

ANNUAL DIOCESAN COUNCIL

Nebraska Clergy and Lay Delegates in Attendance.

BISHOP WORTHINGTON'S ANNUAL REPORT

Pope's Encyclical on Anglican Orders is Given Lengthy Consideration—Nearly Five Hundred Confirmations in the Year.

The thirtieth annual council of the Episcopal church for the diocese of Nebraska convened in Trinity cathedral yesterday for a session of two days.

Preliminary services to the opening of the session were held in the cathedral at 11 o'clock by the celebration of the holy communion.

The bishop devoted a portion of the report to the memory of the late Dean Gardner, speaking particularly of the place the dean had occupied in the religious life of the diocese.

According to the reports the number of confirmations during the past year has been 483 and the number of the clergy at present in the diocese is thirty-three.

At the conclusion of the services the delegates gathered in the council chamber of the cathedral and Bishop Worthington called the council to order.

By a resolution of Rev. John Williams of St. Barnabas church, 7 o'clock this morning was appointed a time for holding services in the cathedral.

After the transaction of this business the delegates partook of a luncheon in the parish house, which was served by the women of All Saints, Good Shepherd and St. Philip's churches.

The following committees were appointed: Committee on legislation, Rev. John Williams, Canon Doherty, Rev. T. J. Mackay, J. M. Woolworth, H. W. Yates and Dr. S. R. Patten.

Committee on privileges, Canon Doherty, Rev. R. C. Sherbondy and St. Philip's church, Dr. Parnam; committee on church extension, Rev. J. P. D. Lloyd and Rev. Irving P. Johnson of South Omaha.

St. Luke's parish of Lincoln was received into communion with the diocese council. A number of minor amendments to the constitution were suggested and adopted.

The present method of assessing the contributions of the various parishes next called up for a lengthy discussion.

Heretofore every member has been assessed $1. to go into the general fund for the payment of the bishop's salary and the ongoing expenses of the diocese.

The amount to be levied hereafter be graduated according to the value of the parishes. A decision on the subject will be given by the legislative committee today.

The assessment of St. Philip's parish, which amounts to $20, was cut down to $5; that of St. John's from $100 to $10.

The Associated Missions and Cathedral missions served lunch in the parish house Tuesday to the visiting clergy and delegates.

The session last night was devoted to general discussion and missionary work. Rev. W. L. Langford of New York, general secretary of the Board of Missions, spoke upon the work of the organization during the past year.

Subject of the missions will be brought up today at 10 o'clock, Sunday schools at 11 o'clock, and a general meeting will be devoted to discussion of the finances of the church.

The following are the clergymen present at the council: George E. Baxter, Falls City; H. B. Burgess, Plattsmouth; W. Eason, Nebraska City; J. C. Gardner, Tecumseh; T. Goodale, Columbus; G. B. Hewitson, Norfolk; J. P. Johnson, South Omaha; A. E. Marsh, Central City; P. McKim, DeWitt; Francis Moore, Neligh; Ed Murphy, Nebraska; A. G. Mueson, Ashland; D. C. Patten, Schuyler; R. C. Talbot, Blair; R. C. Talbot, Jr., Cedar Rapids; R. M. Turner, Lincoln; F. W. Wood, Lincoln; Dr. Doherty, J. P. Johnson, St. Mary's; W. J. White, Plattsmouth; Charles J. Phelps, Schuyler; William Collins, Wahoo; J. B. Mayland, Norfolk; Henry E. Kryger, Neligh; P. H. Updike, Harvard; S. J. G. Irwin, Clayton.

The Omaha delegates in attendance are: H. W. Yates, George Dandy, E. Wakeley, Trinity cathedral; H. Wheeler, St. Clemente, All Saints' church; B. A. McAllister, A. C. Powell, S. R. Patten, Church of the Good Shepherd; James Van Nastrand, Theodore L. Ringwald, Joseph H. Daley, St. Barnabas church; G. H. Lavidge, St. Andrews; George J. Stoney, St. John's; Joseph White, St. Matthew; P. Eastman, St. Paul's; F. L. Smith, St. Philip's.

With the opening of the new twenty-third street entrance to New York by the Pennsylvania lines, passengers over this route may now enter the city at three different points: Cortland street, West Broadway street and Twenty-third street.

