ECHOES OF THE ANTE ROOM

Woodmen of America occurred at Debuque, Ia., last week, convening on Tuesday morning and adjourning on last Friday afternoon. The meeting was a decidedly interesting one from the fact that a number of matters which have for months been widely discussed by the members of the order were con-

Easily the first matter of importance was the investigation of the charges against the head officers. These accusations fell flat absolutely. They were not even considered in detail by the main body, which was estimed by the report of the delegates at large, who were in charge of the investigation. The report was a lengthy one and showed that while there were a few irregularities in the records consequent upon the enormous busi-ness transacted, the order had not been injured in the slightest and that there had been absolutely no misuse of funds. The convention showed how it felt on the matter by endorsing the head officers by re-

The election resulted as follows: consul, W. A. Northcutt, Illinois; adviser, Daniel B. Horne, Iowa; clerk, C. W. Hawes, Daniel B. Horne, Iowa; clerk, C. W. Hawes, Illinois; banker, George N. Fratt, Wisconsin; escort, F. R. Van Slyke, South Dakota; watchman, E. B. Thomas, Ohlo; sentry, L. E. Mentch, Illinois; physicians, Nebraska, S. H., Ashby; Illinois, R. E. Beach; Iowa, F. J. Will; Kansse, J. B. Hibben; Wisconsin, Dr. Arthur Genter; Michigan, I. B. Hamilton; South Dakota, A. W. Hyde; Ohlo, F. A. Smith; Minnesota, C. A. McCollum; Missouri, P. C. Palmer; Indiana, Will F. Green; North P. C. Palmer; Indiana, Will F. Green; North Dakota, A. Stewart; chaplain, Rev. H. W. Troy, Wisconsin; auditing committee, Emory Townsend, Michigan; W. J. Reinke, Iowa; Fred W. Parrott. Kansts; board of directors, J. H. Reece, J. W. White and M. Quacken-bush, Illinois; A. R. Talbot, Nebraska; Ben-jamin D. Smith, Minnesota.

Another matter of importance was the decision of the body to remove the head-quarters from Fulton to Rock Island, Ill. It is expected, however, that although the Fulton people have so far gotten the short end of the legal fight they began to retain the head offices, they will not be ready to give up yet. Therefore a provision was made for a special meeting on call of the execu-tive council in case the Fultonites took fur-ther legal proceedings.

The head camp transacted a considerable quantity of important business. Among other things it voted to pay suicide claims if deaths do not occur within three years of the date on which the certificates were is-sued. This matter also provoked considerable discussion previous to the session. The following additional states were admitted into the territory of the order: Pennsylvania, Montana, Wyoming, Idaho, Oregon and Washington. Stockholders in liquor manufactories will not be admitted to membership. The per capita tax will remain as at present, but the surplus in the general fund will be used in the nature of a reserve fund. A head physician was appointed in each

The Nebraska delegation failed to secure the $500 appropriation for the erection of a headquarters on the exposition grounds during the big show. While it was hoped that some money would be put aside for this purpose, the local members de not intend to give up the scheme. They will try to raise a fund for such a building or headquarters in some other way.

The reports of the officers were very flat tering. During the past two years 127,110 applications were accepted, bringing the total membership to 240,000. The mortuary claims membership to 240,000. The mortulary claims allowed were 1,606, and the amount paid on them was $3,289,816. There is at present $550,000,000 insurance in force. The cost of management is 61 cents. The average age of the members is 35.76 years.

The question of a reserve fund did not come up before the body, because the matter was disposed of by a vote of the lodges, which decided against the plan. The next session of the head camp will be held in Kansas City on the first Tuesday

Musonie Bodies

The event of the week in Masonic circles in this city was the regular annual meeting of the Nebraska grand chapter of the Order of the Eastern Star. The session lasted was attended by 200 and more delegates and Masonic temple. The body transacted a considerable amount business, but the greatest portion of it related to the secret workings of the order public. The reports of the officers and committees indicated that the order in the state is in very satisfactory condition. The one bit of business that is of general interest was the appropriation of a sum of money for the erection and maintenance of a headquarters on the exposition ground during the big show. The appropriation was not as large as the local mem-bers of the order hoped for, but it will form a nucleus for a larger sum. A resolution was passed, calling upon subordinate to donate something to the fund. I is believed that the response will be quite liberal, as the state members will certainly desire to care for the thousands of visiting members from other states in a proper man-

The next meeting will be held in thi city in June of next year. As the exposi tion will then be in progress, the meeting will in all probability be on larger magnitude than any that have been held in the

The delegates and visitors while here wer, looked after by the members of the local chapter. The social entertainment, however, was not extensive, as the women were here for business. On Tuesday night the visitors were given a little reception in the temple with refreshments. On yesterday afternoon about a dozen members of Tangler temple left the city to attend the session of the imperial council in Detroit. Some of them were attended by their wives and families. The council meets on June 8 and 9. It will probably not be ness, but a most extensive program of entertainment is to be enjoyed. No attempt will be made to get the 1898 meeting for this city, because the local lodge does feel financially able to properly care for the

It was hoped that the local members would have an opportunity to entertain some of the western delegates who are on their way to the convention. It developed, however, that only a few passed through the city, the majority going by other routes.

