CAME WITHOUT WARNING. The colliding trains were sections No. 4 of a Christian Endeavor special sent out in nine sections, beginning at 10:30 p. m. Section No. 5 ran into section No. 4, which left Chicago fifteen minutes ahead of it. Section No. 4 carried the Wisconsin delegates, nearly 500 strong, and in the rear sleeper were people from Fond duLac, Green Bay, Appleton and other Wisconsin cities West Chicago, where the Freeport line diverges from the main line. Section No. 5 came up behind at great speed, and the shock of the collision was terrific. The pas sengers in the two rear sleepers of section No. 4 were all in their berths and most of them were asleep. They received no warning and those not killed outright awoke to find themselves jammed in the wreckage. sengers on both trains hastened to the spot and began the work of rescue. One of the first of the injured taken out was Engineer Charles Courtney of section No. 5. He had stuck to his post and is so seriously injured that he cannot live.

The body of an unidentified man, supposed to be a tramp, was found between the bag-gage car and the engine. The man had been cruehed to death. An immediate call was made for help. Chicago was notified and asked to send physi-ciaus at once, and medical help was requested from Geneva, Wheaton and Aurora. The engine of section No. 5 struck the rear sleeper of section No. 4 with terrific force. The engine was totally wrecked. Strange to say, the rear eleeper of section No. 4 was not the one to suffer most. It was driven with terrific force upon the second sleeper, and such was its impetus that it crushed through as if it had been of cardboard, and reduced to a mass of wreckage. The passengers the second sleeper were therefore the ones to suffer most, and it was in it that most of the victims were hurt. Mrs. Shipman and Mrs. John Gooding were both in the sleeper Men and women could be seen struggling to extricate themselves from the wreckage Others, pinned down by some crushing weight, were crying for help. There was a profusion of portraits of demoeratic leaders about the walls, but that of President Cleveland was not in the collection. The Ohio state convention last year was not so strongly for free silver as the convention of today, and in the convention one year ago there was some disturbance because of a motion to "turn the picture of Cleveland to the wall." The picture of Senator Brice, as well as other gold democrats, was missing from the galaxy of heroes. The familiar portrait of W. J. Bryan was the center of attraction, and that of the late Allen G. The speech of Chairman Sloane was frequently interrupted with the wildest demonstrations of appliance, especially in his references to silver. The keynote of every-thing was silver. The glee club that entertained the large audience in the early hours sang the silver songs and it was on the sliver chords that Chairman Sloane struck the responsive strain.

The anti-trust resolution presented to the committee last night was offered by Cneper Lowenstein and adopted as follows:

We hereby declare all trusts and monopolies hostile and dangerous to the people's interests and a standing menace to the people interests and a standing menace to the perpetuity of our free institutions, and we demand the vigorous enforcement of all anti-trust laws and such additional legislation as may be necessary for their immediate and final suppression.

Nominations for governor were then in order and the following were presented: Paul J. Sorg, Allen J. Smalley, A. W. Thurman, D. D. Donovan, R. T. Hough, Horace L. Chapman, S. M. Hunter, I. M. Van Meter, A. W. Patrick and James E. Rice. HOUGH PULLS OUT.

The call of counties proceeded slowly. Ham-Ilton county, the home of John R. McLean, divided its vote almost equally between the candidates, to contradict the report that Mc-Lean was dictating the slate nominations. Before the ballot was completed Joseph Dowling withdrew the name of Paul J. Sorg and moved to suspend the rules and nom-inate Horace L. Chapman by acclamation. Great confusion followed. Mr. Chapman is a large owner and president of coal mines. He has never held any office and is very popular with the miners, never having had a strike.

The motion of Mr. Dowling was finally deby every speaker as the only sure way of clared out of order and pandemonium reigned for some time. There were 959 votes cast, with 480 necessary for a choice, The first ballot for governor resulted as

During the second ballot there were several disturbances and more delay than during the first ballot. When Hamilton county cast its seventy-six votes solid for Chapman the tide set in för him and the latter part of the roll call was made with less difficulty. The second ballot resulted: Smalley, 480.

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., June 30 .- Cornell won by three quarters of a length; Columbia second, by one third of a length ever Pennsylvania. The official time: Cornell, 9:21 1-5 seconds; Columbia, 9:22 3-5 seconds; Pennsylvania, 9:23 1-5 seconds. The freehmen race over the two mile course here this afternoon between three American crews rowing with purely American methods was one of the most remarkable in the annals of boat racing in this country. It was magnificant, The freshmen of Cornell, Columbia and Pennsylvania rowed with their heads as well as with their bodies, and showed science that was surprising. The time to not record-breaking, because Yale made the same course in nine minutes and nincteen and one-half seconds last Wednesday, but both Columbia, finisaing second, and Pennsylvania, finishing third, made better time than did Harvard and Yale finishing in the same places last Wednesday.

When the pistol was fired Pennsylvania caught the water first with a swift stroke that showed the nose of her boat clearly ahead of the others. Cornell and Columbia started a triffe more easy and Cornell fell slightly to the year of the New Yorkers. slightly to the rear of the New Yorkers. At the half Columbia was coming along and the Pennsylvania lead of a quarter of a length was reduced to a bare eighth. Down to the end of the first mile there was a terrific race for a place. Columbia's stroke oar caught a crab in the last half and lest about four strokes. M'LEAN'S TACTICS.