All are in the heart of New York, convenient to business blocks and hotels. Service is prompt and regular every day. Ask H. B. Derling, assistant general passenger agent, No. 248 South Clark street, Chicago, Ill., about them.

CHANGES AT THE CITY HALL

Administration Comfortably in the Saddle Ready for Business.

NEW CITY OFFICIALS BEGIN THEIR WORK

Transfer in the Appointive Offices is Made Without Even Interfering with Routine Daily Business.

With a few exceptions the city officials who were appointed Tuesday night assumed charge of their respective offices yesterday.

The transfer was without incident and was apparently attended by the best of feeling. The accounts of the various offices were checked up by the comptroller and found correct and accurate.

Mayor Moore was in his office early in the morning and the bulk of the forenoon was occupied in conference with the new heads of the city departments.

Chief Engineer Rosewater stated yesterday that no immediate change would occur in the force in the engineering department.

The reorganization of the force would not take effect until he had an opportunity to investigate the demands of the department and the amount of funds available.

Some changes would probably be made at a later date, but his character had not been determined.

Building Inspector Butler took charge of the department yesterday and his first official act was to issue permits for two handsome residences.

It is understood that Charles Hart will be retained as clerk and inspector of contingents until he has an assistant inspector as soon as the ordinance creating the position is approved.

HAITE FINDS EMPLOYMENT. Ex-Building Inspector Haite returns to his former occupation yesterday and began operations yesterday on plans for a large residence on South Eighteenth street.

Ed Spalding succeeded Dr. Hythian as commissioner of the city streets, formally being the usual exchange of courtesies between the incoming and outgoing commissioners.

Dr. Towne will continue as inspector of contingents until he has an assistant inspector as soon as the ordinance creating the position is approved.

City Attorney Connell, City Electrician Seaburg and Boiler Inspector Unit succeeded themselves without ceremony.

The bond of Edgar E. Scott, city attorney, has not been presented to the council, and in the meantime Lee S. Estelle continues to act as attorney.

Ex-Plumbing Inspector Lichtenberger will also continue to act as inspector until Inspector Clausen submits his official bond.

The general expression in regard to the mayor's appointment is exceptionally favorable. While there is the usual unavoidable disappointment on the part of those who could not be provided for, it is generally conceded that the appointees are calculated to give additional strength to the administration.

The old soldiers were particularly favored and the course of the mayor in that respect is generally endorsed on account of the effective work of the veterans during the campaign.

The veterans get inspector of buildings, health commissioner and city prosecutor, and have the honor of additional remembrances when the other offices are distributed June 1.

FIRE AND POLICE COMMISSIONERS INDEFINITELY POSTPONE ACTION

The Board of Fire and Police Commissioners at its meeting last night indefinitely postponed action on the appointment of a new chief of police.

It was stated that the members of the board have decided not to settle this matter until the fire and police board proceedings are completed.

The board proceeded to consider the report of the supreme court of the state as disposed of.

E. H. Hemming was appointed chief of detectives to succeed James Connelley.

The appointment was made by a bare majority—three votes. Another appointment to the police force was that of James Connell, this being made subject to his passing the physical examination.

An invitation to attend the celebration of the 10th anniversary of the date on which Poland gained her independence was made at Twenty-sixth and Walnut streets on next Saturday night.

E. M. Mosier was accepted for the job of building a new buggy for the chief of the fire department for $155.

Homer J. Porter was granted permission to remove his office and residence to the new building at 1517 Douglas to 4944 North Twenty-sixth street.

BOARD OF PUBLIC WORKS MEETING

New Organization Holds its First Organizational Conference. The first meeting of the new Board of Public Works, which consists of City Engineer Rosewater, Comptroller Westberg and Building Inspector Butler, was held yesterday afternoon.

PUBLIC SCHOOLS ART EXHIBIT

Samples of Work Both New and Very Meritorious.

The exhibit of the department of drawing in the local schools was opened in the assembly room on the fifth floor of the city hall yesterday afternoon.

This is the same exhibit which was prepared for exhibition at the American meeting of the Western Drawing Association, and while many of the subjects have been seen at previous exhibitions, the work is all new.