Ancient Order of United Workmen The supreme lodge will convene in annual session next Tuesday. The superior ledge of the Degree of Honor began its deliberations yesterday. The Nebraska delegation, a list of which was published last Sunday, left for the convention during the latter part of the past week.

A big gathering of the Ancient Order of United Workmen will occur at Plattamouth tomorrow evening. Omaha lodge No. 18 of this city has chartered a special train and a large delegation will avail themselves of the opportunity offered all the lodges of Omaha and South Omaha to meet the grand master workman of Nebraska on that occa-sion. The committee in charge appointed by Omaha lodge No. 18 consists of R. A. McLaughlin, C. H. Collier, George H. Burchard and W. J. Putnam Cramer. Ar-Burchard and W. J. Putnam Cramer. Arrangements have been perfected by this committee, acting in conjunction with the Plattsmouth lodges, for the largest demonstration of the kind which has occurred in this state for some time past. Special cars will leave the union depot at Omaha at 7:50 sharp tomorrow evening, only making a short stop at N street to take on the South Omaha delegation. After reaching Plattsmouth the local lodges will take the visiting brothers in charge and the evening will be spent in having a general good time, listening to speeches, etc. Grand Master Shultz has promised to be present and make an address. A special train will leave Plattsmouth the same night and bring the visitors back to Omaha. back to Omaha.

back to Omaha.

On Tuesday evening last Omaha lodge No. 18 held a very enthusiastic meeting in behalf of the excursion to Plattsmouth on Monday night. The election of officers passed off without a jar, each office being filled by acclamation. The new officials to be installed the first Tuesday in July are as follows: Master workman, Dr. Andrew Crawford; foreman, Lyman Searls; overseer, Dr. H. A. Worley; guide, W. J. C. Putnam-Cramer; inside watchman, D. Munro; outside watchman, J. J. H. Reedy, During the session the new ode written by Mr. Reedy, entitled, "Onward, Brother Workmen," was sung for the first time, and elicited much sung for the first time, and elicited much enthusiasm.

officers at its meeting Tuesday evening: W. R. Courtwright, past master workman; R. R. Williams, master workman; Frank Andrews foreman; W. F. Nevens, overseer; W. S. Dimmick, recorder; J. C. Wilson, financier C. A. Bickel, receiver; E. D. Parsons, guide Jacob Pflug, trustee.

Order of Elks.

W. B. Taylor returned from Minneapolis the first of the week, where he had been for several days completing arrangements for hotel accommodations for the members of Omaha lodge No. 39, Benevolent and protec tive Order of Elks, who propose to attend the Elks' reunion in that city early in July. He succeeded in securing accommodations for about 100 members of the order at the Nicolet hotel, at which place the Omaba headquarters will also be located. It is believed Omaha will secure the 1898 meetin f the Elks.

The committee on uniforms, railroad trans portation, membership, etc., are working, and when Omaha lodge assembles at the depot on the evening of July 5 to take the train for the "Flour City" there will be seen the best and largest delegations that has left Omaha with a definite purpose in view for many a day. The Elks are going for the purpose of securing the convention. The amount of money necessary to go up and secure the 1898 meeting has all been raised by the membership and not one cent will the citizens be asked to contribute until the prize is captured. The lodge has closed a contract with the Twenty-second Infantry band to accompany the lodge to Minneapoli on this occasion.

George P. Cronk, exalted ruler, is now in he east figuring on uniforms for the lodge. Ten new members were elected for initiation Friday night, and many more new applica tions are waiting to be acted upon.

TEST M'DONALD'S MONOPOLY

Violation of the Ordinance.

PARTIES ARRESTED UNITE FOR DEFENSE

Probability that One Case Will Be Selected Upon Which to Test the Validity of McDon-

Forty garbage cases were set for trial yesshowed more than average talent for public was looking after the defense of them all and he stated that unless one was selected as a test case he would insist that each be tried separately. The first case was called shortly before noon. Some of the cases in the batch are several months old.

It is stated that the garbage haulers of the city have formed a trust to fight the monopoly held by Garbage Master MacDonald and this explains the fact that despite their various ages, all the cases are set for trial on the same day. The arrested parties have given to the soldier-musicians. In order to formed an association, pooled issues and raised enough funds to hire an attorney. The charges in the cases are various, hauling garbage in the city limits, hauling without a permit, etc. The defendants are all poor men who have tried to make a little money with which to support their families by carrying away refuse from private premises during the spring cleaning.

