One of three pictures is a work which has the picture created such a furore and such Chinese articans to work on this pageda. a stern of objections was raised to its exhibition that it was removed, and has been stored in New York City since that time, The picture is called "The Fall of Babylon," and depicts a scene at the famous feast o Belshazzar when the city was destroyed. It is oriental in its richness, and at the time of its exhibition in Toronto, it was said by celtics to have been one of the finest examples of historic representation ever shown.

The famous painting was brought over from the continent by Mr. Grifflith in 1878, and was exhibited in Toronto under the auxiliary auxiliary and the continent by Mr. Grifflith in 1878, will bring both of his musical aggregations to this city next season.

on Hard Cont. People who want to know how much the will have to pay for their winter supply if coal will be compelled to wait until the railroads announce the rates. The pric which the local dealers will charge will lepend altogether on the rates that they are ble to get from the railroads, and no one fix the rates on hard coal early in August but this year action has been somewhat delayed on account of the strike in the east. For some time the railroads have practically refused to haul coal for commercial purposes and the bulk of their ars are now tied up with soft coal, which they have been hearding against the pos oility of an extension of the strike to western mines. In fact, the local dealers are now having a good deal of difficulty in obtaining cars for steam coal sufficient to upply their regular trade.

It is the unanimous opinion of the dealers that the strike will in no way affect the price of hard coal. The season's supply of anthracite was mined and on the docks bete the strike begun, and the effect of the espension of the mines has been confined to out coal. The dealers have taken no action regard to the local tariff, but as soon as a railroads signify what they will do, the wice that will rule on the Omaha market

POLICE RUN AGAINST A SNAG

Held to Be No Offense to Be Found in Wine Room

POSITION SUSTAINED BY JUDGE GORDON

Officers Contend that There is No Statute or Ordinance Providing for the Abolishing of Wine Rooms.

The police express themselves as much discattsfied with the disposition made by the council last Tuesday night of the ordinance introduced by Councilman Lobeck, abolishing the wine rooms in the city. The ordinance was referred to the city attorney, because some of the members of the council seem to be of the opinion that the statutes make the existence of wine rooms

The pelice assert that there is no statute or city ordinance in existence which abolishes wine rooms. Police Judge Gordon is the city, the guest of Vassily Andrejevitch apparently of the same opinion, for he has discharged the men and women who have been arrested out of the places.

> The police maintain that they are unable to suppress the wine room evil under present conditions, because Police Judge Gordon will not assist them. A dozen men and women have been arrested out of wine rooms since Mayor Moores issued his orders to raid the places and arrest the occupants. Of the number, two pleaded guilty and were fined, but the others were discharged. Police Judge Gordon holds that so long women found in them are not guilty of any offense if they are behaving themselves. He has decided that women have as much right to drink beer and smoke cigarettes in these places as men. In a recent case the evidence showed that a woman was in a wine room with a man, was drinking and was smoking a cigarette. The case resulted in a dismissal

BLAME ALL ATTACHED TO THE CAT. Grief Comes to a Leavenworth Saloon

Keeper. A cut is in some measure responsible for he information of selling liquor on Sunday, which was filed in police court yesterday against J. Harold, the saloon keeper at Twenty-fourth and Leavenworth streets. All other responsibility for this prosecution seems to rest on the shoulders of William Lampinann of the Nebraska National bank and A. H. Stees of the Union Pacific.

These two men allege that last Sunday morning at 10 o'clock they were passing Harold's galoon with a couple of dogs in tow. These animals got after a cat and chased it down the street. The cat belonged to a crowd of half a dozen alleged hoodlums who were hanging about the sation. These men held Stees and Lampmann responsible for the actions of their dogs and set upon them get away, the two went into Harold's loon and purchased a glass of wine apiece. As a result of this story, the police yesterday caused the information of sellng liquor on Sunday to be filed against the saloon keeper. Stees and Lampmann, however, told the story with another purpose in view. They wanted the police to recover for them a hat and a revolver which they lost in an entecunter with the toughs after leav-ing the saloon. They assert that the parties jumped on them and used them harehly. No acrests have yet been made.

GETS HIS REVENGE, BUT NO MONEY. Yocum Succeeds in Securing the Conviction of an Assailant. In police court Wednesday afternoon Jonas Yocum obtained some satisfaction in return for his experience of about a week ago, when he was robbed of $20 and was also badly beaten while in a colored dive in the burnt district.

Ella White, the colored woma accused of the robbery, was discharged on the complaint of stealing the money, was later fined $10 and costs on her plea of guilty to the charge of being a disorderly woman. After he was robbed Yocum made an attempt to recover his money and was se upon by some colored men. These were said be James Wilson, Walter Wilson and William Wilson, and they were also tried Wednesday afternoon on the charge of assault and battery. The evidence showed that James Wilson had assaulted Yocum, and he was therefore fined $20 and costs other two had witnesses to prove that they took no hand in the assault and they were therefore discharged.

BURKE'S STORIES DO NOT AGREE.

After the exclusive publication in The Bee of the drugging of Mrs. Michael Burke, 1111 South Eighth street, last Tuesday night. the police Wednesday afternoon investigated come to have any idea what they will be, the case, having received their first information from the article. They admit that they are nonplussed as to the correct solution of the mystery, but apparently do not take any stock in the story told by the Burkes hat Mrs. Burke was drugged by burglars. To a representative of The Bee, Burke stated that not an article in the house had been taken by the alleged burglars. To the detectives he later stated that $130, which was hidden in one of the trunks that had been forced open, had been stolen

Closing out the Shirts Saturday

At a Tremendous Cut.

(Also certain styles of 20 cent collars at a nickel each.)

The story is short if not sweet. Promptly at 10 o'clock Saturday forenoon you can take your pick from any soft bosom dress shirt in our house at either of two prices-50 cents or 60 cents each. Former values make no difference. It doesn't matter whether they were 85 cents, 90 cents, dollar and quarter or dollar and a half. Saturday they will be either half a dollar or 60 cents-the price depending on the quality of each lot on hand. Hundreds of patterns. Plaids, checks, stripes, randoms, dots. Some silk madras, some linen madras, some Oxlords, some cheviots, some batistes. We make a clean sweep of them all. Sizes 14 to 161. Ten o'clock Saturday. Not before,

PROSECUTE BUTTERINE DEALERS. National Dairy Union Takes Up the Fight.

CHICAGO, Aug. 19 .- Prosecutions on wholegale scale will, it is rein, coon be in stituted against violators of the new butterine law, which prohibits the coloring of imitation butter. It is asserted that dealers in all parts of the city are selling buttering and other preparations in open defiance of the law, and with the mutual understanding that the matter is to be brought to the supreme court to have the constitutionality of the law passed upon. In this it is said Three prominent firms have already bem indicted for violating the law, and evidence is being collected in other cases. The Na
