Greeks Finally Occupy Heights to the North, with Four Hundred Dead_Fighting to Be Resumed Today.

ARTA, May 14 .- 6 p. m .- Desperate fighting has been in progress all day near Griboro on the road to Philippiada. Two brigades of Greeks with many guns, two companies of sappers and a squadron of cavalry, attacked the Turks, who were almost without artillery. The Greeks forced the first Turkish line of defence, but met with a stubborn resistance at the second. In several places the bayonets were so close to the cannon that the former could not be used. Already 500 of the Greeks are hors de combat. The battle still continues as this dispatch is being sent.

9 p. m .- The fighting at Griboro has ceased and the Greeks have occupied various heights in the north. Twenty-five officers and 400 men are hors de combat. The battle will be resumed tomorrow.

Since 4 p. m. the gunboat flotilla has been attacking Nicopolis from inside the gulf of Ambracia, with a simultaneous attack proceeding from the land side. The Turkish batteries replied vigorously and firmly resisted the attack. The coming on of dark-ness stopped the engagement. All the Greek efforts are now concentrated upon captur-ing Nicopolis and Preuzu before advancing to Pentepighadia.

This calculation may prove to be correct, but it is more likely that Turkey will seize upon it as an excuse for lelaying the armistice and will deal a crushing blow in Thessaly."

PLANS OF THE TURKS. ATHENS, May 14.-Advices received today at the headquarters of the Greek army at Domokos announce that the Turkish forces are executing movements which are believed to foreshadow an attack upon the Greek positions. It is reported that the Turkish left wing has evacuated Almyros, and is moving towards Pharsalia to the right reat place, and it is further stated that General Smolenski, commanding the Greek right wing, has reoccupied Almyros and ha restored telegraphic communication with th Greek headquarters. Unless the rearward movement of the Turks is the result of action of the powers, it is believed to indicate that the Turkish commander-inchief, Edhem Pasha is again concentrating his troops, preparatory to making a general attack upon the main Greek stronghold.

ST. PETERSBURG, May 14.-Following MAY SEND A MESSAGE TO CONGRESS upon the intimation that Russia would not be opposed to the administration of Thessaly by Turkey it became known semi-officially this evening that the diplomats are greatly conerned at the news recently received from Bulgaria. During the past week much agitation against Turkey has been reported, both among the people of Bulgaria and in the Bulgarian army, and fears are expressed that the popular feeling thus aroused may force the bands of the government of Bulgaria.

LONDON, May 14.-The correspondent of the Standard at Constantinople says: Edhem Pasha has wired to the Porte that he is quite certain of being able to capture Domokes and the Greek army as well, and in response pressing orders have been sent to the Turkish staff to go ahead with the greatest energy, regardless of diplomacy.

Uruguay's Revolution Cheeked. WASHINGTON, May 14.-Recent mail advices from Uruguay received here state that the revolution has been checked after a bloody battle at Tres Arbales, in which a large number of the revolutionists were killed and their leaders driven to the frontier. At the same time the government has seen fit to allay public discontent by taking into the ministry several leaders who heretofore have been regarded as leaders in the seditious movement. The minister of war, General Diaz, gave way for this purpose to General Perez, who was acting as president of the committee officially denounced as seditious and revolutionary. This is accepted as the first step toward making terms with the revolutionists, although a strict censorship of the press prevents any construction being placed on the course of the government. The fighting has been bloody, the deaths reaching into the hundreds.

The chief ground for the state's appeal was that Mr McClure allowed a claim for $5,000,000 for parvices rendered by George Gould to his father to count as a debt agains the estate and to reduce its net value by that amount. The chief point on which the heirs based the appeal was that the securities which constituted the bulk of the estate were wrongly appraised. They assert that if the wrongly appraised. THE BEE VS ASSOCIATED PRESS IN A STRANGE LAND

In order that the public may have an accurate comprehension of the decision court in the case brought by The Bee to restrain the Associated Press from makit y tracts for news service with other newspapers in the territory covered by The exclusive contract without first arriving at satisfactory terms of reparation of its 📆 🗷 the following vital paragraphs of Judge Keysor's opinion are printed, together with stipulation filed by The Bee and the subsequently signed order of the court:

TEXT OF THE OPINION.

