Board of Education Makes Its Selections for the Coming Year.

SEVERAL CHANGES MADE IN JANITORS

Contests for Positions Were Settled by Secret Ballot and the Board Remained in Session Till Midnight.

The regular meeting of the Board of Education last night was the most important of the year to the small army of teachers, principals and janitors whose retention on the pay roll was to be considered. The board rooms were thronged by anxious employes and their friends and the members were subjected to the button-holing process all the way from the rotunda to their desks.

There was a sharp conflict between the two factions in the board over a number of positions, but with the exception of one or two instances, it was covered under the kindly mantle of the secret ballot.

The main issue was whether Virginia Victor should be retained as principal at Ambler and Jennie M. McKoon dropped at Train. The High school teachers and kindergartners were elected by a unanimous vote, but in the case of the janitors and grade teachers the long process of a ballot was necessary. As forecasted in The Bee, there were several changes in the list of janitors. Thomas Falconer was dropped from the High school and Thomas H. Fitzgerald was promoted from Central to the vacant place. James Cathroe succeeded Fitzgerald at Central. J. Dark was dropped in M. Lamme of Central Park was dropped in favor of W. S. Smith. J. R. Stafford suc-ceeded George Kelley at Leavenworth, S. K. Greenleaf succeeded J. J. Nobes at Columbian, J. L. Francis succeeded George Armstrong at Pacific, George H. Parker suc-ceeded Victor Danielson at Lake, and M. M. Standish succeeded J. M. McDowell at Wal-

In the list of principals, as recommended by the committee on teachers and examinations. Jennie M. McKoon of the Train schoo was dropped and several principals were changed to new schools. Gratton offered a substitute list, in which Agnes Hutchinson was substituted for the committee recom-mendation of Virginia Victor at Ambler, Helen Wykoff for Eliza Hutchins at Bancroft. Harriet Eddy for J. L. Alvison at Monmouth Park, Jennie M. McKoon for Helen Wykoff at Train, Eliza Hutchins for Harriet Eddy at Vinton, and Eckerman left blank, with the explanation that he proposed to offer a resolution closing the school.

On the ballot it developed that by some mistake in making the ballots Miss Wykoff had been elected as principal of both Walnut Hill and Train schools. There was no elec-tion at Eckerman. Gratton moved that the secretary be directed to cast the ballot of the board for Miss Wykoff at Bancroft and Miss McKoon at Train. This was lost by 8 to 7 and another ballot was ordered on the three schools mentioned. It allotted Train to Miss McKoon and Bancroft to Miss Wykoff by a bare majority, but there was still no choice for Eckerman. Davidson then offered a resolution which provided for closing the Ecker-men school and transporting the children to another school. This was debated at con-siderable length and the subject was finally laid over until the next meeting. RESULT OF THE ELECTION.

One of the Regulating Bills to Be Met with Injunction.

STOCK YARDS WILL FIGHT THE STATE LAW

Stockholder Asks that the Company Re Entoined from Adopting the Rates Provided For by the Last Legislature.

Senate file No. 33, known as the stock yards bill, passed by the last legislature, is to be tested in the United States court. A suit having that object in view was brought in that court yesterday. The title is Greenlief W. Simpson, complainant, against the Union Stock Yards company of Omaha (limited), and Constantine J. Smyth, attorney general of Nebraska, defendants. The plaintiff is a stockholder in the Union Stock Yards company and lives at Boston, and asks that an order be issued enjoining the provisions of the law being enforced.

Judge Munger will hear arguments upon the application for a temporary restraining order on June 16. In the meantime the law will be allowed to take its course.

The petition sets out in full the history of the yards from the original incorporation of the company until the time the legislature passed the bill in controversy. It details the work the company had in getting packing houses to locate near the yards that the business of the company might be made to prosper, "which cost large sums of money, but brought to the support of the enterprise of the company the influence of those parties whose interests previously had been centered at other points."

The present daily capacity of the yards is given as 14,000 cattle, 25,000 hogs, 12,000 sheep, and 1,000 horses and mules. The whole cost is alleged to be $2,452,269.06, and it is charged that the property can not be replaced for a much larger sum. The yards, counting the value of the lands and works are alleged to be worth now the sum of $6,000,000, and that twice that sum expended now would not replace the plant and secure the business which it now enjoys. The declaration is also made that no salaries are paid to any one except those whose assistance is necessarily required in the trans action of the business of the company.

