PECULIAR OPTION IS FORMALLY ENDORSED

Resolution to Submit the Issue of Bonds for the Purchase of a County Farm at the Next Election

The Board of County Supervisors has dechied that the poor farm shall be located near Eight Mile Grove in Norwalk township, or no farm will be purchased during the next year. The board has passed a resolution approving the option by which the county agrees to take the Cook farm at the fixed price of $18,350, and submitting the question of issuing bonds to pay for it to the vote of the people at the general election next November. When the board came to look at the option the members discovered that they to the voters, and they did so. They, however, dispute the assertion that the farm is sixteen miles from Council Bluffs and six fourteen miles from Council Bluffs and the house lies within three and a half miles from Underwood, on the Rock Island and Milwaukee railroade.

One of the members in discussing the mat-ter yesterday said: "It is one of the fines! farms in the country. If there is any objection to it at all it is to its size. We may of need 500 acres, but we could not buy a fortion of it. We offered $40 an acre for all out two of the eighty-acre tracts, but the offer was refused. We can sell the two eighties for $27 an acre and still have the remainder at $40 an acre. We certainly can have no trouble in getting some farmer to take the 160 acres at that price when land all around is worth more. The property is certainly worth all that is asked for it and the improvements are just what is wanted for poor farm purposes. The farm house is 50x50 feet and two stories high. It contains wenty-three rooms, has two stairways, a the convicted Eldon bank robber, a new trial, rellar 20x50 feet connecting with an arched created an unprecedented scene in court toyelone cellar constructed outside. A wide orch extends around one side and end of the building, and it sits in a spacious lawn overed with cedar and fruit trees. Mr. Cook assured me that the material and work in the building outside of all that he did himself cost over $7,000. It seems to have been suilt especially for the purpose for which we desire it. One thing that largely influ-enced us in making the selection was the location so near the center of the county. We realized that it would be an utter impossibility to carry the bonds at an election unless the people of the east end of the county were fully satisfied. The cry throughout the county among the farmers is that everything must go to Council Bluffs, and if we attempt to locate a farm near the city the farmer vote will be east solidly against the proposition to vote bonds to pay for it. possibility to carry the bonds at an election inless the people of the east end of the the proposition to vote bonds to pay for it. We used our best judgment and did the best we could. The land is in a high state of

Asked for his opinion, he de-clared that the farm was a valuable one, well worth the price asked, but thought it was fair has created great excitement. entirely too large for the purpose designed and likewise too far from the city. "What is needed in my opinion," said he, "is a farm not exceeding 200 acres in extent, of firstclass land that could be mide a model farm in all respects. I know it is impossible to get such a farm in the hills near Council Bluffs, but there are a number of fine farms near town that he in the river bottoms bewhich can be cultivated. The best of every-thing should be raised upon it. It should time ago a move was made by some of Atturn upon the market annually a lot of blooded stock, that could be used to improve curing his commission. His bond was filled shows that the week was generally unfavorable of the proper growth of crops and the quality of the stock throughout county. The statz runs a model farm that is a paying investment, considered finan-cially, and why should not the county do the same? Such a farm would eliminate many of the objectionable charitable features, and instead of encouraging mendicancy, it could be made to have just the opposite tendency."

City and County Ready to Settle with the Centractor for the Macadam. The joint committee of the city council and the Board of Supervisors held a meeting in the city building last evening for the purose of effecting a settlement with E. A. Wickham for the Broadway macadam. The work had been inspected and approved. The engineer's estimate showed that there were 990 yards, amounting to $10,989.90. The city and county had previously paid the con-tractor $5,500, and an order was made last night recommending to the city council and to the county board that the remainder of the total amount should be paid. The board exacted a bond for $2,000 of the contractor that he would keep the road in repair for a period of one year from June 8, 1897, and that he would make any repairs needed within five days after being notified that they were needed on any portion of the work.

Board of Supervisor's Work. The Board of Supervisors put in a large part of the day yesterday in disposing of the regular routine business. During the day a settlement was effected with Supervisor of the Poor Huntington. His report showed that he had expended during April and May for each items $138.77. Several times that amount in orders were issued during the period. In the afternoon the board accepted an invitation from Leonard Everett to ride out over the old Chautauqua road, which is under process of being made into a modern highway under the direction of the board.

Residents of Bellevue are seriously considaskance at or combating particular existing ering the question of issuing bonds to secure street car transportation between that city and South Omaha. Several conferences have and M streets, have gone to Gordon, Neb., been held between a committee of citizens to spend a couple of weeks with friends. and President Murphy of the Omaha Street Railway company, the Bellevueites receiving considerable encouragement. The plan now being talked of is similar to the one considered by the business men of this city last year and provides for the extension of the line from Albright south into Hellevue, a distance of a little over four miles. It is the assessed valuation. Last year the valua-tion was about $50,000, so that an issue of $5,000 in bonds could be voted should the residents desire, which amount would be given to the street railway company as a bonus for building the line. The grades be-tween this city and Bellevue are not as steep as the Dodge street hill in Omaha, and very little difficulty would be encountered in ex-tending the line, as the main traveled road runs mostly through a valley, the only grades being the hill at Avery, and the one just north of Bellevue.

Within the corporate limits of the village of Bellevue are 4,680 lots. Five year bonds would only increase the taxes 25 cents a year. A total tax of $1.25 per lot in five years which are all connected by a long-distance election. Those who are behind the scheme telephone. The new company has announced are confident that should the proposition be its intention to put in a complete circuit in submitted to a vote every taxpayer in the the Hills and has guaranteed a cut in the willage would favor it. The Believue people monthly service to $2.50. The old company assert that they would be satisfied with a follows with the announcement that it will car making a round trip every hour and a

Increased, it is claimed, by fifty or 105 pupils At present the trains run so that a student cannot get down to Bellevue until too late PIERRE, S. D., June 11.—(Special Telegram.)—Another attempt was made today to ling train leaves there several knurs after Outside of the support such a line would derive from the 600 residents of Believas would be the travel to and from Fort Crook, where nearly 600 soldiers are stationed.

It is thought that the business men of South Omaha would be willing to subscribe to the bonus should the street tailway officials refuse to extend the line for a bonus of $5,000. One merchant said yesterday that he thought quite a sum of money could be raised here, as the Bellevue and Fort Crook trade would amount to considerable in the course of a year. Another reason why South Omaha people should work with the Bellecueites in this matter was the fact that if eft to itself the Omaha Street Railway company would build the line along the Thireenth street boulevard, thus leaving South Omaha out entirely.

Police Judge Christmann is on the waroath again as regards tramps and vagrants. For several days past the police have been busy rounding up this class of people and bringing them before his honor for sentence. Where the prisoner appears to be an honest fellow he is given an opportunity to leave the city, but when an out and out hobo is brought before the judge he draws a county jail sentence, with bread and water trim-
