GET A FEW TO RETURN.

Thomas Do Armitt, superintendent of the Now York and Cleveland Coal company, worked hard today to get the miners at Oak Hill to return to work. By a house to house canvass he succeeded in setting a few more diggers than have been at work. Thirtyeven miners went in. The men were told ticularly the property of the Coffeen Coal seven miners went in. The men were told by De Armitt that they would lose all they had carned if they would not work and would be given five days to vacate the com-pany houses. loaded at Plum Creek today. J. C. Dysart a member of the uniformity committee, returned to the city today after a week's absence. He says the work of securing signers will be pushed and he be-lieves the required number will be secured. The miners, he says, cannot possibly win the strike, as the mines still in operation can supply the demand. Some operators are gettheir mines this week. W. H. Simmons, a large coal dealer, says there is no scarelty of coal. Last night 250 cars of coal came into Pittsburg from West Virginia and large quantities are being shipped to Pitisburg from the mines along the Pennsylvania road. The strikers at Turtle Creek have divided into three divisions and will march in the morning on the several mines in operation. The march will begin about 3 o'clock. A party will go to Spring Hill mine, operated by Alexander Dempster, located near Wilmerding. This mine has been supplying the DeArmitt company with coal. Another party will march to Oak Hill as usual and the third company will go to Sandy Creek. The Boon mine at Canonaburg started un expectedly today with thirty-five men and a marching force will march on and try to have this mine shut down.

Conditional Promise of Boggs Run

Men to Quit. WHEELING, W. Va., Aug. 9 .- Matters took a turn in the Wheeling district and the miners are feeling encouraged. A small army of miners from Moundsville and Banwood gathered at the works of the Glendale company, eight miles below the city, and soon induced the working miners at that place to come out to a man. Encour nged by their success at this point the strik-ers, reinforced by the Glendale men and by a body of strikers that had come across the hills from Eim Grove, went to the Boggs Run mines and camped out on the hill. When the miners came out from their work the strikers took them in and secured their promise to remain out during the strike all the men employed by the Boggs Run mine would make the same promise. The army then disbanded, with instructions to assemble at the mouth of the Boggs Run mines at 2 o'clock tomorrow, when the other miners will be seen and their promise stay out secured. It is anticipated that hefore long this will cause a general suspen-

Big Meeting of Ohio Miners.

AKRON, O., Aug. 9 .- A special to the Beacon-Journal from Wadsworth, O., says that during Sunday afternoon and night over 1,500 minors arrived. A monster meeting was held in the Hinsdale orchard this morning at which 2,000 people were present. The meeting was called to order by Chairman John Wheland of Wadsworth. The following towns were represented: Maasillon, Crystal Springs, North Lawrence, Dalton, West Crookfield, East Greenville, Dalton. Canal Fulton, Clinton, Doyleston and Pigeon Run. Speeches were made by district officers and the following resolutions were adopted:

Resolved. That we, the miners of the Mas-illon district, have assembled, and be it Resolved. That no coal whatever be pro-luced in this district until the trouble is settled.

As a result of the meeting eighty miners Card and Barrett's mine and Loomis No. 3 have quit and joined the strikers.

The Home of Hood's Sarsaparilla -A Wonderful Cure.

"A swelling as big as a large marble came under my tongue. Physicians said it was a semi-transparent tumor and must be operated upon. I felt I could not stand it, and as spring came began to take my favorite spring tonic, Hood's Sarsaparilla. The bunch gradually decreased and finally disappeared. I have had no sign of its return. I am glad to praise Hood's Sarsaparilla." MRS. H. M. COBURN, 8 Union St., Get HOOD'S. Lowell, Mass.
