WASHINGTON, June 24.—The gist of the protest of Japan to Hawaiian annoxation, which was, ead to the senate committee on foreign relations yesterday, is as follow:
The acquisition of Hawaii by annexation, to the United States would deprive the resident Japanese on the islands of rights to which they are at present entitled under the present treaty with Hawaii. At present the government and be books small be printed at $3.50 per volume.
Representative Greene has introduced a bill fixing that teght hours shall belong to the present treaty with Hawaii. At present the government and the books small be printed at $3.50 per volume.
Representative Greene has introduced a bill provides the protect of the United States, and under the present conditions they are entitled to be come of the United States, as the decisions of the United States, as the decisions of the United States, as the decisions of the United States, as the dependent of the United States. By annexation the Japanese now resident in Hawaii would be subject to any measures that may be adopted by the United States. This is construed by the Japanese government mean that the treaty cannot be terminated without the consent of both governments, and as long as Japan insists upon keeping It in force it cannot be abrogated. The Ha-wallan contention is that the words have no such meaning and that any contract or agraement can be dissolved by mutual con-sent as a matter of course; that if the claim of Japan was valid the treaty would be in effect permanently. It is understood that Japan insists that its present claims must be acknowledged and accepted by the United States in case of annexation, although protesting against annexation Proposed Amendment to the Rules of the Upper House.

WASHINGTON, June 24 .- Mr. Hale Maine came forward today with a surprise in the form of a proposed amendment to the senate rule admitting to the floor of the senate only ex-senators "who are not interested in any claim or in the prosecution of the same, or directly in any bill pending before congress." Added to the text of the proposed change is the following: "The purpose of the proposed amendment is to prevent exsonators from enjoying the privileges of the floor of the senate for the purpose of urging or opposing claims or bills in which they are employed as attorneys."

There are a num-ber of big banks of earth in the two down by the city just Sunday. There are a num-ber of big banks of earth in the immediate vicinity, and it would be a short task to transfer a lot of this earth to the alley with a force of teams and scrapers. In view of this possibility, the city legal department has prepared a petition and ad for an injunction and restraining e ready to be signed by one of the judges of the district court. This order will be issued at once, in case the attempt to fill the alley should be made. A recent emend-ment to the old law provides that an in-junction may be issued on Sunday, and the city has prepared to have a restrining order issued at any hour of the day or nigh that it may be necessary. As the alley be longs to the city any attentiat to abstract it could be met by directing the chief o police to enforce the ordinance, but an in junction is chosen as a less radical means of reaching the same result.

The proposed amendment went over. The consideration of the wool schedule was then resumed. In reply to a question of Mr. Veat as to the program for the future handling of the bill, Mr. Allison said it was the purpose to complete the wool, silk and tobacc schedules in the order named, then some ex-cepted paragraphs such as lead, hides, etc The purpose then was to begin with the chem-ical schedule and consider in order such paragraphs as had been passed over.

Mr. Caffery of Louisiana was then recognized for a speech on the general subject of the course of legislation, particularly the tariff, to restrict individual effort and to build giant industries.

In the course of the discussion on wool, Mr White of California asked Mr. Allison if it was true that there was a twelve-months supply of raw wool in the country.

Mr. Allison replied that he had received letters stating this to be the case.

When Mr. Rawlins of Utah asked Mr. Platt if the republican doctrive was that the for-eigner paid the tax the Connecticut senator courteously asked to be excused from replying, because, said he, senators who were amply able to uphold the republican doctrine of a protective tariff were compelled to sit silently in order to secure the passage of the tariff bill within a reasonable time.

Mr. Allen took occasion to criticise sena-tors for debating like school boys on tech-nicalities of the bill. It was rot and non-sense to sit here day after day and discuss this bill. He wanted to see it passed as speedily as possible, that it might be exposed as the "gigantic failure of the age."
