I ran a "want ad" for a wife,
Nine thousand answers quickly came,
Just think! Nine thousand pretty girls,
All anxious to assume my name.

But when these letters all were read,
My head much smaller seemed to be—
Nine thousand husbands had replied
That they would give their wives to me

TURN OFF SOME FAST MILES

Harness Races Result in Several Very Speedy Exhibitions.

RED SEAL PACES A REMARKABLE HALF

Breaks to a Dead Standstill and Then Comes Home in 1:06, Winning the Heat in Grand Style.

Yesterday was a grand day for the light harness brigade, and there was a fine attendance at the fair grounds to witness one of the most attractive cards ever presented for the entertainment of a Nebraska crowd. The big stand, while only partially filled, presented a different appearance from the two preceding days. There were hundreds of women in the stands and carriages, and bedecked in cool summer gowns they lent an additional charm to the already entrancing picture. Inside the lawn railings there was a host of drags, traps, carriages and landaus, while about the betting sheds a vast crowd jostled and pushed to get on the good things. At a low estimate there were 3,000 people on the grounds.

While the sky was partly overcast with thin, vapory clouds, the heat was almost torrid and had it not been for a refreshing breeze from the south things would have been anything but conducive of physical comfort. The track was in admirable condition, hard but springy, and fully three seconds faster than on the opening day.

Among the prominent people noticed upon the lawn were: John D. Howe, Mr. and Mrs. John R. Redick, Mr. and Mrs. Will Redick, Mr. Chat Redick, Mr. A. Clark Redick, Mr. Guiou and Miss Helmbaugh, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Kitchen, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. H. Patrick, Mr. Dick Berlin, Miss Woolworth, Mr. John Patrick, Mr. Robert Patrick, Mrs. Howard Baldrige, Mr. Harry Wilkins, Mr. Paul Harbach, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert M. Hitchcock, Mr. and Mrs. Umstead, Mr. Will Paxton, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Greene, Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Collins, Miss Dickinson, Miss Mount, Miss Hovey of Denver, Mr. Al Patrick, Mr. Herbert Martin, Major Wilcox and wife, Mr. Oldfield.

SPEEDY SIDEWHEELERS.

The first race of the afternoon was the 2:13 pace, postponed from the day before. The start was a good one, the pole horse, Kansas Queen, taking the lead until a bad break at the first turn sat her back, and Lena Hill went to the van, but was quickly passed by Miss Mayo, Woodford Jay and Prince T. At the half these positions were unchanged, but at the three-quarters Woodford Jay was on even terms with Miss Mayo and passed her on entering the stretch, as did also Prince T. Kansas Queen, behaving badly, was distanced. Time 2:12½.

The second heat was an exciting one. Woodford cut out the pace, hotly pushed by Prince T. Approaching the first turn, Sol Coleman pulled in on McGuire, who was driving Prince T, and crowding him back into third place. Coleman's horse, Lena Hill, broke here and McGuire in endeavoring to get on the outside, collided with Lena's rear wheel and his bike went over, throwing McGuire into the dust, injuring him but slightly. Prince T made the entire mile on a gallop without a driver. The judges believing the affair an accident, ordered both horses to be in readiness for the third heat. Woodford Jay kept his advantage home. Lee Ward giving him a struggle for the wire. On account of the accident, Miss Mayo, who was distanced, was also allowed to remain in the race. Time: 2:13.

The third heat was full of ginger. Lee Ward was the first to head the procession, with Prince T pressing him hard and Miss Mayo trotting close. At the half Prince T tackled the leader, but breaking badly into the stretch, surrendered his place to Lubonsi, and quickly fell to the rear. Lena Hill finished second under the wire, Russell T third. Time: 2:15¼.

KYOTE'S ALL THE WAY.

The second race was the 2:17 trot. On the fourth scoring the horses got the word on a capital start. It was a bunch to the quarter, when Joy took up the piloting, hotly pushed by Kyote and Godelia. This was continued to the half, when Kyote crawled up on Joy's neck and at the three-quarters got his nose in front. Coming down the stretch Kyote and Joy gave the crowd a horse race, Kyote outfooting the lay gelding and winning by a length and a half. Time: 2:15¾.

The second heat was Kyote's for the whole journey. Prince, Godelia and Joy made a good drive on the stretch, but it was useless, as Kyote went under the wire a clean length to the good. Time: 2:15½.

Kyote went right out into the lead in the third heat and was never headed. At the half the whole eleven horses were so closely bunched that it looked as if any one had a chance, but rounding into the stretch, Kyote drew away and came on home with plenty of room to spare. Time: 2:16.

The final event was the 2:25 pace. Starter Updegraff got the sextette away without delay. Lena Russell led at the first turn, with Red Seal and Master Gilbert pushing her every inch. At the half Red Seal forged up, pacing the distance in 1:06½, remarkable time for a 2-year-old at this time of the year. Master Gilbert kept Red Seal close company and down home under the lash they made a beautiful race, Red Seal winning by a half length. Time: 2:17¼.

The second dash was a repetition of the first. Red Seal broke at the turn and fell back to fourth place. At the half Master Gilbert led, and into the stretch had increased his lead to a couple of lengths. Coming home, Red Seal demonstrated his qualities as a pacer and was quickly in the lead, coming under the wire a full two good lengths ahead. Time: 2:21¼.

Red Seal took the third heat easily in 2:28.

The mile amateur bicycle race was hot stuff, with Gernhardt, Algood, Barnum, Brewer, Flescher, Shrader, Murray, Waters and Barber in the field. Shrader won, with Flescher second and Algood third. Time: 2:30. Brewer was disqualified for foul riding. Frank Sieflkin was referee and Charlie Thomas general manager.

The half mile professional was still hotter stuff. In this were Fredrickson, Mierstien, Proulx, Ashley, Virgil and C. R. Hall. McCall, Gadke and Hibbs. It was anybody's race to within twenty-five yards of the tape, when little Mierstien put on a full head of steam and beat Virgil Hall out by an eyebrow, McCall third. Time: 1:09½.

Pacing Johnny gave a most entertaining exhibition, pacing a mile without a driver and going another against a tandem bicycle.

CURED
Your sample and one box of Hobbs Pills when I have used, relieved me so much of my rheumatism and kidney trouble that I have now discarded my crutches and have no further use for them. I have worn crutches for over a year, but thanks to Dr. Hobbs, I am now better.

BALTIMORE, June 10.—Cleveland narrowly escaped a shut-out today at the hands of the champions. Viewed from any standpoint the game was the finest seen here this season. The home team could make but five hits off Young, while Pond kept the visitors' hits widely scattered. In the ninth inning, with two men out, McKean walked, Burkett singled and a double by Wallace scored the only tallies credited to the Indians. Lightning double plays were the features of the game. Attendance, 5,000. Score:
