazier, Columbus, was on this market yesterday with a large shipment of eggs.

Mr. John G. Pollock and Miss Pearl B. Mosgrove of Columbus are in the city visiting friends. Mrs. McKean, who has been visiting Miss Nellie Green, returned to her home at Valley yesterday. The last meeting of the Young Men's Christian Association literary society was held at the home of Mrs. J. B. Eriou.

Prevent sickness and save doctors' bills at this season by keeping your blood rich and pure with Hood's Sarsaparilla. It builds firm, healthy flesh, muscle and nerve fiber. It cures the greatest of all ailments, the sickness. It cures nervous prostration and exhaustion, wasting diseases of all kinds and 98 per cent. of all cases of constipation, chronic constipation, indigestion, and all other ailments.

Mr. M., a Boston gentleman, has a telephone in his new house and he instructed a newly engaged Irish maid-servant how to reply in case there should come a call over the wire during the absence of Mr. M. and his wife. One day there came such a call and Norah went to the telephone. "Well, sir," said Norah, with her mouth to the speaking tube, "I'm at home."

Chicago Post: "I'm afraid," said the old gentleman, shaking his head sadly, "that you have permitted Mabel to acquire excellent taste in the matter of dress. The food mother was instantly on the defensive. "I don't see where you got that idea," she retorted. "Only last evening," he answered, "she intimated very plainly that she wanted to marry a nobleman."

Chicago Tribune: "Papa, isn't there a strong smell of gas around here?" "Yes, I noticed it as we turned the corner." "Where does it come from, papa?" "There is a break, probably, in some pipe."

Chicago Post: "Say," said the man who had seen the farmer lose his last cent against the shell game, "didn't you wonder that fellow is a robber?" "Ho, no," said the agriculturist. "I got the money something in the same way, so it don't matter. I made it myself maple mulassiz."

Chicago Tribune: "Papa, isn't there a strong smell of gas around here?" "Yes, I noticed it as we turned the corner." "Where does it come from, papa?" "There is a break, probably, in some pipe."

Chicago Post: "Say," said the man who had seen the farmer lose his last cent against the shell game, "didn't you wonder that fellow is a robber?" "Ho, no," said the agriculturist. "I got the money something in the same way, so it don't matter. I made it myself maple mulassiz."

Chicago Tribune: "Papa, isn't there a strong smell of gas around here?" "Yes, I noticed it as we turned the corner." "Where does it come from, papa?" "There is a break, probably, in some pipe."

Chicago Post: "Say," said the man who had seen the farmer lose his last cent against the shell game, "didn't you wonder that fellow is a robber?" "Ho, no," said the agriculturist. "I got the money something in the same way, so it don't matter. I made it myself maple mulassiz."

Chicago Tribune: "Papa, isn't there a strong smell of gas around here?" "Yes, I noticed it as we turned the corner." "Where does it come from, papa?" "There is a break, probably, in some pipe."

Chicago Post: "Say," said the man who had seen the farmer lose his last cent against the shell game, "didn't you wonder that fellow is a robber?" "Ho, no," said the agriculturist. "I got the money something in the same way, so it don't matter. I made it myself maple mulassiz."

Chicago Tribune: "Papa, isn't there a strong smell of gas around here?" "Yes, I noticed it as we turned the corner." "Where does it come from, papa?" "There is a break, probably, in some pipe."

Chicago Post: "Say," said the man who had seen the farmer lose his last cent against the shell game, "didn't you wonder that fellow is a robber?" "Ho, no," said the agriculturist. "I got the money something in the same way, so it don't matter. I made it myself maple mulassiz."

Chicago Tribune: "Papa, isn't there a strong smell of gas around here?" "Yes, I noticed it as we turned the corner." "Where does it come from, papa?" "There is a break, probably, in some pipe."

Chicago Post: "Say," said the man who had seen the farmer lose his last cent against the shell game, "didn't you wonder that fellow is a robber?" "Ho, no," said the agriculturist. "I got the money something in the same way, so it don't matter. I made it myself maple mulassiz."

