BEN BRUSH WINS SUBURBAN

Luck Changes and Dwyer's Colt Carries Off the Honors.

DESPERATE RACE WON BY HALF A LENGTH

Second Place is Held by "The Winner," Who Rushes Very Hard for the Lead—Big Crowd on Hand.

NEW YORK, June 22.—At last luck has changed and Michael F. Dwyer has carried off the great race of the year, the Suburban, with his son of Bramble, Ben Brush, in the fast time of 2:07 1-5. It was a victory for the favorite, and consequently a popular one, and as far as could be seen, was a true run race. The attendance was enormous. Fully 20,000 people packed the lawn, the two tiers of the grand stand, the roof and the paddock, and from the shout that went up when Ben Brush landed the race and Simms was hoisted into the floral jockey's chair, it would seem as though all had backed the winner. The day was a perfect one, track fast, and a better race could not have been desired.

It was half past four before the bugle called the horses to the post. There was a slight delay at the post, owing to the fractiousness of Semper Ego, The Winner and Belmar, but within five minutes Pettingill got them into perfect line and they were away on their journey. The Winner was the first to show in front, followed by his stable companion, Belmar, the lightweight Havoc, Sir Walter, Ben Brush and the others, although there was little to choose between them. The furlong around the lower turn occupied 13 4-5 seconds. Then began the race, for Lewis saw that it was unwise to choke Havoc and gave him a little of his own way, and the colt became the pacemaker. Close behind him was Semper Ego, but Scherrer was urging him, while Havoc was going easily and with a lot to spare. Then came Ben Brush, the favorite, half a length away, with his boy doing all in his power to prevent him from using up all his speed. It was in that order they passed the first half mile post in 51½ seconds, the last furlong of the half being run in 14 1-5, the fastest eighth of the whole race.

Behind Ben Brush were The Winner and Belmar, while the others trailed along with Dutch Skater holding the rear.

CONDITIONS CHANGE.

On the way to the three-quarter pole conditions began to tell and Semper Ego dropped back to the rear ranks, his place being taken by Ben Brush, who at the six-furlong mark was half a length behind Havoc in 1:16 2-5, and a length in front of The Winner, all running free. Now they were beginning the upper turn with a quarter-mile dash around it to the stretch, and Simms gave Ben Brush his head. Lewis did the same with Havoc and lost but little, for in the 25 4-5 seconds required for the run to the mile pole, which was reached in 1:42 1-5, Havoc kept his advantage of a neck, while Ben Brush was a length and a half in front of The Winner, he in turn a length in front of Belmar, the others hopelessly beaten, with not even a chance for third money.

They rounded the turn in safety and straightened out for home. Then Simms began driving Ben Brush, while Lewis was driving but little on Havoc. Ben Brush responded to every lash and inch by inch narrowed the space between him and Havoc. Now he was at the horse's saddle, at his withers, at his ears, and now his nose shot in front and Simms knew that all he had to do was keep on driving. The danger was not all over, for the crowd had dropped the shout of Ben Brush, and Simms heard The Winner's name in frantic yells. He glanced over his shoulders and saw the determined Sloan driving The Winner as only he can and rapidly gaining ground. Then he looked ahead, saw the finish only a sixteenth away and dug his spurs into Ben Brush's sides, madly flogging him. It was a desperate race. Nearer and nearer drew the finish line and nearer and nearer came The Winner. One vicious cut to Ben Brush, one frantic push with knees and heels and he was over the line in safety, winner of the coveted Suburban, with The Winner half a length away, and Havoc stepping fast in the third place five lengths in front of the rest of the field, all badly beaten, with Belmar leading them.

Next to the Suburban in importance was the first half of the double event, in which it looked as if the 100 to 1 shot, Laudeman, would win. He took the lead when he rounded into the stretch, but could not withstand the drive of Littlefield on Bowling Brook and had to be content with second place, with as good as 40 to 1 laid against him for that position. Results:

First race, five furlongs; Clifford, 126 (Sloan), 11 to 10 and 2 to 5, won; Harry Reed, 126 (Simms), 13 to 5 and 3 to 5, second; Sunny Slope, 105 (Doggett), 12 to 1 and 4 to 1, third. Time: 1:01 2-5. Gotham, Tremargo, Set Fast, Full Speed, Eileen and Kaiser Ludwig also ran.

Second race, one mile: On Deck, 113 (Tarall), 6 to 5 and 1 to 2, won; Wolhurst, 10 (Sloan), 7 to 2 and 6 to 5, second; Kriss Kringle, 113 (Morrison), 3 to 1 and 1 to 2, third. Time: 1:42½. Cyril, Ragnol, Li Hung Chang, St. Raymond, Snoke and The Devil also ran.

Sixth race, six furlongs, selling: Gid Law, 105 (J. Hill), 2 to 1, won; Annie M, 108 (Morrison), 10 to 1 and 3 to 1, second; Trolley, 108 (Conley), 9 to 5, third. Time: 1:14¾. Jim Walter, Blanton, Old Center, Cyclone, Sim W and Robinson also ran.

ST. LOUIS, June 22.—Attendance, 5,000. Weather clear. Results:

HON. FRANK M. NYE

After the Strain of the Great Hayward Trial is Threatened with

NERVOUS PROSTRATION.

His Nerves, Strength and Sleep Restored by Dr. Charcot's Kola Nervine Tablets.

MINNEAPOLIS, Jan. 14, 1896.

Gentlemen—The weary months of the Hayward trial involved a severe strain upon my nervous system, and after it was over I was threatened with protracted illness. I needed absolute rest and something to quiet my nervous system. Fortunately a friend recommended Dr. Charcot's Kola Nervine Tablets as a sure specific and I gave them a trial. The effects were beyond my expectations, as I found almost immediate relief. My nervousness gave way to restful and soothing feelings, and I could sleep and eat far better. For nervous prostration I regard Kola Nervine Tablets as invaluable. FRANK M. NYE.

Hon. Frank M. Nye is too well known to need further mention. He is one of the distinguished lawyers of the country, a brother of the late Bill Nye. His experience with Dr. Charcot's Kola Nervine Tablets is that of thousands. The remedy is famous for its cures where other medicines had failed. A trial will convince you of its wonderful merit.
