

HAS TROUBLES OF HIS OWN

George Ridenour Again Attracts Police Attention.

Alleged Shooting Was Done by an Old Enemy, but the Police Think He Did It Himself.

The tribulations of George Ridenour, who lives in a humble dwelling at 1023 North Twenty-first street, appear to have no end.

Early Sunday morning, some time between 4 o'clock and 4:30, a woman who lives in the house next door to Ridenour was awakened by some person pounding on the back door.

Other persons arrived upon the scene and Ridenour was taken into his home and the police telephoned out.

His Doubted Story.

MASTERS SERVICES AT FREMONT.

Churches Prepare and People Attend Some Elaborate Celebrations.

FREMONT, April 18.—(Special.)—The beautiful weather, the musical programs and impressive services brought out a large attendance at all the churches today.

The floral decorations were more elaborate than usual, and last evening flowers could not be procured at any place in town.

Centennial lodge, Independent Order of Odd Fellows attended as a special church in a body and the building was crowded long before the time for services.

The decorations of lilies and potted plants were very tastefully and artistically arranged.

Early Sunday morning, some time between 4 o'clock and 4:30, a woman who lives in the house next door to Ridenour was awakened by some person pounding on the back door.

Other persons arrived upon the scene and Ridenour was taken into his home and the police telephoned out.

His Doubted Story.

WAS A STRANGER.

In his pockets was found a watch and a pair of trousers.

The Madison creamery is to be started up again.

The new creamery at Burwell is now in operation.

Wayne is making an effort to secure a telephone system.

Three apples were shot near Niobrara during the past week.

The Review is the name of a new paper just started at Rogers.

Mills Brothers of Gordon sowed 1,000 acres of wheat this spring.

The St. Paul creamery has been refitted and is now in operation.

The Grouta creamery is now completed and ready for business.

It is said there is now 1,000,000 bushels of corn in the hands of the country.

The town of Burdick has all its debts paid and money in the treasury.

A new paper, called the Sun, has been started at Burwell.

Fred Oswald of Wood River has purchased 10,000 sheep which he proposes to feed.

People all over Nebraska are setting out more fruit trees this year than ever before.

The town of Healy is contemplating building a bridge across the Platte river.

The Fremont school board has decided to abolish the commercial course in the High school.

A good hotel is needed in O'Neill and a unit of it is being made by the business men to secure one.

A thief entered a Bradshaw house and stole a number of pounds of bacon and took the gasoline stove along with him.

The village board of DeWitt has paid Mrs. Hood $249.75 and saved a law suit.

Elk Creek was the only town in Johnson county that voted in favor of granting license for the sale of liquors during the coming year.

The late J. T. Hedrick will $200 to the trustees of the Tecumseh cemetery association, the income on which is to be perpetually devoted to keeping his lot in repair.

W. C. Lister, who started a farm in the thirty year ago, has sold his property for one year ago he has sold $1,130 worth of hogs, killed enough for meat for his family one year and has forty-one more left.

C. M. Miller of Tecumseh attempted to split wood the first of the week. The ax became entangled in the clothes line and in descending it struck the eye of the head, causing a severe scalp wound.

C. Leram of Plainview has in his possession a curious eye in the way of a calf, which has been blind since it was born.

John Williams, an inmate of the Fillmore county poor house, died at that institution Monday evening as a result of a fall down a stairway into the cellar, a distance of nine or ten feet. It was purely accidental and no blame attaches to anyone.

Yesterday County Attorney Butler of Holt county received $250 from Howard Miller of Battle Creek, Neb., to apply on the judgment obtained against the first term bondsmen of Barrett. The total amount was $2,900, leaving a balance of $3,800.

About 6 o'clock one evening recently some break entered the home of a fall down a stairway into the cellar, a distance of nine or ten feet. It was purely accidental and no blame attaches to anyone.

The Battle Creek Creamery company recently got in from the factory a lot of young razorback hogs. This is the largest lot of this peculiar breed of hogs ever brought to this locality at one time. They are supposed to be proof against cholera and other infectious diseases from which the common hog family suffers.

On Tuesday, Mrs. W. N. Wabash will sell round trip tickets to nearly all points south at very low rates. For tickets, timetables and further information call at Wash office, 145 Farnam street (Faxon Hotel block), or write.

Six-Thirty P. M. Train.

CHICAGO, MILWAUKEE & ST. LOUIS.

BEST SERVICE.

ELECTRIC LIGHTS.

Dining car.

City office, 104 Farnam.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS.

John Riber, Boston, is at the State.

Clint B. Slater of Denver is a Barker guest.

IMPROVEMENT IN MONETARY CONDITION.

Steady and Persistent.

RIFORM OF THE PAPER MONEY SYSTEM.

Henry Clews Suggests that There Should Be No Unnecessary Delay in Settling the Wheels of Reform in Motion.

NEW YORK, April 18.—Henry Clews, head of the banking house of Henry Clews & Co., has followed up his suggestion for the reform of the paper money system.

On the 17th of the interruption of the Good Friday holiday, the market was broken on the 18th.

The St. Paul creamery has been refitted and is now in operation.