Garbage Master MacDonald's special officers have made but few arrests recently. This is largely due to the fact that the have not been brought to trial, but have been continued from time to time. Thursday, however, two arrests were made. while dumping refuse near Thirteenth and Locust streets. The defendants stated that they had been allowed to haul the stuff to this point during the recent flood on Cut Off island in order to help restrain the lake and that orders have never since been served upon them to cease the practice. Boye was under 16 years of age and was discharge1, but Thomas' case was put with the others

The garbage fight promises to bring some police officers into trouble. Some days ago Jim Nelson was arrested for violating the monopoly. He was taken to the station with his feam. It is stated that when he was put in jail one of the police officers instructed the poundmaster take charge of the team, and the latter did so. The team was later recovered by re-plevin. The attorney for the garbage haul-ers says that if he finds these to be the facts in the case, he intends to prefer charges against the police officers before the Fire and Police commission, and will also sue on the officer's bond. The special of-ficers employed by MacDonald have several sults in the district court on their hands as a result of the fight.

PART III. The awarding of the contract to the Fort

Crook band has stirred up quite a little strife throughout the city. It is said that several local bands, composed of Omaha mu sicians, were passed over and preference compromise matters the privilege of playing at the park on Sunday, June 13, was offered understood, was declined because the local musicians had at first been ignored. The strife is not a new one. It was or last season. The Central Labor union took up the matter with Congressman Mercer, inslating that representatives of the regular army had no right to compete with men who carned their living by playing in bands, and the country where the United States bands were allowed to accept outside engagements to the detriment of other bands. For a time the competition of the infantry band against the local bands ceased, but it is now in evidence again, and the local musicians say that they are preparing to take the matter up with the War department and have the in-fantry band restrained from accepting outside engagements at lower rates than the regular bands here. The Elks have engaged the Twenty-second

Infantry band to accompany them to St. Paul to the annual convention. The local musicians state that they firmly believe they can secure an order from the War department to prevent this trlp, and are now planning to do so.

An evidence of the hostile feeling between the local bands and the Fort Crook band cropped out on Monday last in the Memoria day procession. The Seventh Ward band er did with the Thurston Riffes, was to lead, but y re- at the last minute the right of the haul- line was given to the infantry and the For Crook band. The two bands were close to each other, the Fort Crook being in the lead, but neither band would start to p'ay first, the result being that there was no music until the column had left the business center of the city and reached Twenty sixth and Harney streets. Each band blame the fault on the other. At any rate there is a merry war on between the rival bands the motion being granted and the case d's-missed.

This motion was based upon a showing which was made by affidavits filed in the case, showing that the difficulty betw-sen The Bee and the Associated Press had been adjusted at the meeting of the stockholders of the Associated Press held in Chicago the latter part of May. The officers of the Associated Press were authorized by the directors to enter into a contract with the World-Herald at the rate of $270 pcr week, the same rate paid by The Bee. In reparation of The Bee's damages the officers were also instructed to credit The Bee with thirty-five weeks' toils and after their with thirty-five weeks' tolls and after their expiration with $20 a week for a period of six years. > There will be evening drill five nights a week, Saturdays and Sundays being ex-cepted, though the men must sleep in the armory on these as well as other nights. As many of the men are employed on Saturday nights it would be impossible to get a full attendance on Saturday nights. The drills on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday evenings will begin at 3:15 and last until 10 o'clock occupations.

CAMP AT CHARLES STREET PARK. This program will be kept up for two weeks. At the end of mat time the camp will be moved to Charles Street park. The company will go into regular there, the morning and evening drills taking place at the park at the same hours as prevail for the next fortnight. Already the drill work of the company is showing signs of improvement as the result and the same rate of of the evening drill. If the same rate of progress can be kept up from now until the time for departure to San Antonio it is thought the Rifles will be fit to take any cup within sight by their excellence in 4-ili. The two weeks of drill on the streets, morning and evening, should greatly perfect the marching. At Charles Street park the boys will become accustomed to drilling on the ground. While the marching is receiving especial attention, the movements in arms are not being neglected, and this branch of the drill is likewise improving.

The new suits that were described by The Bee some time ago have just been ordered. They will be of dark green throughout, and will be full dress uniforms. The coat will be of the cut away pattern with a long skirt. The front will be ornamented with braid. The trougers will be adorned wide stripes of white. The epaulets will be of white, and the caps of dark green with a white plume. The new suits will arrive just before the company leaves for San Antonio.

When you buy a proprietary article, look at it before the salesman wraps it up, and assure yourself that you are getting the right thing. Substitution is rampant.

NOT CLEAR ON THE PROPOSITION.

Issue Renewal Bonds. The finance committee of the city council is securing the date for the new issue of renewal bonds. If this is to be simply a reissue of the bonds that were knocked out last winter the task would not be difficult. But City Attorney Connell and other city officials are said to favor an enlargement of the the issue sufficient to take up all the out-the standing warrants on special funds. This Pill is advised on the ground that the city is secret of health and beauty. Try Pill is advised on the ground that the city is Ansemic Piok. It is composed largely of concentrated beef blood and makes rosy lips and faces. Effects noticed after a week's use.

No honest dealer will try to sell what he knews the customer did not order and does not want. Substitution thrives for a time, but in the long run it goes to the wall.