Chicago Tribune: "Papa, isn't there a strong smell of gas around here?" "Yes, I noticed it as we turned the corner." "Where does it come from, papa?" "There is a break, probably, in some pipe."

Chicago Post: "Say," said the man who had seen the farmer lose his last cent against the shell game, "didn't you wonder that fellow is a robber?" "Ho, no," said the agriculturist. "I got the money something in the same way, so it don't matter. I made it myself maple mulassiz."

Chicago Tribune: "Papa, isn't there a strong smell of gas around here?" "Yes, I noticed it as we turned the corner." "Where does it come from, papa?" "There is a break, probably, in some pipe."

Chicago Post: "Say," said the man who had seen the farmer lose his last cent against the shell game, "didn't you wonder that fellow is a robber?" "Ho, no," said the agriculturist. "I got the money something in the same way, so it don't matter. I made it myself maple mulassiz."

Chicago Tribune: "Papa, isn't there a strong smell of gas around here?" "Yes, I noticed it as we turned the corner." "Where does it come from, papa?" "There is a break, probably, in some pipe."

Chicago Post: "Say," said the man who had seen the farmer lose his last cent against the shell game, "didn't you wonder that fellow is a robber?" "Ho, no," said the agriculturist. "I got the money something in the same way, so it don't matter. I made it myself maple mulassiz."

Chicago Tribune: "Papa, isn't there a strong smell of gas around here?" "Yes, I noticed it as we turned the corner." "Where does it come from, papa?" "There is a break, probably, in some pipe."

Chicago Post: "Say," said the man who had seen the farmer lose his last cent against the shell game, "didn't you wonder that fellow is a robber?" "Ho, no," said the agriculturist. "I got the money something in the same way, so it don't matter. I made it myself maple mulassiz."

Chicago Tribune: "Papa, isn't there a strong smell of gas around here?" "Yes, I noticed it as we turned the corner." "Where does it come from, papa?" "There is a break, probably, in some pipe."

PEOPLE HAVE GIVEN UP ALL HOPE

No Chance to Rate a Crop in the Vicinity of Greenview. JACKSON, Miss., April 9.—The Associated Press reporter at Greenview, the heart of the flooded district, telegraphs at 1 p. m. as follows: "The first cry of distress from the flood sufferers of this portion of the Mississippi valley was sent out yesterday by the citizens of Greenview, when they appealed to the government for supplies to feed 40,000 people. In this county alone this morning's appeal means that the people in Washington county at least have thrown up the sponge and have turned their backs on making crops this year. This was addressed to Congressman Catchings and Governor McLaughlin and asked for $125,000 for immediate use to ration those who will soon be left without means of sustenance.

Want to Build a Church. The colored people intend making an attempt to raise money enough to erect a church here. Rev. Jordan Allen, pastor of the African Methodist church in this city, is at the head of the movement and stated yesterday that four subscription papers would be placed in the hands of a few good condition, but on account of the almost impassable roads little stock is being shipped to market. Mr. Lee leaves today for Rapid City, S. D., to attend the annual convention of the South Dakota Stock Breeders' association.

Lively Social Combin. Next Thursday evening the members of the Young Men's Christian association and the Woman's auxiliary will give a Whoop-Em-Up social at the association parlors. Each member will be allowed to bring one friend. A special program has been prepared and light refreshments will be served.

Magie City Gossip. E. C. Dennett has gone to Iowa on a visit. Ed Cahow has gone to Cheyenne, Wyo., on business. William McCormick is visiting the family of Mrs. Jeff Ogg, who has been quite sick, is reported better.

Next Tuesday evening the Sons of Veterans will hold an important meeting. Wallace H. Vernon, Central City, here for the day, the guest of J. B. Eriou. The Union Veterans' Republican club will meet at Judge Howe's office Monday night. James Frazier, Columbus, was on this market yesterday with a large shipment of eggs.

