The legi bility of the typewriter makes mistakes im-possible, and the saving in white paper, with the consequent reduction in bulk malled, is an item of no inconsiderable amount in the sum total of cost to concerns having large correspondence in the course of a year. Then, too, the ease with which the machine is mastered and manipulated enters into the matter as an important factor. Very little skill is required to run it so that comparatively few persons are forced to hire a secretary, where under the old system this expense was necessary. With the typewriter in reach of every man and woman in the land there is no longer excuse for one's correspondence getting be hind.

SHOOTING AFFRAY IN ALABAMA

Attempt to Eject a Drunken Miner from a Store Costs Three Lives. BIRMINGHAM, Ala., May 28 .- An attemp to eject a drunken coal miner from a stor in the little town of Oakman resulted in a in the little town of Oakman resulted in a shooting affray that cost the lives of three men. Two others were seriously injured. Charles Williams, a coal mine engineer, en-tered the store of Appling Bros., while drunk, and created a disturbance. Isaac Ap-pling, who is mayor, attempted to put him out, whereupon Williams drew a gun and began shooting. He shot Isaac dead, sent a builet through the skull of Andrew Rich-ards, a clerk, inflicting injuries from which Richards died an hour later, and scriously wounded William Duncan, an English proswounded William Duncan, an English pros pector, shooting him in the head and back.
