REVERSES RAINMAKERS THEORY.

Austrian Uses Dynamite to Drive Away Storms.

WASHINGTON, May 3.—Possibly it was from noticing the unsuccessful attempts made by the would-be rainmakers in the United States to bring down showers when wanted that an ingenious Austrian grape grower was induced to exactly reverse the American practice. An account of his experiment is given by United States Consul Stephan at Aunaberg, in a report to the State department. The Austrian owned extensive vineyards situated on the southern slopes of the mountains, in a locality often visited by destructive hailstorms. At first he tried galvanized wire, but this was too expensive, and he decided to install a battery and test the plan of causing explosions to drive off the hailstorms. He erected six stations on prominent mountain summits commanding a territory about two miles in extent. Each station sheltered ten mortars and a corps of volunteers handled them.

The practical test is thus described: Threatening black clouds made their appearance on the summits of the Bacher mountains. At a given signal all the mortars were fired off, and the continuous detonations in a few moments caused a sudden reaction in the movements of the clouds. The cloud wall opened up funnel-like; the mouth of the funnel began to rise in the form of consecutive rings, expanding gradually, until all the clouds scattered and entirely disappeared. No hail nor sudden downpour of rain fell. The same experience was gone through six times last summer, and has, without a single exception, proven a successful preventative.

Romeyn Court-Martial.

ATLANTA, Ga., May 3.—The Romeyn court-martial was concluded this afternoon at 3 o'clock. The findings of the court were forwarded to the War department. Captain Romeyn, the accused officer, spoke for forty-five minutes and reviewed the case. It is the general opinion here that the verdict of the court will either be an acquittal or light punishment.

WASHINGTON, May 3.—It was a sore band of rooters who left the ground after today's game. There were but 200 of them. The field was very wet and the cold weather threatened rain, which finally came, but not before Umpire Lynch had rightfully forfeited the game to New York. Mercer, who is considered weak in the wet, was pounded for seven runs in the second inning. When it became apparent that the Giants had a good lead the Senators endeavored to prolong the game so that the rain would become so heavy that five innings could not be finished. This was done in such a clumsy manner that Umpire Lynch declared the game forfeited to New York. The game was terminated with only two men out in the last inning. Attendance, 200. Score:

PITTSBURG, 7; LOUISVILLE, 4.

PITTSBURG, Pa., May 3.—The home team opened the season here today successfully in every respect. The usual parade before the game attracted great attention and took a large crowd to the grounds in its wake. The game was a pretty one throughout. Killen broke the season's record for striking men out, putting eight of his opponents to shame. The visitors got onto his style in the last two innings, however, and did some good bat work. Smith's home run hit set the fans wild and Smith wins a number of prizes for the first four-bagger on the home grounds. The cloudy and threatening weather kept the attendance down somewhat, but almost 6,500 went through the gates. Score:

Both teams fielded finely. Sockalexis found in Breitenstein a pitcher he could not hit. Tebeau on second, O'Connor on first and Blake in center appeared to be thoroughly at home. Attendance 4,500. BROOKLYN, 3; BALTIMORE, 3.

BROOKLYN, N. Y., May 3.—The regular season was opened in Brooklyn this afternoon. After the usual ceremonies the Baltimores took the field and for five innings could not make a hit off Payne. The score was tied at the end of the ninth, and two more were played without making it decisive. At the end of the eleventh the game was called on account of darkness. The Brooklyns had little difficulty in solving the speed of Corbett. The grounds were in a very bad condition and the game started in the rain. Attendance 8,500. Score:
