Burglars entered the First Presbyterian church on Sunday night in the expectation of finding the contribution box still well filled. Entrance was effected by cutting down a section of glass near one of the side doors. The pastor's study was ransacked, his desk broken open, and every place about the church where it was thought that money of value would be found was closely inspected. The contribution boxes were thrown out into the middle of the church. Nothing was taken except a few postage stamps from the pastor's desk. The burglary was not discovered until yesterday when the sexton opened the church to clean it.

BUY CIGARS OF A CIGAR HOUSE

The Usual Order Reversed.

Old fashioned tobacco "don't go" with us. People's tastes are becoming more educated and nothing but high grade stock in cigars nowadays can be sold to hold patronage.

It used to be considered profitable to get 10 cents for a cigar of 5 CENT QUALITY. Of course that was stupid. We consider it more profitable to sell a cigar of 10-CENT QUALITY for 5 CENTS—which is "the usual order reversed."

We wanted to boom our business, so had a cigar made to our order, being an all HAVANA filler, with SUMATRA wrapper, and named it the "CORNER," to identify it with our place of business, and we can say without hesitancy that it is a cigar of 10-CENT QUALITY for 5 CENTS.

Little Child Leads Them

Chief Ganning and His Assistants on a Goose Chase.

Wonderful Yarn of a Precocious Girl.

She Spins a Lustrous Story and Excites Much Sympathy, but at Last Admits She Was Simply Lying.

A vast amount of sympathy was wanted in police circles yesterday of a dramatic and interesting story which was being told by a little girl, aged 10 years, who was found wandering around the railway depots in the southern part of the city anxiously inquiring for a train that would take her to her home in North Dakota. The child was taken to the station and confided to the care of Chief Ganning. She gave the name of Frances Green, and told a long and well connected story of how she and her brother, two years older, had been sent down here from Canada, where they lived, by their father, to visit an uncle who lived five miles from Council Bluffs. On reaching here they found the uncle had moved away, so they visited with a family named Sweeney. They had round trip tickets and enough money to pay their expenses. On Saturday, just after dinner, the boy disappeared, taking the money and ticket with him, and yesterday the Sweeneys brought the little girl part way to town and left her to make the best of her situation. Chief Ganning took the child to the home of the Sweeneys, but couldn't locate the Sweeney's father in North Dakota and failed.

In the afternoon a systematic investigation showed the child had run away from the Christian home during the forenoon, and that her wonderful story was a pure fabrication. At the home the history of the girl and boy was obtained. The father of the children was P. G. Knollie, once of Kansas City. Three years ago his wife and son, at his request one of the ministers of Kansas City arranged for placing the children in the Christian home, and they were legally adopted by Manager Lemen. Three weeks later a clipping from a Kansas City paper was sent to Lemen, announcing that Knollie had committed suicide. Shortly after Manager Lemen found a home for the boy and Mr. and Mrs. N. M. Wright of Cayuga, N. D., became their parents by adoption. The Wrights were highly recommended as exemplary citizens and Christians. For more than two years the children found a happy home, and their regular letters to Manager Lemen and Matron Dakota indicated that they were developing and improving in every way. No trouble was heard of until two weeks ago, when Manager Lemen received a telegram from P. G. Knollie, of Cayuga, telling him that the children had left their home and were at his house and asking what disposition should be made of them. Matron Dakota was called to Cayuga, and the whole community wrought up to a high pitch of excitement by the stories of fearful cruelty and abuse which the children had told. Mrs. Dakin visited the Wrights to investigate, and when she called upon them to get the children to her home, she was told that the children had refused to give them up unless she could give a bond of $1,000. She then called them to Council Bluffs and returned them to the Wrights. She telegraphed Manager Lemen, and through the Citizens' bank she released the children from their adoption. The child was taken to her home, and she believed that there was not a particle of truth in the awful stories, but she was informed that the children had been taken to the Wrights to lead a life of idleness, as the stories told by the girl had frightened the community up to a degree of danger.

Saturday afternoon the boy ran away from the Christian home, and induced half a dozen of the other home boys to accompany him. They were taken to the home of the Wrights, and the other boys became tired and homesick and returned, but the Knollie boy continued on.

Yesterday afternoon the girl admitted that all of the stories she had told about Mr. and Mrs. Wright were untrue; that she and her brother had been taken to the Wrights and were contented until a hired girl came to work, and induced her and her brother to run away.

DUNCAN JURY FAILS TO AGREE.

No Verdict Reached Up to a Late Hour.

The jury in the Duncan case was sent out yesterday afternoon, and up to 11 o'clock last night had not reached a verdict. It was reported around the court house that a large majority of them were in favor of a verdict of guilty, and that two or three friends of the young man were holding out for an acquittal.

Judge Smith yesterday passed sentence upon L. C. Taylor, the professional burglar, convicted of breaking into Miss Sprink's home, and sentenced him to the penitentiary for two years. When Taylor was being taken from the court room he remarked, with a smile, "Well, that's getting on my feet, and I'm going home."

Harrison Gilman, who pleaded guilty to the charge of lewdness, was sent to the county jail for four months. Hattie Bether, charged with lewdness, had her case continued by order of the court for six days, which she will spend in the county jail. Her husband, Zed Bether, who is prosecuting the case, has been in the county jail, and the continuance was according to an agreement with the county attorney to secure some sort of punishment for the woman.