INCREASED ITS CAPITAL. The original capital stock of the company vas $1,000,000, but "by due proceedings in that behalf, the company has increased its authorized capital to $6,000,000, and 49,998 shares have been issued and are outstanding and are held by seventy-five parties." It is asserted that the market value of the stock has ranged from par to 140 per cent, and is now at par, although for a long time only limited amounts have been offered. The gross earnings of the company for 1895 are given as $498,126.89, and for 1896.

$471,190.39; while the expenditures in 1895 were $254,730.49, and in 1896, $245,037.74. The point is made that these yards are the only ones in the state coming under the provision of the bill passed by the legislature It is alleged that the present charges are reasonable and just, whether regard be had to the benefits to the owner or to the cost of doing business and a fair return to the ompany on its investment. The statement is made that the existence of the city of South Omaha, with all the Thomas W. Shea; Cass, Henry O'Neill; Castellar, Frank Suchy; Central, James Cathroe; Central Park, W. S. Smith; Clifton Hill, W. C. Lawton; Columbian, S. K. Hart; Farnam, William improvements that have been made there for the convenience of its citizens, is entirely due to the fact that the stock yards are located there. It is alleged that this is a private company, enjoying no benefit or advantage from the laws of the state. Its buniness is held to be private, and that any citizen may engage in it and carry it on to any Payne; Ferest, Mary A. Lyons; Franklin, Frank L. Otis; Gibson, Annie E. Edgerton; Kellom Charles E. D'Jureen; Lake, George extent.

In 1896 the total receipts at the yards were 570,515 head of cattle, including calves; 1,197,-638 head of hogs; 333,332 head of cheep. Of the stock received, 109,346 cattle, 812,955 hogs and 26,685 sheep were shipped from H. Parker; Leavenworth, J. R. Stafford; Lin-coln, John J. Kalina; Long, A. Tulp; Long Annex, E. W. Francis; Park, Robert W. points in this state to said yards, while the remainder were shipped from points out of his state, or were destined and shipped to points out of this state. By the connection of the company with railroads in the care and feeding of stock in transit the plea is made that the company, like the railroads s engaged in interstate commerce.

is alleged that if the company were to extend to all persons, corporations, or comanies dealing at such yards the came rights and privileges it would sustain orses and to compel it so to conduct it biveness would interfere with the natural nis own so long as he does not treepass up the rights of others. It is alleged that the et la unconstitutional because it attempts t regulate the charges of a private corporation hat it does not provide for a judicial inquiry into the reasonableness of the charges; it discriminates between different stock yards ompanies in the state of Nebraska.

For all of these reasons the court is asked to grant an injunction against the Union Stock Yards company enjoining it from putting into force the rates provided by bill, and to enjoin Constantine J. Smyth, at

WILL MAKE IT A TEST CASE BLUE BOAT HASIBBEN RECOVERED. In it Was a Fountain Pen Belonging

> The blue boat which George H. Robinson is supposed to have taken when he left his All Day Tuesday to Be Devoted to Rearbicycle at Florence, ten days ago, has been recovered, and in it; was a fountain perf, which has been identified as having belonged to Robinson. The property was found by three young men from Platismouth.

Last evening B. L. Kirkham, editor of the Platismouth Journal, ealled at the police station and stated that yesterday morning station and stated that yesterday morning three young men of Plattsmouth, Charles Dabb, Fred Black and Louis Reinagle, told him they had just returned from a fishing excursion op the Missouri river and that they were positive they had the row roat in which Robinson is supposed to have left Florence, Saturday May 29. The host in Florence, Saturday, May 29. The boat in their possession answers the description of the one taken from Fisherman Plant on the night in question. The boys had seen the circular sent out by the Omaha police, and had consequently called to apprise Mr. Ivirk-ham of their find.

They said they left Plattsmouth Thursday morning, May 27, and went to a point about a mile above Florence. Here they remained until last Wednesday when they started for home. When about three miles above the interstate bridge they noticed a boat stranded on the sandy beach. It was painted a bright blue color. Upon investigation it was found to have been abandoned and was partially filled with water.

As soon as the water had been dipped out a small fountain pen was found on the bottom boards, but there was nothing else of consequence in the skiff. Upon looking along the bank a short distance to the north a derby hat was discovered in the brush.

