SOCIETY IN MONTH OF ROSES 100.

Commencements Running Neck and Neck with Weddings for Greater Prominence.

HYMEN STILL HOLDS TYRANNICAL SWAY

Departures Are Beginning to Outnumber Arrivals in the Weekly Chroniele_Numerous Social Happenings of the Week.

The activity in the matrimonial field continues well into June without apparent abstrment in spite of a tardy and long expecied rise of the mercury in the tube. People interested in any or all branches of this subject are still obliged to work industriously overtime to keep up with the volume of business, and although what bid fair at one time to become an epidemic, seems to have been in a measure averted, the devastations of the wedding habit during the past week have been many and far reaching in

Only one subject peculiar to society columns has approached hymencal topics in importance during that period. People have come and gone much as usual, although with the near approach of hot weather they are beginning to go a great deal faster than they ; pleasures that are lately past are few and far between, and pleasures in immediate a spect have dwindled to little or nothing. These themes, and the Joys which they represent, are or special interest in the society mason proper, when summer heat is yet long way off and evening dress is worn with proper precautions against pneumonia. But for the commencement stage and all the rapturous pleasures attendant thereon, early June days are set apart with practical unanimity and entire appropriateness. For what more tenderly symbolic than a limp and wilted collar, of the collapse of callow pride before the ardent heat of the world's competition? And from what can the sweet girl graduate more fitly learn that life has its thorns as well as its buds and blossoms than from the roses that on these occa-sions bestrew her pathway? They go out gallantly, these confident young people, to encounter the perils and obstacles which of, but which their sebool training, if rightly applied, will help them to meet and overcome in time of need. And they are presently lost in the mighty throng non humanity, most of them to be thereeforth unknown beyond the narrow cir-cle of their immediate environment.

Meanwhile the school houses are closed, the curtains are down and the timid grass is apringing up in playerounds where busy t no longer rush to and fro. And the child of larger growth, who loves to renew his or her distant youth in the sight of the happy faces of real children on their way to school is denied that perennial pleasure and retreshment until another autumn comes.

High School Alumni Reunion. The reunion of the High school alumni on Friday evening at Metropolitan hall was very successful. There were large representations of every class that has graduated within the last ten years and many from the older classes. The program which pre-ceded the dancing was a "star," each feature being thoroughly appreciated and encores requested of all the musical numbers. The ad-dress of Mrs. W. W. Keysor was very appropriate and graceful. The violin solo of Mr. Robert Cuscaden, accompanied on the piano by Mr. Charles Keefer, won the heartdress of Prof. Leviston was greatly enjoyed. A noticeable fact in the attendance was the unusual number of teachers present, among them thath former and present) being Misses Walker, Towne, McHugh, Wallace, Davis Johnston, Keysor, Wheeler, Landis, Quacken bush, and Okey and Mr. Wigman. Brief let-ters from Prof. H. P. Lewis and Miss Stacla

The occasion was a most enjoyable one and presented neveral novel features which alike attested the ingenuity of the hostess and added to the pleasure of the guests. The principal amuse ment of the afternoon was furnished by a list of thirty charedes, each concealing the name of a flower, which were to be guessed by those present in competition for prizes. In this Miss Bessie Hungate was most successful, while Mrs. Plotner achieved the con-A charming informality marked the serv-

HOW TO FIND OUT.

Fill a bottle or common glass with urine and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys. When urine stains linen it is positive evidence of kidney trouble. Too frequent desire to urinate or pain in the back is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

WHAT TO DO.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills every wish in relieving pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passages. It corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to get up many times during the night to urinate. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists, price fifty cents and one dollar. You may have a sample bottle and pamphlet both sent free by mail. Mention The Omaha Daily Bee and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. The proprietors of this paper guarantee the genuineness of this