Mr. John G. Pollock and Miss Pearl B. Mosgrove of Columbus are in the city visiting friends. Mrs. McKean, who has been visiting Miss Nellie Green, returned to her home at Valley yesterday. The last meeting of the Young Men's Christian Association literary society was held at the home of Mrs. J. B. Eriou.

Prevent sickness and save doctors' bills at this season by keeping your blood rich and pure with Hood's Sarsaparilla. It builds firm, healthy flesh, muscle and nerve fiber. It cures the greatest of all ailments, the sickness. It cures nervous prostration and exhaustion, wasting diseases of all kinds and 98 per cent. of all cases of constipation, chronic constipation, indigestion, and all other ailments.

Mr. M., a Boston gentleman, has a telephone in his new house and he instructed a newly engaged Irish maid-servant how to reply in case there should come a call over the wire during the absence of Mr. M. and his wife. One day there came such a call and Norah went to the telephone. "Well, sir," said Norah, with her mouth to the speaking tube, "I'm at home."

Chicago Post: "I'm afraid," said the old gentleman, shaking his head sadly, "that you have permitted Mabel to acquire excellent taste in the matter of dress. The food mother was instantly on the defensive. "I don't see where you got that idea," she retorted. "Only last evening," he answered, "she intimated very plainly that she wanted to marry a nobleman."

Chicago Tribune: "Papa, isn't there a strong smell of gas around here?" "Yes, I noticed it as we turned the corner." "Where does it come from, papa?" "There is a break, probably, in some pipe."

Chicago Post: "Say," said the man who had seen the farmer lose his last cent against the shell game, "didn't you wonder that fellow is a robber?" "Ho, no," said the agriculturist. "I got the money something in the same way, so it don't matter. I made it myself maple mulassiz."

Chicago Tribune: "Papa, isn't there a strong smell of gas around here?" "Yes, I noticed it as we turned the corner." "Where does it come from, papa?" "There is a break, probably, in some pipe."

Chicago Post: "Say," said the man who had seen the farmer lose his last cent against the shell game, "didn't you wonder that fellow is a robber?" "Ho, no," said the agriculturist. "I got the money something in the same way, so it don't matter. I made it myself maple mulassiz."

Chicago Tribune: "Papa, isn't there a strong smell of gas around here?" "Yes, I noticed it as we turned the corner." "Where does it come from, papa?" "There is a break, probably, in some pipe."

Chicago Post: "Say," said the man who had seen the farmer lose his last cent against the shell game, "didn't you wonder that fellow is a robber?" "Ho, no," said the agriculturist. "I got the money something in the same way, so it don't matter. I made it myself maple mulassiz."

Chicago Tribune: "Papa, isn't there a strong smell of gas around here?" "Yes, I noticed it as we turned the corner." "Where does it come from, papa?" "There is a break, probably, in some pipe."

Chicago Post: "Say," said the man who had seen the farmer lose his last cent against the shell game, "didn't you wonder that fellow is a robber?" "Ho, no," said the agriculturist. "I got the money something in the same way, so it don't matter. I made it myself maple mulassiz."

Chicago Tribune: "Papa, isn't there a strong smell of gas around here?" "Yes, I noticed it as we turned the corner." "Where does it come from, papa?" "There is a break, probably, in some pipe."

Chicago Post: "Say," said the man who had seen the farmer lose his last cent against the shell game, "didn't you wonder that fellow is a robber?" "Ho, no," said the agriculturist. "I got the money something in the same way, so it don't matter. I made it myself maple mulassiz."

Chicago Tribune: "Papa, isn't there a strong smell of gas around here?" "Yes, I noticed it as we turned the corner." "Where does it come from, papa?" "There is a break, probably, in some pipe."

Chicago Post: "Say," said the man who had seen the farmer lose his last cent against the shell game, "didn't you wonder that fellow is a robber?" "Ho, no," said the agriculturist. "I got the money something in the same way, so it don't matter. I made it myself maple mulassiz."

Chicago Tribune: "Papa, isn't there a strong smell of gas around here?" "Yes, I noticed it as we turned the corner." "Where does it come from, papa?" "There is a break, probably, in some pipe."

