YOUNG TEN EYCK WILL NOT ROW.

Decides Not to Enter Races of the National Regatta.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 12.—Edward H. Ten Eyck, who recently defeated Blackstaffe at Henley and brought the diamond sculls to this country, will not compete in the national regatta, to be held on the Schuylkill river tomorrow and Saturday. His father came to this positive determination this afternoon. He says the young champion is out of condition in consequence of the social functions he has been obliged to attend and lack of practice. Ten Eyck did not to have taken two practice spins today, but after his morning row, his hands, which are badly blistered, began to bleed, and this brought him and the youngster to the resolution not to enter the regatta. They realize that the chances for the latter to win the event would be hard to beat by anyone not in the best shape. The events for tomorrow and Saturday and the order in which they will be rowed are as follows:

Friday—First heat intermediate single shells. Second heat intermediate single shells. Third heat intermediate single shells. First heat senior four-oared shells. Second heat intermediate four-oared shells. First heat intermediate eight-oared shells.

Saturday—Final heats, senior double shells, four-oared shells, senior single shells, intermediate single shells, pair oared shells, intermediate double scull shells, intermediate four-oared shells, intermediate four-oared shells, senior eight-oared shells.

Tennis Tournament.

CHICAGO, Aug. 12.—The American tennis experts scored a clean sweep against their English rivals today, capturing every one of the three matches played in the Wrenhoeste Invitation survey. The victories were by no means easy, but the fact only added to the enthusiasm. Larned downed the cream of Nisbet and Mahoney and "Bob" Wrenn defeated Eaves. The foreign visitors have not won a match of the four played in the international series, and the tourney is thought to lie between Wrenn and Larned, who will meet tomorrow. The other matches are: Mahoney and Eaves, Collins and Nisbet and the unfinished contest between Larned and Eaves.

Won the Beef Dressing Contest.

CLEVELAND, Aug. 12.—At the Cleveland Butchers' union picnic yesterday the beef dressing contest was won by Paul Tetzel of New York by 6 points in 4.02½. H. F. Mullin of Chicago, champion of the world, won second prize. Tetzel has challenged Mullin to a contest for a $2,500 purse.
