

THE OMAHA DAILY BEE

Published every morning. Terms of subscription: Daily (without Sunday) One Year, $1.00; Six Months, 70¢; Three Months, 45¢; Single Copy, 5¢.

General Advertising: One square, 10¢ per week; one column, $1.00 per month; one page, $2.00 per month.

Subscription list table including names like E. C. McKinley, J. B. Clark, and others with their respective subscription rates.

THE BEE ON TRAINS. All railroad newsboys are supplied with every Bee...

PARTIES LEAVING FOR THE SUMMER. Parties leaving the city for the summer can have the Bee sent to them regularly...

It looks as if ex-Governor Boies of Iowa were only waiting to be tossed. Bartley has been convicted of robbing the state treasury...

Bicycle riders with scorching tendencies are advised to let the sun do all the scorching necessary this warm days.

The more a public thief steals the more money must the public expend to secure his punishment.

The redoubtable Captain Boycott is no more, but his name has passed into history as well as into the dictionary.

National conventions of the various schools of medicine will be specially welcome in Omaha, and the doctors will recognize the appropriateness of meeting in one of the healthiest cities in the universe.

THE BARTLEY VERDICT.

The people of Nebraska have reason to feel grateful to the court and jury that have fearlessly done their duty in vindicating the law in the trial and conviction of Joseph S. Bartley...

Not to institute invidious comparisons with juries of other judicial districts, it is very evident that ex-Treasurer Bartley was tried by a Douglas county jury—a fact of which Douglas county may be justly proud.

The anxiety with which President Dole wants to unfold Hawaii on Uncle Sam should be accepted the present. It may prove a Pandora's box.

The position taken by the democratic senators from Georgia, South Carolina, Louisiana and other southern states with confidence that the tariff question is finally settled, we are practically all of us in favor of protection henceforth and forever.

It is easy enough to understand why the authorities of Germany prefer that emigrants from that country should go to lands where they will not assimilate with the people...

After three weeks work the experts sent from Washington to count the cash in the New York sub-treasury have completed their task...

Hot winds continue to parch Kentucky. Hot and low, the stormy tempest, and no wonder, it seems that the people have been sold out and betrayed.

Nevertheless, the administration will have the approval of the better sentiment of the country if it shall make an effort to secure a treaty for general arbitration between Great Britain and the United States.

After having gotten away with the greater part of the plunder of the defunct Capital National Bank Wrecker Mosher is trying to help his late associates among the stockholders of the institution hang onto the shares of the body which he generously turned over to them.

It is some consolation to us of the present generation to find that our ancestors were not more gullible than ourselves were to the same tricks and views for which we are constantly reproached.

THE BARTLEY VERDICT.

The people of Nebraska have reason to feel grateful to the court and jury that have fearlessly done their duty in vindicating the law in the trial and conviction of Joseph S. Bartley...

Not to institute invidious comparisons with juries of other judicial districts, it is very evident that ex-Treasurer Bartley was tried by a Douglas county jury—a fact of which Douglas county may be justly proud.

The anxiety with which President Dole wants to unfold Hawaii on Uncle Sam should be accepted the present. It may prove a Pandora's box.

The position taken by the democratic senators from Georgia, South Carolina, Louisiana and other southern states with confidence that the tariff question is finally settled, we are practically all of us in favor of protection henceforth and forever.

It is easy enough to understand why the authorities of Germany prefer that emigrants from that country should go to lands where they will not assimilate with the people...

After three weeks work the experts sent from Washington to count the cash in the New York sub-treasury have completed their task...

Hot winds continue to parch Kentucky. Hot and low, the stormy tempest, and no wonder, it seems that the people have been sold out and betrayed.

Nevertheless, the administration will have the approval of the better sentiment of the country if it shall make an effort to secure a treaty for general arbitration between Great Britain and the United States.

After having gotten away with the greater part of the plunder of the defunct Capital National Bank Wrecker Mosher is trying to help his late associates among the stockholders of the institution hang onto the shares of the body which he generously turned over to them.

It is some consolation to us of the present generation to find that our ancestors were not more gullible than ourselves were to the same tricks and views for which we are constantly reproached.

THE BARTLEY VERDICT.

The people of Nebraska have reason to feel grateful to the court and jury that have fearlessly done their duty in vindicating the law in the trial and conviction of Joseph S. Bartley...

Not to institute invidious comparisons with juries of other judicial districts, it is very evident that ex-Treasurer Bartley was tried by a Douglas county jury—a fact of which Douglas county may be justly proud.

The anxiety with which President Dole wants to unfold Hawaii on Uncle Sam should be accepted the present. It may prove a Pandora's box.

The position taken by the democratic senators from Georgia, South Carolina, Louisiana and other southern states with confidence that the tariff question is finally settled, we are practically all of us in favor of protection henceforth and forever.

It is easy enough to understand why the authorities of Germany prefer that emigrants from that country should go to lands where they will not assimilate with the people...

After three weeks work the experts sent from Washington to count the cash in the New York sub-treasury have completed their task...

Hot winds continue to parch Kentucky. Hot and low, the stormy tempest, and no wonder, it seems that the people have been sold out and betrayed.