The Grouta creamery is now completed and ready for business.

It is said there is now 1,000,000 bushels of corn in the hands of the country.

The town of Burdick has all its debts paid and money in the treasury.

A new paper, called the Sun, has been started at Burwell.

Fred Oswald of Wood River has purchased 10,000 sheep which he proposes to feed.

People all over Nebraska are setting out more fruit trees this year than ever before.

The town of Healy is contemplating building a bridge across the Platte river.

The Fremont school board has decided to abolish the commercial course in the High school.

A good hotel is needed in O'Neill and a unit of it is being made by the business men to secure one.

A thief entered a Bradshaw house and stole a number of pounds of bacon and took the gasoline stove along with him.

The village board of DeWitt has paid Mrs. Hood $249.75 and saved a law suit.

Elk Creek was the only town in Johnson county that voted in favor of granting license for the sale of liquors during the coming year.

The late J. T. Hedrick will $200 to the trustees of the Tecumseh cemetery association, the income on which is to be perpetually devoted to keeping his lot in repair.

W. C. Lister, who started a farm in the thirty year ago, has sold his property for one year ago he has sold $1,130 worth of hogs, killed enough for meat for his family one year and has forty-one more left.

C. M. Miller of Tecumseh attempted to split wood the first of the week. The ax became entangled in the clothes line and in descending it struck the eye of the head, causing a severe scalp wound.

C. Leram of Plainview has in his possession a curious eye in the way of a calf, which has been blind since it was born.

John Williams, an inmate of the Fillmore county poor house, died at that institution Monday evening as a result of a fall down a stairway into the cellar, a distance of nine or ten feet. It was purely accidental and no blame attaches to anyone.

Yesterday County Attorney Butler of Holt county received $250 from Howard Miller of Battle Creek, Neb., to apply on the judgment obtained against the first term bondsmen of Barrett. The total amount was $2,900, leaving a balance of $3,800.

About 6 o'clock one evening recently some break entered the home of a fall down a stairway into the cellar, a distance of nine or ten feet. It was purely accidental and no blame attaches to anyone.

The Battle Creek Creamery company recently got in from the factory a lot of young razorback hogs. This is the largest lot of this peculiar breed of hogs ever brought to this locality at one time. They are supposed to be proof against cholera and other infectious diseases from which the common hog family suffers.

On Tuesday, Mrs. W. N. Wabash will sell round trip tickets to nearly all points south at very low rates. For tickets, timetables and further information call at Wash office, 145 Farnam street (Faxon Hotel block), or write.

Six-Thirty P. M. Train.

CHICAGO, MILWAUKEE & ST. LOUIS.

BEST SERVICE.

ELECTRIC LIGHTS.

Dining car.

City office, 104 Farnam.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS.

John Riber, Boston, is at the State.

Clint B. Slater of Denver is a Barker guest.

RIGHTENED.

Particularly in Sugar Trust and in Chicago Gas.

Improvement in Monetary Condition Steady and Persistent.

RIFORM OF THE PAPER MONEY SYSTEM.

Henry Clews Suggests that There Should Be No Unnecessary Delay in Settling the Wheels of Reform in Motion.

NEW YORK, April 18.—Henry Clews, head of the banking house of Henry Clews & Co., has followed up his suggestion for the reform of the paper money system.

On the 17th of the interruption of the Good Friday holiday, the market was broken on the 18th.

The St. Paul creamery has been refitted and is now in operation.

The Grouta creamery is now completed and ready for business.

It is said there is now 1,000,000 bushels of corn in the hands of the country.

The town of Burdick has all its debts paid and money in the treasury.

A new paper, called the Sun, has been started at Burwell.

Fred Oswald of Wood River has purchased 10,000 sheep which he proposes to feed.

People all over Nebraska are setting out more fruit trees this year than ever before.

The town of Healy is contemplating building a bridge across the Platte river.

The Fremont school board has decided to abolish the commercial course in the High school.

A good hotel is needed in O'Neill and a unit of it is being made by the business men to secure one.

A thief entered a Bradshaw house and stole a number of pounds of bacon and took the gasoline stove along with him.

The village board of DeWitt has paid Mrs. Hood $249.75 and saved a law suit.

Elk Creek was the only town in Johnson county that voted in favor of granting license for the sale of liquors during the coming year.

The late J. T. Hedrick will $200 to the trustees of the Tecumseh cemetery association, the income on which is to be perpetually devoted to keeping his lot in repair.

W. C. Lister, who started a farm in the thirty year ago, has sold his property for one year ago he has sold $1,130 worth of hogs, killed enough for meat for his family one year and has forty-one more left.

C. M. Miller of Tecumseh attempted to split wood the first of the week. The ax became entangled in the clothes line and in descending it struck the eye of the head, causing a severe scalp wound.

C. Leram of Plainview has in his possession a curious eye in the way of a calf, which has been blind since it was born.

John Williams, an inmate of the Fillmore county poor house, died at that institution Monday evening as a result of a fall down a stairway into the cellar, a distance of nine or ten feet. It was purely accidental and no blame attaches to anyone.