"Now, I am willing to say this, that whether or not there is mutuality in the not mutuality but a contract in this case between the World-Herald and The this time, I do not think that under the law of the state, as quoted in this state under the general law which should prevail in favor of private parties he equal standing before the great corporations of this country, that whether or World-Herald has a contract it ought to have a contract if it wants it. But I think that The Bee should be heard. I think that Mr. Rosewater or The Bee Publishing company have a right before that contract is entered into to appear before the Associated Press directory and be heard, make his objections and insist upon his terms, and state the reasons why certain terms should be given. I think that he has that right and I think that IT IS A DUTY THAT THE ASSOCIATED PRESS OWES TO HIM TO MAKE HIM SOME REPARATION FOR THE EXTRA MONEY HE HAS EX-PENDED AND NOT TO ALLOW THE WORLD-HERALD TO COME IN HERE NOW ON AN EQUAL FOOTING WITH HIM, when this Associated Press is in a better condition than it ever was before, come in on an equal footing, without giving him some recompense for the time and money expended and the risk he has taken. "It was said yesterday that the World-Herald lost $25,000 by losing its franchise when the United Press went down. Suppose the Associated Press went down, where would Mr. Rosewater's franchise have been? He would have been out more than $25,000, including the money he had expended for tolls and extra war funds.

"Now I am going to do this. I am going to let this restraining order stand here just as it is until after the meeting of these stockholders in Chicago, which will occur in a week or two, and let Mr. Rosewater go before that board of stockholders and present his claim there and let them make some arrangements. If they don't make some arrangements I will if this case is tried before me. But the Associated Press must give the World-Herald and the Lincoln Journal a franchise, give them a right to publish this news; put them on an equal business standing, so far as the Associated Press is concerned, and let them work out their own salvation here in local matters.

"Now it is said, how can Mr. Rosewater be recompensed? Who shall say what his damages have been? Well, in the first place a court of equity has got pretty liberal power in that regard, and in the second place an example has been set here for this court. When Mr. Resewater came into some association a few years ago it has been stated to me here that he had to pay nine or ten thousand dollars to get in and that he had to pay as much tells to these papers as the other two papers, the Omaha Herald and the Omaha Republican, were paying. Well, if this matter could have been settled then on a just basis for the Herald and the Republican there is no reason why it cannot be settled on a just basis for The Bee, and I do not see any reason why a court of equity cannot get at It, and if a board of equity cannot get at it a court of equity can get within five or ten thousand dollars of it, and what is five or ten thousand dollars to the Associated Press when it has an income, I am told, which is one thousand dollars a day over and above its expenses. It is better to make a mistake against this Associated Press of $25,000 than to hamper and destroy the papers of this city and Lincoln, papers that have been built up at an enormous cost."

STIPULATION AND WAIVER.

In the District Court for Douglas County, Nebraska.-The Bee Publishing Company, plaintiff, vs. The Associated Press, defendant. STIPULATION.

The plaintiff hereby, in open court, waives any right it may have to object to the giving of the News Report service now given the Lincoln Journal and the World-Herald by the Associated Press until after the differences in question between the plaintiff and the said defendant are voluntarily settled and adjudicated by the defendant, the Associated Press, at or under its meeting of May 20, 1897, or, in default thereof, until the further order of the court. Plaintiff consents to the court affirmatively directing the giving of said news report to said papers temporarily until such settlement and adjustment or further hearing.

order of the court. The Bee Publishing Company vs. the Associated Press, the World Publishing Company. the State Journal Association. ORDER.

This cause coming on for hearing upon the application of the plaintiff for a temporary injunction to restrain the defendant, the Associated Press, from entering into a contract with either of said defendants, the World Publishing company or the Nebraska State Journal association, to supply said last named companies with the news reports of the Associated Press; and having heard the testimony adduced in support of said application and the argument of counsel, the court, for the purpose of ruling on said application, and for the purpose of protecting intervenors until the execution of the contract claimed by them with the defendant, the court finds:

That under the contract with the said plaintiff and the said Associated Press and the by-laws constituting a part of said contract, the said Associated Press was thorized and empowered to furnish under contract with said defendants, the World Publishing company and the Nebraska State Journal association, its news report, with-out the consent of the plaintiff, the Bee Publishing company, and that, independent of said by laws and contract, the said Associated Press would be compelled, under the statutes of Nebraska, and the law of the land, to furnish its said report to the said World Publishing company and Nebraska State Journal association without discrimina

The court further finds that by resolution of the stockholders of the said Associated Press it was the policy of said Associated Press before acting under the power conferred in its by-laws, to furnish opportunity to its local boards to protest against the admission of new members, or members of rival associations, which said opportunity was not afforded to the plaintiff in this cause prior to the bringing of this action. Wherefore, it is ordered that the Associated Press and the World Publishing com-pany and also the State Journal association be restrained from entering into any specific contract until The Bee Publishing company shall have had notice of the legally directors' meeting and the said Bee Publishing company shall have had opportunity to heard by said board. That pending such hearing or opportunity for hearing, and until further order of court the said Associated Press be and is required to furnish its news report to the World Publishing company and the Nebraska State Journal association without discrimination as to any parties hereto.

