Bressler on the Question of the Ogden Gateway Remaining Closed.

The statement of Government Director Bressler to the effect that the Union Pacific was experiencing a great deal of trouble in patching up a traffic agreement with tho Oregon Short Line caused no surprise among ratiroad men here this morning. As has been frequently stated by The Beo within the past fortnight, the Union Pacific officials have been utterly unable, up to date, to prevail upon the Short Line officials to keep the Ogden gateway to the northwest the ritery closed to all other railroads except the "Overland Route." General Manager Dickinson and a number of other officials are expected home on Monday morning from New York City, where the last unsuccessful meeting are reporting the proceedings to the various lodges, which appear to be well satisfied with the results of the section. The grand lodge board of control, the new conference has just been held. It is thought that another conference will be called within
