Otte & Co., Cincinnati's leading carpet house, had a fire. Their entire stock was sold at auction and we bought im nense quantities of Carpets at less than 37c on the dollar. This sale will eclipse and surpass all our former carpet and rug special sales. As Otte & Co. carried only high class goods, and the goods we bought are but slightly damaged, this will be a sale of exceptional advantage. Below we quote prices that are bound to cause immense carpet selling Monday.

Dog Hatches Chickens. Yard Breeze, who owns a poultry farm just west of Trenton, N. J., is also a dog fancier, and in his kennel is a valuable Irish setter. About a month ago, while the dog was frisking about one of the poultry buildings, a plank fell upon him, breaking two of his legs. Mr. Breeze engaged a veterinary surgeon to set the broken limbs, and in order to keep the dog quiet placed him in a box filled with straw. box. Mr. Breeze decided to experiment, and placed half a dozen eggs in the warm straw under the dog's body and awaited developments. At the end of the third week six tiny chicks made their appearance. They were added to the family of a mother hen with a small brood, and are thriving. The ben takes good care of them, but the chicks have an attachment for the dog, and spend much of their time with him, while he