Nevertheless, the administration will have the approval of the better sentiment of the country if it shall make an effort to secure a treaty for general arbitration between Great Britain and the United States.

After having gotten away with the greater part of the plunder of the defunct Capital National Bank Wrecker Mosher is trying to help his late associates among the stockholders of the institution hang onto the shares of the body which he generously turned over to them.

It is some consolation to us of the present generation to find that our ancestors were not more gullible than ourselves were to the same tricks and views for which we are constantly reproached.

THE BARTLEY VERDICT.

The people of Nebraska have reason to feel grateful to the court and jury that have fearlessly done their duty in vindicating the law in the trial and conviction of Joseph S. Bartley...

Not to institute invidious comparisons with juries of other judicial districts, it is very evident that ex-Treasurer Bartley was tried by a Douglas county jury—a fact of which Douglas county may be justly proud.

The anxiety with which President Dole wants to unfold Hawaii on Uncle Sam should be accepted the present. It may prove a Pandora's box.

The position taken by the democratic senators from Georgia, South Carolina, Louisiana and other southern states with confidence that the tariff question is finally settled, we are practically all of us in favor of protection henceforth and forever.

It is easy enough to understand why the authorities of Germany prefer that emigrants from that country should go to lands where they will not assimilate with the people...

After three weeks work the experts sent from Washington to count the cash in the New York sub-treasury have completed their task...

Hot winds continue to parch Kentucky. Hot and low, the stormy tempest, and no wonder, it seems that the people have been sold out and betrayed.

Nevertheless, the administration will have the approval of the better sentiment of the country if it shall make an effort to secure a treaty for general arbitration between Great Britain and the United States.

After having gotten away with the greater part of the plunder of the defunct Capital National Bank Wrecker Mosher is trying to help his late associates among the stockholders of the institution hang onto the shares of the body which he generously turned over to them.

It is some consolation to us of the present generation to find that our ancestors were not more gullible than ourselves were to the same tricks and views for which we are constantly reproached.

THE BARTLEY VERDICT.

The people of Nebraska have reason to feel grateful to the court and jury that have fearlessly done their duty in vindicating the law in the trial and conviction of Joseph S. Bartley...

Not to institute invidious comparisons with juries of other judicial districts, it is very evident that ex-Treasurer Bartley was tried by a Douglas county jury—a fact of which Douglas county may be justly proud.

The anxiety with which President Dole wants to unfold Hawaii on Uncle Sam should be accepted the present. It may prove a Pandora's box.

The position taken by the democratic senators from Georgia, South Carolina, Louisiana and other southern states with confidence that the tariff question is finally settled, we are practically all of us in favor of protection henceforth and forever.

It is easy enough to understand why the authorities of Germany prefer that emigrants from that country should go to lands where they will not assimilate with the people...

After three weeks work the experts sent from Washington to count the cash in the New York sub-treasury have completed their task...

Hot winds continue to parch Kentucky. Hot and low, the stormy tempest, and no wonder, it seems that the people have been sold out and betrayed.

Nevertheless, the administration will have the approval of the better sentiment of the country if it shall make an effort to secure a treaty for general arbitration between Great Britain and the United States.

After having gotten away with the greater part of the plunder of the defunct Capital National Bank Wrecker Mosher is trying to help his late associates among the stockholders of the institution hang onto the shares of the body which he generously turned over to them.

It is some consolation to us of the present generation to find that our ancestors were not more gullible than ourselves were to the same tricks and views for which we are constantly reproached.

THE BARTLEY VERDICT.

The people of Nebraska have reason to feel grateful to the court and jury that have fearlessly done their duty in vindicating the law in the trial and conviction of Joseph S. Bartley...

Not to institute invidious comparisons with juries of other judicial districts, it is very evident that ex-Treasurer Bartley was tried by a Douglas county jury—a fact of which Douglas county may be justly proud.

The anxiety with which President Dole wants to unfold Hawaii on Uncle Sam should be accepted the present. It may prove a Pandora's box.

The position taken by the democratic senators from Georgia, South Carolina, Louisiana and other southern states with confidence that the tariff question is finally settled, we are practically all of us in favor of protection henceforth and forever.

It is easy enough to understand why the authorities of Germany prefer that emigrants from that country should go to lands where they will not assimilate with the people...

After three weeks work the experts sent from Washington to count the cash in the New York sub-treasury have completed their task...

Hot winds continue to parch Kentucky. Hot and low, the stormy tempest, and no wonder, it seems that the people have been sold out and betrayed.

Nevertheless, the administration will have the approval of the better sentiment of the country if it shall make an effort to secure a treaty for general arbitration between Great Britain and the United States.

After having gotten away with the greater part of the plunder of the defunct Capital National Bank Wrecker Mosher is trying to help his late associates among the stockholders of the institution hang onto the shares of the body which he generously turned over to them.

It is some consolation to us of the present generation to find that our ancestors were not more gullible than ourselves were to the same tricks and views for which we are constantly reproached.

B. & B. KING & CO. THE OMAHA DAILY BEE. Includes an illustration of a young boy in a sailor suit and promotional text for their clothing line.