Chicago Post: "Say," said the man who had seen the farmer lose his last cent against the shell game, "didn't you wonder that fellow is a robber?" "Ho, no," said the agriculturist. "I got the money something in the same way, so it don't matter. I made it myself maple mulassiz."

Chicago Tribune: "Papa, isn't there a strong smell of gas around here?" "Yes, I noticed it as we turned the corner." "Where does it come from, papa?" "There is a break, probably, in some pipe."

Chicago Post: "Say," said the man who had seen the farmer lose his last cent against the shell game, "didn't you wonder that fellow is a robber?" "Ho, no," said the agriculturist. "I got the money something in the same way, so it don't matter. I made it myself maple mulassiz."

Chicago Tribune: "Papa, isn't there a strong smell of gas around here?" "Yes, I noticed it as we turned the corner." "Where does it come from, papa?" "There is a break, probably, in some pipe."

Chicago Post: "Say," said the man who had seen the farmer lose his last cent against the shell game, "didn't you wonder that fellow is a robber?" "Ho, no," said the agriculturist. "I got the money something in the same way, so it don't matter. I made it myself maple mulassiz."

Chicago Tribune: "Papa, isn't there a strong smell of gas around here?" "Yes, I noticed it as we turned the corner." "Where does it come from, papa?" "There is a break, probably, in some pipe."

Chicago Post: "Say," said the man who had seen the farmer lose his last cent against the shell game, "didn't you wonder that fellow is a robber?" "Ho, no," said the agriculturist. "I got the money something in the same way, so it don't matter. I made it myself maple mulassiz."

Chicago Tribune: "Papa, isn't there a strong smell of gas around here?" "Yes, I noticed it as we turned the corner." "Where does it come from, papa?" "There is a break, probably, in some pipe."

The Burlington Savings bank began foreclosure proceedings yesterday against property owned by R. B. Armstrong and wife. The bank holds a mortgage for $537.56.

All air knights are cordially invited to attend a special convolve of Yankee comedy, at 7 o'clock to confer the order of the Temple.

In the district court yesterday Judge Smith sustained the motion of the defendants for more specific statements in the case of J. W. Squire against W. A. Mynter and others.

The Girls' Industrial school meets this evening at the new building at 2.30. Miss Mave will sing before the sewing, instead of after, as heretofore. Visitors always welcome.

Wanted—man with general acquaintance in Council Bluffs, to canvass for a well known Omaha establishment. State experience and references. Address F 54, Omaha, Ia.

The Young Men's Christian association work has greatly revived since the reopening of the bathing facilities. The attendance is increasing nightly. Evangelists will be held at the men's meeting Sunday at 4 o'clock.

The Madison Square comedy company will be at Dohany's theater on Sunday evening. The bill will be "The Cheerful Liar," a farce comedy that is said to be one of the greatest mirth provokers on the stage. The box office will be open this morning for the sale of seats.

All members of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows lodge, both Encampment, subordinate and Rebekah, are requested to be present in the lodge room on Saturday evening, April 10. A flashlight photograph is to be taken of the lodge room and the members. A prompt attendance is requested for 8 o'clock.

Sheriff Tate of Fremont county was in the city yesterday with two prisoners, Will and Ed Williams, who are bound over to the grand jury on the charge of cattle stealing. The work of rebuilding the Fremont county jail, which was recently destroyed by fire, has been commenced and the necessity for bringing prisoners to this city for safe keeping will soon cease.

Abel Lincoln post, No. 29, Grand Army of the Republic, will have an open campfire at their hall this evening. All members and their ladies are cordially invited to be present. The program will consist of short speeches, music and singing. The invited guests are U. S. Army and Navy officers of Omaha and their ladies, U. V. L. of Council Bluffs and their ladies.

