Cologne Paper's Version of the Probable Terms of Peace.

POSSIBILITY YET OF A EUROPEAN WAR

Greek Newspapers Comment on Russian's Preparation and Other Rumors of a Hellespont Character with Slanderous Perchings.

LONDON, May 31.—The Berlin correspondent of the Daily Mail says today: From a Russian source come news of a conspiracy against King George of Greece, far more deeply rooted than was supposed. There is indubitable evidence that Premier Ralli and his colleagues in the cabinet are gravely implicated in a plot to overthrow the dynasty.

The Cologne Zeitung says that Greece will be compelled to pay a large indemnity, to reduce her army to 20,000 men and to give up her fleet.

The correspondent of the Times at Constantinople says: The sultan has ordered the official censors to suppress any sympathetic allusion to actions concerning the Greek royal family. The police in the Galata section of the city have been ordered to arrest all persons dealing in Greek securities.

The Athens correspondent of the Standard says: King George paid a visit to M. Onou, the Russian minister yesterday (Saturday) and after a two hours' interview sent a long telegram to Emperor Nicholas, urging him to intervene on his behalf.

The Athens correspondent of the Times says: Turkey's continued arming and reported Russian preparations, with other rumors of a Hellespont character, are causing some of the Greek newspapers that Greece may yet benefit from a general European war. But the majority of the nation, sobered by an experience in the war, are desirous that Europe shall protect Greece against her conqueror.

"There is no reason to fear that either Bulgaria or any other power will take advantage of the policy they have followed thus far. The Turkish troops who have been sent to the Serbian and Bulgarian frontiers are only intended to replace those which were withdrawn just before the war began."

"The reports of alarming anti-dynastic troubles published about a week ago, and which were supposed to be the work of some prominent politician likely to commit himself to an anti-dynastic program."

"It appears that the prince of Wales has expressed his personal desire that Crown Prince Constantine should come to London for the jubilee festivities and this is regarded as indicative of English good will toward Greece."

A dispatch from Canva to the Times, dated Sunday, says that the Greek government made a sortie from Candia Saturday night and burned the village of Kalavia, killing fourteen. The dispatch adds: "This is certain to have serious consequences, as it is the Creteans, who will make reprisals."

Constantine is invited to London. ATHENS, May 30.—There appears to be little inclination here to accept the accusations against the royal family made in certain of the newspapers, and the maintenance of order is fully assured. At dusk, when everything had quieted down, Almighty Voice yelled to the police that they were doing well, but would have to do better. The nine pounder in charge of Assistant Commissioner Melrose was trained on the bluff at a range of about 1,000 yards. LONDON, May 31.—Governor Wahle of the Congo Free State has a column letter in the Times this morning controverting the statements recently made by Missionary Sjöblom in this city at a public meeting at Exeter hall, where the subject of western African Christianity was under consideration. He admitted that an attack was made on the village of Mandakavaga, and that many crulleries were practiced there. He stated that all these charges have either been punished or are being investigated. The letter is on the whole a denial of the charges, and expressed regret that the charges were not more fully investigated. A justification of the Congo administration.

Story of Filibustering Expedition of the Alexander Jones.

DAUNTLESS LANDS BOTH MEN AND ARMS. Member of the Jones' Crew Gives a Detailed Account of the Trip—Twenty-Two Cubans Taken to the Island.

WILMINGTON, N. C., May 30.—The Messenger today prints a detailed account of the loading of the tug Alexander Jones and her departure with the schooner John D. Long on a Cuban filibustering expedition. The facts were obtained from a member of the crew of the Alexander Jones, which returned to port several days ago. His story substantially is as follows: On Thursday night, May 13, the Jones took on a cargo of rifles, machetes, rapid-firing guns and ammunition at the wharf of the Wilmington, Newbern & Norfolk railway in the southern limit of the city. Before the had entirely finished her cargo she was approached and the revenue cutter Morrill was getting up steam. Taking alarm at this the Jones pulled out and started down the river at 10:45 p. m., and in a few hours crossed the bar and anchored outside the mouth of the Cape Fear river. The schooner John D. Long, having meanwhile been loaded with coal and other material at the Wilmington and Weirton railroad wharf, was shortly after towed to the schooner by the tug Alexander Jones. The schooner was accompanied by the revenue cutter Morrill. At the sea buoy they went on board the Jones anchored nearby, and Captain Bryon took charge of the expedition. A lawyer went with the schooner to the schooner and early Friday morning the tug steamed to the south with her tow. The schooner was towed to the south coast of Florida, where the coast no port was entered, but off Palm beach, on the coast of Florida, sixty-two Cubans were taken on board. The Jones then towed the schooner to the open sea on Tuesday, May 18. On Thursday morning, May 20, the filibuster dauntless hero in sight and came alongside the Jones and the schooner. She sailed from the schooner, took a cargo of arms from the Jones, and with Captain O'Brien, the schooner's captain, sailed for Cuba. The schooner left the Jones between 8 and 9 o'clock Thursday night, made a successful landing in Cuba near Matanzas, and the schooner took another cargo of war material and started for Cuba Friday night. On the last trip General Jones and the schooner left the Jones and went on board the Dauntless and accompanied Captain O'Brien. When the schooner was loaded with a cargo of arms from the schooner, she sailed for Cape Canaveral, Fla., and turned her back. She sailed back and got into Southport.

The cargo carried out of here was valued at $75,000 and is said to have been the second largest ever landed in Cuba. The schooner was the only one of such a war vessel while on her trip.

ATTACKS COMMISSIONER CALHOUN.

Havana Paper Charges that He Allows Secrets to Escape. HAVANA, May 30.—In a leading article this morning El Diario, a Spanish newspaper, is making an indirect attack upon Commissioner Calhoun by criticizing articles which have appeared in a Washington newspaper over the signature of Mr. Pepper, who, in the guise of an intimate friend of President McKinley and Mr. Calhoun, accompanied the latter to Cuba. The article says that it contains many incidents of the interior working of the mixed commission which are wholly private and have been divulged in Mr. Pepper's article. The paper also remarks upon Mr. Pepper's unfriendly attitude to Spain in his reports on the Cuban question expressing disgust that while he blames Spain for the natural result of the war, he censures the Cuban insurgents, whose torches are destroying the wealth of the island.

In closing its article El Diario calls attention to the fact that two New York newspaper representatives who are scarcely favorable to the Cuban cause, were in Havana under the same roof with the United States general, intimating without much delicacy that the correspondents of these newspapers are virtually under the wing of General Fitzhugh Lee.

Mr. Fishback, accompanied by Mr. Pepper, went into the interior today to visit General Lee. Mr. Calhoun spent the day with General Lee at the American consulate.
