> NEW YORK, May 30 .- This year's Brooklyn handicap, to be run at Gravesend tomorrow, has brought together a field that with fine weather and a sound track should produce one of the most noticeable races ever run in this country. But the essential conditions for a fine performance may be denied, as the heavy rain tonight will probably leave the track dead and heavy even though the sun shines on Decoration day.

Of the thirteen carded, every horse has as far as is known, satisfied his trainer and owner. Each and every one of the probable straters has either raced well or is known to have shown good private trials, with the exception of Loki, of whom nothing is known International Parliamentary Chess Games to Begin Today. WASHINGTON, May 30.—Some time was spent today by Manager Marean of the Western Union Telegraph company in perfeeting arrangements for the transmission and the receipt of messages to and from the and the receipt of messages to and from the London office in connection with the international chess game between the picked teams of the house of representatives and the British House of Commons, which will begin tomorrow. The telegraph instruments have been put into the room occupied by the house committee on commerce, which is sufficiently commodious to comfortably accommodate the players, the telegraph officials and the few others who will be admitted. The office was in direct communication with Hearts the players, the telegraph officials and the few others who will be admitted. The office was in direct communication with Hearts Content, N. S., the American terminus of the Atlantic cable, and the messages exchanged today were handled with an expedition that gave the assurance of being able to transmit the announgements of the moves at both ends of the line with sufficient celerity to keep the game moving, according to the schedule time. The messages exchanged today related to securing a mutual understanding of the form in whith announcements were to be made. It was agreed that the five boards should be designated by numbers, No. 1, No. 2, etc., and that the moves should be specified by the numerical designative adjectives, as first, second, etc. Some of the members of the house who will represent the American end of the contest were also at the capitol keeping an eye on the telegraph preparations, and everytimenting briefly on contrave. ing an eye on the telegraph preparations, and experimenting briefly on openings. TRY TO FATHOM THE THOMAS NOTE.

Stolen Treasure. Yesterday the police made a thorough earch of the old barn at 515 South Fourcenth street in the hope of unearthing the $6,000 which they suspect Henry Thomas, late watchman for the Pacific Express company, of having secreted there. According to the letter published in The Bee, which was written by Thomas shortly before he killed himself, the package will be found 'on the first timber in the stable.' police and the express officials have been unable to locate this "first timber" and are as much at sea as regards the meaning of the note as they were when they first timbers directly over the front door were pulled down yesterday, but nothing was brought to light. The threshbold was dug up and considerable of the earth forming the floor of the structure turned up. The package is still an absent quantity.

It was learned from some of the officials of the company yesterday that Thomas had acted queerly previous to his death and the theory is advanced that the note left behind was the result of a disordered mind. the time of the loss of the package Thomas t, and told some friends that he feared the company might blame the loss on bim or suspect him of taking the package. About eight months ago Thomas' heaith broke down and he was forced to go south for a period to recuperate. When he re-turned to his work he never appeared to be the same as formerly. As an illustration of this. Not many months ago Thomas found a drunken man in the front entrance of the express company's building, and jumping to the conclusion that he was a burglar, fell upon the stranger, who was powerless from liquor, and beat him quite severely. He then turned in a burglar call to the police The man, upon being arrested, was merely charged with being drunk. There were other in which Thomas showed that ble mind was enfeebled.

Yesterday morning the news of her son's death was gently broken to Mrs. Thomas and the scene which followed was very patholic. The mother is nearly 70 years of age and her son has been the only support in her old days. Later in the day Mrs. Thomas showed signs of hysteria and she was taken to the police station and given in charge of Matron Bennett. The police are of the opinion that Mrs. Thomas knew nothing of the thefts should it be proven that ing of the thefts should it be proven that they were committed by her son.

After the search for the package of money had been abandoned in the old barn yesterday, one of the officials of the concern stated that they would probably buy the structure and would have it torn down in order to make the search for the package complete. This will probably be done in a few days. During the interior are officer is the days. During the interim an officer is sta-tioned at the barn to keep guard over the

Now Eke has been prevailed upon to file complaints alleging that Dolezal has been in the habit of harboring gambling deices. Judge Christmann could not be found during the afternoon and Dolezal could not get out on bail until the judge showed up, which he did about 7 o'clock in the evening.

Business Houses to Close. In response to a proclamation issued by Mayor Ensor a majority of the business nouses will close at noon today or shortly ifterwards. The banks and city offices will e closed all day and there will be only one delivery of mail. Members of the Grand Army of the Republic will meet at their hall at 2 o'clock sharp, where they will be joined by the Sons of Veterans and the Woman's Relief corps. The procession will start from Grand Army hall and proceed to Laurel Hill cemetery, where the graves of dead soldiers will be decorated. The veterans will also visit St. Mary's and the German ceme-

The old unused street car tracks at the west end of the L street viaduct have at last been taken up and the pavement relaid. This end of the long bridge is once more safe for teams and bicycles. Before these rails were removed wagon and buggy wheels were broken almost daily and complaints were frequently made to the councilmen, but to no purpose. One evening not long ago Councilman Mort of the Fourth ward passed along and noticed a buggy which had been wrecked by the eunken tracks. He took the matter in hand and now the roadway is perfectly safe.

AN OPEN LETTER To MOTHERS.

WE ARE ASSERTING IN THE COURTS OUR RIGHT TO THE EXCLUSIVE USE OF THE WORD "CASTORIA," AND "PITCHER'S CASTORIA," AS OUR TRADE MARK.

1. DR. SAMUEL PITCHER, of Hyannis, Massachusetts, was the originator of "PITCHER'S CASTORIA," the same that has borne and does now bear the fac-simile signature of hat Hitchire wrapper. This is the original "PITCHER'S CASTORIA" which has been used in the homes of the mothers of America for over thirty years. LOOK GAREFULLY at the wrapper and see that it is and has the signature of Chart flitches wrapper. No one has authority from me to use my name except The Centaur Company of which Chas. H. Fletcher is President. Obenul Pitches P. D. March 8, 1897.