Louisa, wife of John Yancy, age 47, died at 8 South Sixth street at 11 a. m. of heart trouble. Deceased was married in 1859 and has been a resident of Council Bluffs for eleven years. She was a member of the Methodist Episcopal church and her funeral will be held at 10 o'clock on Monday at her late residence. Burial in the cemetery.

Abel Lincoln post, No. 29, Grand Army of the Republic, will have an open campfire at their hall this evening. All members and their ladies are cordially invited to be present. The program will consist of short speeches, music and singing. The invited guests are U. S. Army and Navy officers of Omaha and their ladies, U. V. L. of Council Bluffs and their ladies.

Louisa, wife of John Yancy, age 47, died at 8 South Sixth street at 11 a. m. of heart trouble. Deceased was married in 1859 and has been a resident of Council Bluffs for eleven years. She was a member of the Methodist Episcopal church and her funeral will be held at 10 o'clock on Monday at her late residence. Burial in the cemetery.

Abel Lincoln post, No. 29, Grand Army of the Republic, will have an open campfire at their hall this evening. All members and their ladies are cordially invited to be present. The program will consist of short speeches, music and singing. The invited guests are U. S. Army and Navy officers of Omaha and their ladies, U. V. L. of Council Bluffs and their ladies.

Louisa, wife of John Yancy, age 47, died at 8 South Sixth street at 11 a. m. of heart trouble. Deceased was married in 1859 and has been a resident of Council Bluffs for eleven years. She was a member of the Methodist Episcopal church and her funeral will be held at 10 o'clock on Monday at her late residence. Burial in the cemetery.

Abel Lincoln post, No. 29, Grand Army of the Republic, will have an open campfire at their hall this evening. All members and their ladies are cordially invited to be present. The program will consist of short speeches, music and singing. The invited guests are U. S. Army and Navy officers of Omaha and their ladies, U. V. L. of Council Bluffs and their ladies.

Louisa, wife of John Yancy, age 47, died at 8 South Sixth street at 11 a. m. of heart trouble. Deceased was married in 1859 and has been a resident of Council Bluffs for eleven years. She was a member of the Methodist Episcopal church and her funeral will be held at 10 o'clock on Monday at her late residence. Burial in the cemetery.

Abel Lincoln post, No. 29, Grand Army of the Republic, will have an open campfire at their hall this evening. All members and their ladies are cordially invited to be present. The program will consist of short speeches, music and singing. The invited guests are U. S. Army and Navy officers of Omaha and their ladies, U. V. L. of Council Bluffs and their ladies.

Louisa, wife of John Yancy, age 47, died at 8 South Sixth street at 11 a. m. of heart trouble. Deceased was married in 1859 and has been a resident of Council Bluffs for eleven years. She was a member of the Methodist Episcopal church and her funeral will be held at 10 o'clock on Monday at her late residence. Burial in the cemetery.

Abel Lincoln post, No. 29, Grand Army of the Republic, will have an open campfire at their hall this evening. All members and their ladies are cordially invited to be present. The program will consist of short speeches, music and singing. The invited guests are U. S. Army and Navy officers of Omaha and their ladies, U. V. L. of Council Bluffs and their ladies.

Louisa, wife of John Yancy, age 47, died at 8 South Sixth street at 11 a. m. of heart trouble. Deceased was married in 1859 and has been a resident of Council Bluffs for eleven years. She was a member of the Methodist Episcopal church and her funeral will be held at 10 o'clock on Monday at her late residence. Burial in the cemetery.

Abel Lincoln post, No. 29, Grand Army of the Republic, will have an open campfire at their hall this evening. All members and their ladies are cordially invited to be present. The program will consist of short speeches, music and singing. The invited guests are U. S. Army and Navy officers of Omaha and their ladies, U. V. L. of Council Bluffs and their ladies.

Louisa, wife of John Yancy, age 47, died at 8 South Sixth street at 11 a. m. of heart trouble. Deceased was married in 1859 and has been a resident of Council Bluffs for eleven years. She was a member of the Methodist Episcopal church and her funeral will be held at 10 o'clock on Monday at her late residence. Burial in the cemetery.

