Late in the afternoon an information was filed in the office of the clerk of the district court. It charged Wright, first and real name unknown, with approaching George R. Rathbun, one of the jurors, and offering him $75 to vote for the acquittal of Bartley.

DEFENSE RAISES ITS VOICE. When court convened at 2 o'clock Judge Baker asked Juror Norton if he had a case pending in the district court for trial. Norto replied that he was plaintiff in Norton against Norton, an action for the removal of his brother as agent, which had been set for trial a week ago. The attorney general challenged the juror for cause.

The juror was about to be removed when Bartley's attorneys, for the first time since the examination of jurger commenced took a hand in the matter and objected to the proceedings. Mr. Mahoney went out, and when he returned he said there was no such case on file in the clerk's office. He asked to be allowed to examire Norton and it developed from Norton's statements that the case had not been filed, but that there had been an agreement that ao summons should fore one of the equity judges. He said the case had not been called up.

After a desultory argument on both sides
the objections to the juvor were overruled The defense then commenced the examining of the jurors for cause, each man be Jurors Cox and Shipley passed the examination successfully.

Juror Church partially recovered his voice upon the witness stand and testified that he had been employed for several years at the Nebraska National bank as a stenographer and book-keeper. He said he had read news-paper reports regarding Bartley and had formed an opinion based on what he had read, but did not think this would prevent

As an appropriate prelude to the main event of the evening, "America" was sung by all the people, led by the sonorous voice of Jules Lumbard. Then General Manderson in a few graceful phrases introduced Dr. Hale who proceeded to read the mournful and infinitely pathetic story of the boy lieutenant who was momentarily bedazzled by the specious glitter of Aaron Burr's scheme of empire, and thoughtlessly spoke the words which led to his lifelong extle from home and country. His tall form is not apprecially more bowed than it has been at any time within the memory of the younger generation of his admirers, nor his heavy locks and beard more gray. His is a wonderfully simple and direct style of reading, quite lacking in the tricks and manners of the elecutionists. To one who listens without seeing, and so lost sight of the book in the reader's band, which was of the book in the reader's hand, which was consulted now and then, it seemed that the story was being told offhand, easily, colloquially, by the bluff sailor men into whose mouths the words are put. The innovation of the meeting is that every heat is a race, that is, $200 of the $600 purse is divided between the first four horses, and judging from the good feeling that existed throughout the afternoon, the horsemen were well pleased with the arrangement. The officials yesterday were O. P. Upde-graffe of Topeka, Kan., starter; George M. Swigart, C. W. Cockerell and Richard Smith, Judges; George E. Metcalf, H. H. Martin and S. G. Couch, timers, and Frank H. Wilson, clerk of the course. The fields for this afternoon are all large and the prospects are flatering for some rare sport. Taking the earliness of the season the performances yesterday were of a very high class character. STARTER OF THE MEET.

The first event on the afternoon's card was ne 2:30 trot, purse $600, with the following entries:

Pilgrim-Columbus Maid, N. R Silverine, Pilgrim-Columbus Maid, N. R. Loch, Topeka; Dermot Muscovite, Muscovite, McCouchte Bross, Galesburg, III.; Duke Russell, Kentucky Russell-Kit Monroe, G. W. Owen, Hubbell, Neb.; Pero Bell, Hild Pero, W. A. Van Meter, Aledo, El.

On the third scoring the horses were sent away on a line with Pero Bell at the pole. To the first turn the field was well bunched, but Pero Bell here forged to the front with Dermot Muscovite close at his heels, Duke Russell coming fast. At the half the Duke passed Dermot; while Pero Bell increased his lead to a good length. The three-quarters was passed in this order, but rounding into the stretch Duke Russell crawled up on the leader and down home gave us a horse race. They were neck and neck to within twenty-five yards of the wire, when the Bell got a head the best of it and they came under the wire, Pero Bell, Duke Russell, Dermot Mus-covite, Silverine, Montline, with Mattie R. and Saternwood outside the flag. Time: 2:21%.