The exhibit is in charge of Miss Alice Hite, supervisor of drawing, and will be open to the public during the remainder of the week.

The work of the pupils shows material improvement since the previous exhibition and surprising indications of talent that has been developed in the schools.

Much of the work shows no little natural adaptation, and as with a few exceptions none of the subjects had any construction outside of what they obtained in the public schools, the showing is regarded as highly creditable.

The high school pupils have a large and varied collection of work, including a number of pieces of exceptional excellence. Among them are a sketch of Venus and a drawing of a landscape in water colors by Nellie McMillin, Jeanette Miller, and a very creditable scene from life, and a pen and ink sketch of a head which shows wonderful talent.

Represented by a number of good pencil and pen and ink sketches, among which a sketch of General Grant with the white horse and a drawing of a landscape in water colors by Florence Lewis.

The work of the eighth grade also includes some very creditable pieces. One of the most striking specimens is a copy in pencil of a picture of a little girl with a cat in her arms by Beese Taylor of the Walnut Hill school.

The Lincoln school has a particularly good exhibit in this grade. Some of the work is in pencil, some in ink and some in pen and ink. Among them are a drawing of a landscape by Kate Hanting, an original illustration of "Jack and Jill" in pencil by Florence Lewis, and a pen and ink drawing illustrating a scene from "Old Curiosity Shop" by W. B. Duncan.

The Long school shows the best vegetable garden in the city, and a drawing of a landscape in ink and pen. Among them are a drawing of a landscape in ink and pen by R. B. Carter, and a drawing of a landscape in ink and pen by L. O. Lohrop.

In the seventh grade an original illustration of a picture of a little girl with a cat in her arms by Beese Taylor of the Walnut Hill school is especially creditable.

Windsor has the strongest pen and ink work in the sixth grade, and Hancock, Compton and Lincoln also show some very good work.

Franklin shows some superior figure sketching. The model work from Omaha View and some very creditable imitative work and several sketches from Mass are the best features of the fifth grade exhibit.

The second grade exhibits a number of the object work and drawing of figures of the fourth grade and Forest has some excellent objects in the third grade.

The work of the second grade is largely of a picture of a little girl with a cat in her arms, mounted on colors, in which Webster and Castell have especially meritorious exhibits.

AMUSEMENTS

Few American actresses are more highly esteemed by the play-going public of this city than Miss Georgia Cavan, who has been here long and has a large following.

She is the only actress who has been of the New York Madison Square and Lyceum companies, and who has been accredited with so much of the most effective contributions to the many successes of these two famous organizations.

She is a native of this city, and it is to be anticipated that now that she returns after a considerable absence from the stage, she will be more warmly welcomed than ever.

Miss Cavan's engagement, which will continue on Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, has attracted a great deal of attention, and promises, judging from the frequent inquiries concerning the opening of the new season, to be an interesting engagement.

Among the dramatic companies that have appeared in Omaha are the people's favorite during the past season, the Paige board proceeding to the city to entertain.

Their return to Boyd's for eight nights, commencing on Tuesday, has been a great success, and will be a welcome event to their admirers.

Since last seen here new faces have been added to the company, and the vaudeville department has been strengthened by the addition of the Miller Sisters and John T. Powers.

The former, direct from the Hopkins circuit, will join them here, and Mr. Powers comes from the Grand Opera House, Chicago, and new plays have been added to their repertory, and moving pictures will be projected at each performance.

Bicycle Suits, Etc.

Good bicycle pants for a dollar, good bicycle shoes for $2.50, good bicycle caps for 35 cents and good bicycle suits for $2.50, $3.00, $3.50—these are the inducements we offer to bicycle riders to get their "fixings" at The Nebraska.

If every man who rides a wheel knew how much we are doing to make his outfit less expensive we would have to give extra room to this department.

Today in our extreme south window (14th street) we are showing samples for the benefit of people who are too bashful to go up stairs and look at them and the prices are the most eloquent argument we can use.

When folks see the handsome Scotch plaid suits marked $3.00 they ask if they are as good as they look and when assured that they are not only as good but better it doesn't take long for them to find the way to where we keep their size.

The time to buy a bicycle suit is now; the place is here.