Abel Lincoln post, No. 29, Grand Army of the Republic, will have an open campfire at their hall this evening. All members and their ladies are cordially invited to be present. The program will consist of short speeches, music and singing. The invited guests are U. S. Army and Navy officers of Omaha and their ladies, U. V. L. of Council Bluffs and their ladies.

Louisa, wife of John Yancy, age 47, died at 8 South Sixth street at 11 a. m. of heart trouble. Deceased was married in 1859 and has been a resident of Council Bluffs for eleven years. She was a member of the Methodist Episcopal church and her funeral will be held at 10 o'clock on Monday at her late residence. Burial in the cemetery.

Abel Lincoln post, No. 29, Grand Army of the Republic, will have an open campfire at their hall this evening. All members and their ladies are cordially invited to be present. The program will consist of short speeches, music and singing. The invited guests are U. S. Army and Navy officers of Omaha and their ladies, U. V. L. of Council Bluffs and their ladies.

Louisa, wife of John Yancy, age 47, died at 8 South Sixth street at 11 a. m. of heart trouble. Deceased was married in 1859 and has been a resident of Council Bluffs for eleven years. She was a member of the Methodist Episcopal church and her funeral will be held at 10 o'clock on Monday at her late residence. Burial in the cemetery.

Abel Lincoln post, No. 29, Grand Army of the Republic, will have an open campfire at their hall this evening. All members and their ladies are cordially invited to be present. The program will consist of short speeches, music and singing. The invited guests are U. S. Army and Navy officers of Omaha and their ladies, U. V. L. of Council Bluffs and their ladies.

The Burlington Savings bank began foreclosure proceedings yesterday against property owned by R. B. Armstrong and wife. The bank holds a mortgage for $537.56.

All air knights are cordially invited to attend a special convolve of Yankee comedy, at 7 o'clock to confer the order of the Temple.

In the district court yesterday Judge Smith sustained the motion of the defendants for more specific statements in the case of J. W. Squire against W. A. Mynter and others.

The Girls' Industrial school meets this evening at the new building at 2.30. Miss Mave will sing before the sewing, instead of after, as heretofore. Visitors always welcome.

Wanted—man with general acquaintance in Council Bluffs, to canvass for a well known Omaha establishment. State experience and references. Address F 54, Omaha, Ia.

The Young Men's Christian association work has greatly revived since the reopening of the bathing facilities. The attendance is increasing nightly. Evangelists will be held at the men's meeting Sunday at 4 o'clock.

The Madison Square comedy company will be at Dohany's theater on Sunday evening. The bill will be "The Cheerful Liar," a farce comedy that is said to be one of the greatest mirth provokers on the stage. The box office will be open this morning for the sale of seats.

All members of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows lodge, both Encampment, subordinate and Rebekah, are requested to be present in the lodge room on Saturday evening, April 10. A flashlight photograph is to be taken of the lodge room and the members. A prompt attendance is requested for 8 o'clock.

Sheriff Tate of Fremont county was in the city yesterday with two prisoners, Will and Ed Williams, who are bound over to the grand jury on the charge of cattle stealing. The work of rebuilding the Fremont county jail, which was recently destroyed by fire, has been commenced and the necessity for bringing prisoners to this city for safe keeping will soon cease.

Abel Lincoln post, No. 29, Grand Army of the Republic, will have an open campfire at their hall this evening. All members and their ladies are cordially invited to be present. The program will consist of short speeches, music and singing. The invited guests are U. S. Army and Navy officers of Omaha and their ladies, U. V. L. of Council Bluffs and their ladies.

Louisa, wife of John Yancy, age 47, died at 8 South Sixth street at 11 a. m. of heart trouble. Deceased was married in 1859 and has been a resident of Council Bluffs for eleven years. She was a member of the Methodist Episcopal church and her funeral will be held at 10 o'clock on Monday at her late residence. Burial in the cemetery.

Abel Lincoln post, No. 29, Grand Army of the Republic, will have an open campfire at their hall this evening. All members and their