At the outset of the second heat Starter Updegraffe gave the drivers to understand he would countenance no monkeying by fining Shank, the driver of Dermot Muscovite, $10 for scoring in front of Pero Bell, the pole horse. On the next trial they went away on even terms, with Pero Bell. Muscovite and Russell immediately going to the front. At Russell immediately going to the front. At the quarter they were still under a blanket, but Muscovite made a jump-up rounding the turn and fell hopelessly to the rear. From this on it was a horse race between Pero Bell and Duke. Muscovite also made a bad break, and the Duke was enabled to come up and challenge the leaders. At the half he was abreast of Pero Bell, and a couple of heads in the lead into the stretch. Pero Bell made a game effort, but was un-equal to the task, Duke Russell winning handily. Time: 2:21%.

Annual Tournament with a Hundred

Outside Contestants.

SIOUX CITY, June 8.—(Special Telegram.)

-The annual interstate tournament of the Soo Gun club, which opened here this morning, is the largest amateur shoot ever held in the west. Besides local shooters there were over 100 outside contestants today, mostly from South Dakota, Nebraska and Iowa, the number of entries exceeding all expectations. There will be more marksmen on the ground tomorrow for the interstate champion shoot. Mayor Clefand released the first blue rock this morning, which was quickly powdered by Mrs. Dr. Day, the well known Duluth sportswoman. In the eight events pulled off today ever 10,000 blue rocks were thrown. The new Mague trap is being used and there is no delay in throwing the clay birds.

After the opening shot by Mrs. Day the first event was quickly called. Soon there was an incessant crack of the smokeless shells and the "hottest" amateur tournament ever held in the west was in progress. The weather was all that could be desired.

The leading averages for the day, out of 120 birds, were: Howard, 107; Leach, 186; Trotter, Cubben and Anderson, each 181; Paimer, 103; Bird and H. Spatz, each 102; Baggerman and Williams, each 101; Peck, White and Gage, each 155. Mrs. Day secured 35.

The shoot will last three days. were over 100 outside contestants today,

POLICE WILL ALLOW NO SLUGGING. Say the New Horton Law Will Re

Strictly Enforced.
NEW YORK, June 8.—Chief Conlin said today that he would see that there is no "slugging" at the Maher-Sharkey bout at the Palace Athletic club tomorrow night. He said that he intended to allow only a cientific sparring bout for points. Horton law would be observed to the letter, he said, and the police would be there to see that the law was enforced. The men will be permitted to go on sparring only in strict accordance with the Horton law, and as soon as there is any slugging the bouts will be stopped and the men arrested. A mere bloody nose, however, will not be taken as evidence of slugging.

Creedon and McCoy to Meet. YORK, June 8 .- Dan Creedon and Kid McCoy have been matched to fight at the Palace Athletic club within the next three weeks for a purse of $1,800. Each posted forfeit today.

Disturb Ashes of the Dend.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 8.—When the trial of the contest over the will of the late Jacob Z. Davis was resumed today George Guthrie, a plumber, was called upon by counsel for the contestants to open the muchtalked-of copper box in which the ashes of the late Mrs. Davis reposed. When the lid was removed the ashes were taken out while the box was examined. The real purpose of having the box examined and measured was to demonstrate that a document similar to the will in controversy might be dropped from the sleeve of an interested person while ostensibly exploring, the interior of the box. Jacob Z. Davis was resumed today George

ONE OF TWO WAYS.

The bladder was created for one purpose, namely, a receptacle for the urine, and as such it is not liable to any form of disease except by one of two ways. The first way is from imperfect action of the kidneys. The second way is from careless local treatment of other diseases.

Unhealthy urine from unhealthy kidneys is the chief cause of bladder troubles. So the womb, like the bladder, was created for one purpose, and if not doctored too much is not liable to weakness or disease, except in rare cases. It is situated back of and very close to the bladder, therefore any pain, disease or inconvenience manifested in the kidneys, back, bladder or urinary passage is often, by mistake, attributed to female weakness or womb trouble of some sort. The error is easily made and may be as easily avoided. To find out correctly, set your urine aside for twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates kidney or bladder trouble. The mild and extraordinary effect of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney and bladder remedy is soon realized. If you need a medicine you should have the best. druggists, fifty cents and one dollar. may have a sample bottle and pamphlet, both sent free by mail.
