CLEVELAND, July 14.—Klobedanz began the game by giving three bases on balls without a strike and the Indians batted him out of the box in the fifth inning, scoring nine runs after two men were out. Wallace's home run hit to deep center, which came with the bases full and brought in the last four runs in this inning, was the feature of the game. Powell took it easy after the fourth and let the Bostons hit it, and there was some great slugging, but the lead was too big. Sivetts replaced Klobedanz after the fourth and did much better, and Bob Allen, late of Detroit, took Long's place at short. Score:

BROOKLYN, 15; CHICAGO, 7.

CHICAGO, July 14.—Two very poor errors followed by a streak of hard hitting gave Brooklyn enough runs in the sixth inning to win the last game of the series. Griffin and Anson's batting and the latter's first base play were the features. Attendance, 1,200. Score:

CINCINNATI, 11; NEW YORK, 6.

CINCINNATI, July 14.—The New Yorks made their last appearance here of the season today and had every thing their own way for the first three innings. Dwyer was hit hard, ten hits being made off his delivery. In the fourth inning Dammann went in to pitch and the Giants could do nothing with him. The Reds had seventh base after the fourth inning. Burke was sent to the bench by Umpire O'Day for interfering with a play at third base. Attendance, 2,500. Score:
