

LAIRD, SCHOBERS' WINDUP

The Great Sho-Belling, Bargain-Giving Sale Continues to Draw.

BUT THE BEGINNING OF THE END IS IN SIGHT

Thousands and Thousands of Pairs Have Gone and There Are Thousands Yet to Go This, the Last Week of the Sale.

Contrary to all predictions of shoe men, this great sale has drawn immense crowds every day for two weeks and there seems to be no let up. People would not have continued to come and again if it had been an ordinary sale, but everybody knows that we only took this store because we had to sell every dealer known, every manufacturer known, and everybody else within 500 miles of Omaha knows now that we do not intend to stay in the business any longer than it will take for the people to carry away the shoes. They'll all be gone this week.

We start the half a-roll for Monday by giving you the choice of any lady's shoe in the house that came from our Philadelphia factory for $2.50. All dealers know that we don't make a shoe with less than $2.50 worth of work and material in it—never make a shoe in our lives that sold at retail for less than 25. Here are black and tan for $2.50 that sell the world over for $5, $6 and $7.99. No pair $2.50, will close them all out Monday.

We used to sell the finest miss' shoe in the house for $3.00. Now it's $1.48. Our own make.

We've always been headquarters for men's $2.00 shoes; now they're 98c.

Tomorrow we make a new table—20 feet long and 4 feet wide on which we put all the odds and ends of misses' and children's shoes and oxfords, to go at the one price—48c—regardless of what they have been. This is the last of our goods because at this price they are as good as sold already.

ANY MAN'S SHOE $2.50.

To make quick work of the men's fine shoes we will give you the choice of any of them for $2.50—patent leathers, cordovans, violet kids, tans and all at $2.50. Shoes among them that usually sell for $5, $6 and $7, all at one grand closing price, $2.50 a pair.

No shoe in the house now for more than $2.50.

And there are others for less.

Any shoe in the house that we used to sell for less than $5 is now either 48c, 98c or $1.50.

First come best served, for we are now positively nearing the wind up.

The door will open at 8:30 promptly Monday morning and close just as promptly at 6 in the evening.

KEPT THE WATCH FOR HIS FRIEND.

Charges of Larceny Will Not Be Prosecuted.

C. A. Ladeley and W. O'Connor, who were arrested on the charge of robbing Harry P. Morrell, a jockey of Stillwater, Mich., will not be prosecuted on the charge. They were arraigned in police court yesterday and released on their own recognizance to appear in court again Monday.

This was taken after an investigation by the county attorney, Morrell alleged that he was robbed by Ladeley and O'Connor, and that the three, together with Harry Brandies and one Harry Boyle, were shaking dice. In the course of the game Morrell lost all his money, $400. The gold watch, which he missed, was found in Boyle's possession. When arrested Ladeley readily admitted that he had the watch and said that Boyle had kept it for Morrell, with whom he had become acquainted.

It was on the strength of these statements that warrants were issued Friday afternoon for the arrest of Brandies and Boyle on the charge of gambling. Brandies was arrested yesterday, but Boyle cannot be found.

Death of John H. Flinnigan.

John H. Flinnigan, for a number of years in the employ of the Chicago & Northwestern railroad and located in this city, died at the Arcade hotel Friday night, after an illness of several months duration. The deceased leaves a wife and one child, a daughter. During the past two years his illness was such that he was compelled to give up his work in the local freight offices of the road. He traveled extensively, hoping that a change of climate and scenery might bring relief, but in this he was disappointed. Several months ago he returned and gradually grew worse until death ended his sufferings.

More Counterfeit Dollars.

Two men, who have given the names of George McKnight and Andrew Brownman, were arrested a few miles east of Council Bluffs yesterday with twenty-one counterfeit silver dollars in their possession. The men said that they came from Omaha. The local federal authorities have gone after them. It is thought highly probable that the counterfeiters had their possession of the money from the same mint in which the slightly bogus pieces recovered several weeks ago in this city were made. All efforts on the part of the United States officers to locate the mint have so far failed utterly.

UNLOADING THE CONTINENTAL

Many Men and Many Boys Helped to Do the Unloading Yesterday.

UNLOADING SUITS FOR COST OF MAKING

The Very Finest Suits in the Store Being Closed Out at Prices Barely Able to Pay for Their Manufacture.

All day long the Continental had the people coming, sometimes in such droves that it was impossible to wait upon all who came. Those who waited, however, felt themselves well repaid in the bargain they secured in clothing.

It is a very unusual thing for a house to get "waxed" thus early in the season, but there have been few seasons like it since the years have been rolling around. Always before this, merchants are beginning to order again to sort up their depleted spring stocks, or even in the most backward season half the stock at least is gone by this time, leaving sixty days to close out the balance. But this year it is different, decidedly different. The Continental find themselves stocked to overflowing with suits that should have been sold thirty days ago, all owing to the seeming determination of old winter to hold on all summer.

The unloading sale, which began yesterday at the Continental and will continue all this week, is an event of great importance. The suits were sold yesterday and will be again this week, the price paid for which will not be more than the cost of the suit. No such price making was ever witnessed in this city before.

The fine suits for men, which sold for $8, seemed to have the call, while the ready suits for boys at 55c were a close second. Boys' long suit suits at $4.75 were readily recognized as the suits that have been so long at double the price.

There will be plenty of salesmen Monday, so that all who come will be accommodated at the Continental's real unloading sale.

Gospel Wagon Crew to Leave Omaha Tomorrow.

Five young men—Wilbur Anderson, A. E. Stearns, Charles Walsh, F. H. Chamberlain and A. D. Weil, all members of the Moody institute of Chicago—will leave Omaha tomorrow morning. They will go to the Black Hills, S. D., where in Deadwood and the surrounding mining camps they will wage war against Satan and sin. These young men are members of a "Gospel Wagon," a religious organization that is new in this section of the country. The plan of work is to move from town to town, holding meetings in the streets, in vacant houses, and such other places as the country through which they travel.

The young men who compose the "Gospel Wagon" band arrived in the city some days ago, coming direct from the Moody institute. At once commenced the work of outfitting for the campaign in the Black Hills. Here they purchased a wagon costing some $200, besides other equipment for the trip. The outfit they will ship to Chadron by rail, where they will take possession of a fine pair of black horses donated by J. W. Good. The prominent clerk of the Union Pacific, Chadron, the young men will journey by wagon, doing evangelistic work en route, preaching, singing and distributing literature that is designed to take the place of the cheap story books that are sold at book stores.

The musical features of the "Gospel Wagon" include organ and soloist, in the person of Wilbur Anderson, who sang with Moody during the time that he held meetings at the World's fair. There is also a quartet, composed of the other members of the party.

Two More Suspects Arrested.

Frank Knapp and George F. Stone, a couple of tramps who are thought to be implicated in the attack upon the station house of the Union Pacific company which took place at South Bend last Wednesday night, were brought to this city yesterday. They were in charge of Detectives Vizzard and Miller of the police department. The men manifested willingness to be brought to this city for the purpose of identifying the men of the party who are under arrest here. The five men who are locked up at the police station on the charge of robbing the station house of the Union Pacific company on the night of the attack, were shown to the South Bend parties last evening, but they failed to identify any of them. The police officers, however, stated that the men who are now under arrest are the persons wanted. They are members of the South Thirteenth street gang.

Possessed Much Jewelry.

John Riley, a well known city thief who has been in the police toils many times, was arrested yesterday afternoon, and when searched at the station considerable valuable jewelry was found upon him. A gold watch and chain were first brought to light, and this was followed by a Masonic charm which bore the inscription of "Archie" upon one side of it. Riley was arrested yesterday, while attempting to dispose of the jewelry at a pawnshop.

Close of the Drawing Exhibit.

The exhibit of the Department of Drawing of the public schools, which has been in progress in the city hall since Wednesday, closed yesterday. There has been quite a large attendance of visitors. The regulations including the drawing, the exhibition, were accompanied by their parents or guardians prevented the crowd from becoming a nuisance, as it was a year ago. The pictures are being taken by the school by which they were contributed. Some of them will form a part of the exhibit at the State fair and others will be held over for the exposition.

CATCH ONE OF THE HIGHWAYMEN

Wileox Identifies McVeey as the Man Who Headed the Gang.

Yesterday afternoon the police captured one of the highwaymen who were wanted for holding up and shooting Dr. W. P. Wileox. The prisoner proved to be a well known character to the police and is none other than "Willie" McVeey, who was released in Council Bluffs a few days ago. McVeey and a companion, who gave the name of George Bradshaw, were caught mopping down under the sixteenth street viaduct yesterday afternoon by Officers Meala and Ranney.

About the time the officers sighted the toms they unexpectedly broke and breaking away in opposite directions gave the officers a merry chase. Meala took after McVeey and at length brought him to a standstill, fired from his revolver. The bullet did not hit McVeey, but he deemed it good policy to give up before the officer had a chance to fire a second shot. Bradshaw was also captured a few minutes later and the two were locked up at the station.

Dr. Wileox readily identified McVeey as the man who wielded the revolver upon the night of the holdup, and as the person who shot him. He was not absolutely certain as regards the identity of Bradshaw, as he did not get a good view of his face in the darkness.

McVeey was charged with burglary on an old information held against him by the police for the robbery of Rev. J. M. Wilson's house. McVeey is the man who was discharged in Council Bluffs, due to the blundering of Chief of Detectives Cox.

The police are highly elated at the capture, as they have a double charge against McVeey and feel that they will be able to make other one of the gang, which will insure McVeey a long term of years in the penitentiary.

Last evening S. Broadley, a pawnbroker at 1211 Douglas street, called at the station and positively identified McVeey as the person who called at his store upon the night of the holdup and asked for some more pin fire cartridges. He was told there were none of this kind in stock and thereupon left the store. Broadley will be used by the police as a witness against McVeey.
