PARIS, June 12-The Grand Prix de Paris, he chief event of the French racing and year, was won today by Doge, owned y M. J. Arnaud. The animal is a brown by Fricandeau, out of Dogaresse.

Second place was won by Roxellane, ch sired by Ward Rore of New York. She In Sterr Dy M. M. Chulte. The third was won by Parasol II, b. c., by Rull, out of Pyrale, and owned by M. A. Abell e. An immense, crowd paid gate money to witness the race. The weather was intensely hot, but brilliant. Many Americans were in the throng, among them J. R. Kenne, jr., and Mr. Elliott of New York, J. Maits, Prescott Lawrence, C. H. Bouten and Ed Smith of Philadelphia; Alexander Griswold and Tracey Dowes. The betting was 6 to 1 against Roxellane, 5 to 2 against Palmiste II, 5 to 2 against Caudeyran, 5 to 1 against Palmist Valparalso, 25 to 1 against Ortic Blanche. The environs of the Grand course are beautiful. So dense was the crowd that at times motion was almost impossible in the vicinity of the place where the mutuals were sold. Some time was spent in getting a good start, as SL Cloud seemed disposed to be unmanageable and frequently broke away. Finally they got off with Flacon leading. SL Cloud next, and the other eight cose together in a bunch. These positions were kept until the rise in the track was reached, when flaxellane and Plainste II forged forward and as they entered the straight Roxellane hed, with Flacon heading. St Cloud next, and the other eight forged forward and as they entered the straight Roxellane hed, with Flacon clous behind. Then Doge, very clevery handled her, and after a smart finish won by half a length, with Parns: II a neak behind Roxellane, the latter beating Quilda by a head. St Cloud was land. The time was 2.31. Spades-Q. Hearts-Q. 9.

Hearts-Q. s. Hearts were trumps, of which the only ones out were jack and eight, placed in north's hand. Jack and other spades were cut. The only three cards in diamonds were placed in west's hand, and as he had discarded on spades could only have clubs. North leads ace of clubs, cast reasons: "If take the next trick porth will make 7 An altempt was made to pull off a finish fight this afternoon between Billy King of this city and W. J. Dacey of California. Th fight was to be held at the fair grounds Just when the crowd was getting ready to start for the grounds Dacey was arreste for vagrancy and locked up in the city jail He was later released on bond, and will have a heating tomorrow. The fight was to be for $200 a side, the men to weigh it at 130 pounds. North leads acc of clubs, cast reasons: " I take the next trick north whi make trump, but if west has the jack of clubs may take every trick." So he plays h queen of clubs on acc and north leads a other club, he plays his ten. West arise to the occasion and takes his partner trick with the jack and leads a diamon The hands and play were as follows