The skiff was taken in tow and is at present at Plattsmouth to await the orders of its owner. Mr. Kirkham brought the pen to this city and showed it to the brother of the missing man. Frank Robinson, who immediately identified the pen as having been the property of his brother. The Plattemouth boys placed the hat on pole, and stuck the pole in the ground the point where the hat was found. A searching party will go at once to the lo-cality described to try to find a further lew to the missing man.

NATIONAL ENDEAVOR CONVENTION.

Local Interest Aronsed at a Meeting Last Night. A mass meeting was held at the First Congregational church last evening to arouse additional interest in the national convention of the Christian Endeavorers, which meets in San Francisco in July. The large essembly room in the rear of the church auditorium was nearly filled by the mem-bers of the society and their friends. Or-der was called for by Rev. Frank A. Warield, who presided during the session. A song service, led by W. E. Johnston, was given as a prelude to the regular business of the meeting, and was followed by a scriptural reading and prayer by Dr. Warfield. Rev. J. M. Vawter discussed "Glimpses of former Conventions," Fiving details of the leasures experienced at the conventions held at Washington, D. C., Cleveland, O., Toronto, Can., and New York City. A forecast of the convention of 1897 was given by Dr. Warfield, in which he outlined the work which was to be performed by the many thousands of dele-gates in San Francisco. Dr. S. Wright But-ler gave a "Personally Conducted Tour" of the route to the convention city, describing the scenes en route and the many side trips which would be given from San Francisco.

In conclusion W. B. Waddell, E. G. Jones and L. J. Allen, representing the Nebraska transportation committee, discussed the rates of railroad fare and the provisions made for he comforts of the delegates from this point

The list of delegates was opened to those The list of delegates was opened to those who contemplate making the trip and was signed by a large number present. In speaking of the Nebraska delegation Mr. Waddell stated that the special train which will be run over the Burlington line will probably consist of six sleepers and a combination could be run over the Burlington line will probably consist of six sleepers and a combination could be run over the Burlington line will probably consist of six sleepers and a combination of six sleepers and six sleepers and six sleepers and six sleepers are six sleepers and sleepers are sleepers. Four sleepers have already been eni, and it was stated that there were sufficient more applicants for berths to insure the securing of the additional two sleepers. It is expected that the delegation from this state will number about 150 persons. Another meeting will probably be held at the First Congregational church before the date of departure, which is June 30, to secure additional names of those who wish to

Trinity Choir Quartet and Singers Participate. A musicale was given in Trinity parish house last evening under the auspices of the Parish Aid society to raise money for but was continued for one week b the musical fund of the church. The parish house was brilliantly lighted and decorated in honor of the event and a large audience was present. The first number on the pro-gram was rendered by the Trinity church choir quartet, composed of Jules Lumbard. Mr. Wilkins, Mrs. Cotton and Miss Bowen, and was entitled "The Carnavale," A violin solo by Robert Cuscaden followed, and he was obliged to respond to an encore. His rendition of "The Legend" was one of the best events of the evening. A selection by Miss Amy Barker from "Carmen," "The Crimson Glow," a duet by Misses Bower and Burnham, and the "Butterfly Waltz," by Miss Holtorf, came in for their meet "The Evening Star," Manchester: "Heart's Springtime." Bowen; "When the Tide Comes In," by Mr. W. B. Wilkins; "The Russian Night-ingale Song," by Mrs. Cotton; a solo by Mr. Jules Lumbard, and a duet by Miss Myrtle Coon and Mr. Will McCune comoleted a program which was thoroughly enjoyed by all those present.

At the meeting of Nebraska lodge, No. 1 Knights of Pythias, last evening, consider Knights of Pythias, last evening, considerable attention was given to the disappearance of George H. A.ways Truthful-Always Satisfactory-Always Safe,

Today, in our corner window, we are showing men's fancy ribbed underwear, in two shades, ecru and robin's egg blue, at 15 cents a garment—thirty cents for a suit. From the sidewalk it looks like our regular lis'e thread underwear which sells for 65 cents a garment, but it isn't-which shows that appearances are deceitful sometimes, and that you can't tell anything about it by merely looking through the glass. This underwear has all the appearance of high grade and is fitted with the patent

French yoke on the shirts, and regular Sateen bands on the drawers and is the kind that is always advertised at a great fire and water sales for 29 cents, marked down from 47 cents. We sell it for fifteen. Two things we would have you bear in mind about this underwear-

first, it is the greatest value ever seen in Omaha for 15 cents; and second, it isn't as good as it looks. Our underwear at 25 cents' 35 cents. 45 cents and up, is not
