KAISER SAYS HIS HANDS ARE TIED

Regrets His Inability to Dissociate Himself from the Views Held by the Other Powers—Circular by Portia.

LONDON, July 11.—The Daily Chronicle's Athens correspondent says:

I have just seen an important communication from the foreign minister of one of the great powers, declaring that no power is inclined to undertake coercive measures to bring about a settlement between Greece and Turkey.

The Times Berlin correspondent says the Kaiser's telegram to Emperor William, saying the emperor is unable to dissociate himself from the views held by the other powers, is a friendly sign.

CONSTANTINOPLE, July 11.—Queen Victoria, Emperor William, Emperor Nicholas, President France and Kaiser Wilhelm have received the telegram received by them from the Sultan and all give answers similar to that sent by Emperor Francis Joseph.

Emperor William says it is probable that the powers will not take any coercive measures to bring about a settlement between Greece and Turkey.