That after due notice to 'The Bee Publishing company and an opportunity to it to be heard at a directors' or stockholders' meeting to make any protest or other request it may desire said Associated Press may reduce its contract to writing and fully execute the same with the said World Publishing company and the said Nebraska State Journal association and take any other steps necessary to completely carry out such contract THIS ORDER SHALL NOT PREJUDICE THE RIGHTS OF PLAINTIFF OR DE-

Frank Wardian of Omaha Finally Discovered in Kalamazoo.

IN A TERRIBLE PLIGHT WHEN FOUND

Has a Gash on Top of Head and is Covered with Blood.

WANTS TO DROWN HIMSELF IN THE RIVER

Has Been Missing from His Home for About Two Weeks.

LOBORING UNDER MENTAL ABERRATION

His Condition Probably Brought On by Financial Troubles_Mrs. Wardian Goes to Michigan to Take Charge of Her Husband.

KALAMAZOO, Mich., May 14.-(Special relogram.)-A large man arrived here tolay on the Chicago train and said he wanted to drown himself in the river. He had a terrible gash on the top of his head, and was covered with blood. He said he had been assaulted in Chicago and that he was F. Warden, or Wardian, of Omaha. His siser's name was found in his pocket and she was wired. Another brother telegraphed to have the man cared for till they could send for him. He had $58 in his pocket and a ticket reading from St. Louis to Kalamazoo, His wound was sewed up.

Frank Wardian is a butcher who has been n business at 1201 South Sixth street. His esidence has been at 612 Pierce street. Two residence has been at the Pierce street. Two weeks his ago his wife appeared at the police station with a report that he had mysteriously disappeared. The police made some efforts to locate him, but were unsuccessful n their attempts to obtain clues to his vhereabouts.

The wife heard nothing from her missing husband until some three days ago, when she received a telegram from him from Chicago. He asked whether he could come home. The wife replied in the affirmative and in answer received a telegram that he would be home in a day or so. She presumed that he had started at once on his return journey to this city.

Wardian is said to have had some financial troubles and told his wife upon the day he disappeared that he was going to Council Bluffs on business. As he failed to return that night his wife thought he had gone to St. Louis, as he has relatives living there. A brother who lives in Council Bluffs told Mrs. Wardian that her husband had called at his place of business upon the day in question, but that he had neither seen nor heard anything of him since. Mrs. Wardian is at a loss to account for her husband's suicidal mania except that his mind may have been temporarily deranged by his business troubles. Mrs. Wardian will probably leave today for Kalamazoo in order to take charge of her husband.

PHILADELPHIA IN GALA ATTIRE.

Everything in Readiness for Unveiling of Washington Monument. PHILADELPHIA, May 14.—All the details for the ceremony of unveiling the Washington monument in Fairmount park temerrow are practically complete. Notwithstanding almost continuous rain for the past week the exterior of many business houses and dwellings has been prettily decorated with flags and bunting and the city has already ssumed a gala holiday appearance. 'ennsylvania national guardsmen began to arrive this morning from different sections of the state and continued to come in broughout the day. From its magnitude the parade promises to present a grand military pageant. President McKinley, Vice-President Hobart and the members of the cabinet, with the exception of Secretaries Sherman and Long, ar-rived here this afternoon. Representative Bailey of Texas and Secretary Porter accompanied them. The president was excerted to the Hotel Walton and the vice-president to the Lafayette. Both of them retired to their rooms for a short .est. The president was afterwards waited upon by a committee from the University of Pennsylvania and a committee from the Manufacturers' club.

Tonight a banquet was given at the Union eague in honor of the president, vice-presilent and cabinet officers. About fifty persons at down. The address of welcome was made by Stuart Patterson, president of the Union League, after which he proposed three cheers, which were heartly given.

President McKinley made a short reply, during which he said: "I thank you very much for this great bonor and the warmth of the reception from the representatives of the Union League. I realize and appreciate what has been said with so much eloquence by your president of the great men and great nemories that have been honored by this organization. I thank you, gentlemen for your extreme courtesy. Nothing has been more gracious to me than this great weicome to Philadelphia, and it will ever remain. with me as a previous memory." Besides the president and vice-president the members of the cabinet present were Secretary Gage, Secretary Alger, Secretary Bliss, Postmaster General Gary, Secretary of Agriculture Wilson, Attorney General Mc-

Following the banquet there was a reception, during which several hundred members of the league and many invited guests met the president and his party. This was brought to a clear at 10:30 o'clock and at 11 o'clock the president retired for the night. In spite of a heavy rainfall the city maintained a holiday appearance all evening.