Yesterday County Attorney Butler of Holt county received $250 from Howard Miller of Battle Creek, Neb., to apply on the judgment obtained against the first term bondsmen of Barrett. The total amount was $2,900, leaving a balance of $3,800.

About 6 o'clock one evening recently some break entered the home of a fall down a stairway into the cellar, a distance of nine or ten feet. It was purely accidental and no blame attaches to anyone.

The Battle Creek Creamery company recently got in from the factory a lot of young razorback hogs. This is the largest lot of this peculiar breed of hogs ever brought to this locality at one time. They are supposed to be proof against cholera and other infectious diseases from which the common hog family suffers.

On Tuesday, Mrs. W. N. Wabash will sell round trip tickets to nearly all points south at very low rates. For tickets, timetables and further information call at Wash office, 145 Farnam street (Faxon Hotel block), or write.

Six-Thirty P. M. Train.

CHICAGO, MILWAUKEE & ST. LOUIS.

BEST SERVICE.

ELECTRIC LIGHTS.

Dining car.

City office, 104 Farnam.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS.

John Riber, Boston, is at the State.

Clint B. Slater of Denver is a Barker guest.

CONDITION OF NEW YORK BANKS.

Increase in Cash About Equal to the Expansion of Loans.

NEW YORK, April 18.—The Financier says: According to the statement issued by the Associated Banks of New York City for the week ended April 17 the clearing house institutions gained $1,532,500 in cash and increased their deposits $2,942,000.

The depositors of the clearing house institutions gained $1,532,500 in cash and increased their deposits $2,942,000.

The depositors of the clearing house institutions gained $1,532,500 in cash and increased their deposits $2,942,000.

The depositors of the clearing house institutions gained $1,532,500 in cash and increased their deposits $2,942,000.

The depositors of the clearing house institutions gained $1,532,500 in cash and increased their deposits $2,942,000.

The depositors of the clearing house institutions gained $1,532,500 in cash and increased their deposits $2,942,000.

The depositors of the clearing house institutions gained $1,532,500 in cash and increased their deposits $2,942,000.

The depositors of the clearing house institutions gained $1,532,500 in cash and increased their deposits $2,942,000.

The depositors of the clearing house institutions gained $1,532,500 in cash and increased their deposits $2,942,000.

The depositors of the clearing house institutions gained $1,532,500 in cash and increased their deposits $2,942,000.

The depositors of the clearing house institutions gained $1,532,500 in cash and increased their deposits $2,942,000.

The depositors of the clearing house institutions gained $1,532,500 in cash and increased their deposits $2,942,000.

The depositors of the clearing house institutions gained $1,532,500 in cash and increased their deposits $2,942,000.

The depositors of the clearing house institutions gained $1,532,500 in cash and increased their deposits $2,942,000.

The depositors of the clearing house institutions gained $1,532,500 in cash and increased their deposits $2,942,000.

The depositors of the clearing house institutions gained $1,532,500 in cash and increased their deposits $2,942,000.

The depositors of the clearing house institutions gained $1,532,500 in cash and increased their deposits $2,942,000.

The depositors of the clearing house institutions gained $1,532,500 in cash and increased their deposits $2,942,000.

The depositors of the clearing house institutions gained $1,532,500 in cash and increased their deposits $2,942,000.

The depositors of the clearing house institutions gained $1,532,500 in cash and increased their deposits $2,942,000.

The depositors of the clearing house institutions gained $1,532,500 in cash and increased their deposits $2,942,000.

The depositors of the clearing house institutions gained $1,532,500 in cash and increased their deposits $2,942,000.

The depositors of the clearing house institutions gained $1,532,500 in cash and increased their deposits $2,942,000.

The depositors of the clearing house institutions gained $1,532,500 in cash and increased their deposits $2,942,000.

The depositors of the clearing house institutions gained $1,532,500 in cash and increased their deposits $2,942,000.

The depositors of the clearing house institutions gained $1,532,500 in cash and increased their deposits $2,942,000.

The depositors of the clearing house institutions gained $1,532,500 in cash and increased their deposits $2,942,000.

The depositors of the clearing house institutions gained $1,532,500 in cash and increased their deposits $2,942,000.

The depositors of the clearing house institutions gained $1,532,500 in cash and increased their deposits $2,942,000.

The depositors of the clearing house institutions gained $1,532,500 in cash and increased their deposits $2,942,000.

The depositors of the clearing house institutions gained $1,532,500 in cash and increased their deposits $2,942,000.

The depositors of the clearing house institutions gained $1,532,500 in cash and increased their deposits $2,942,000.

The depositors of the clearing house institutions gained $1,532,500 in cash and increased their deposits $2,942,000.

The depositors of the clearing house institutions gained $1,532,500 in cash and increased their deposits $2,942,000.

The depositors of the clearing house institutions gained $1,532,500 in cash and increased their deposits $2,942,000.

The depositors of the clearing house institutions gained $1,532,500 in cash and increased their deposits $2,942,000.

The depositors of the clearing house institutions gained $1,532,500 in cash and increased their deposits $2,942,000.

OMAHA LIVE STOCK MARKET.

Week Ends with a Light Run and Duller Business.

BUYERS INDIFFERENT AND BEARISH.