WOMAN DISGUISED AS SAILOR THAT SHE MIGHT WED HER LOVER.

Leaving a comfortable situation in a home in an English provincial town, a woman puts on man's clothes and ships as an able seaman with her betrothed husband for the purpose of escaping to a foreign port to pass the remainder of her life in banishment with the man she loved, because of inexorable English law. This is the strange story of Nancy Clifford, now Nancy Anderson, which is being told in the following article.
