

THE OMAHA SUNDAY BEE

E. ROSEWATER, Editor. PUBLISHED EVERY MORNING. TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION: Daily (Without Sunday), One Year, $2.00...

A MATTER OF PUBLIC CONCERN. "I do not know Con Gallagher intimately, and I know nothing of his record except that he has been postmaster and is at present deputy in the custom house..."

and divorcing that service from politics. The commercial interests of the country conceived in having an efficient consular service are strongly in favor of the proposed reform.

dictive enterprises, but still there seems to be no reason to doubt that if the demand in this direction should be largely increased, as it may be within the next year or two, the supply of capital in the United States would still be found to be ample.

Means for the upbuilding of the republican party in Nebraska, Mr. Rosewater has no thought of asking or accepting the chairmanship of the state committee, a position which would require him to devote to it exclusively his time that already has important demands upon it far exceeding its limits.

SECULAR SPIRITS AT THE PULPIT. "Pioneer Press": A Brooklyn clergyman remarks that the Sunday paper is "a curse," and then cynically adds that he does not know from what church he should be taken away one. There is a chance for a philanthropic journal to do a little missionary work.

DOMESTIC IDYLS. "Puck": "Say, old man, you are so absent-minded. Is he ever you are in love?" "Chicago Record": "Diggs, have you had any rest this summer?" "Yes, my wife went up in an elevator the other day; it stuck, and she stayed up there twenty minutes."

STATEMENT OF CIRCULATION. State of Nebraska, Douglas County, ss: George H. Tamm, secretary of The Bee Publishing Company, being duly sworn, deposes that the actual number of full and complete copies of the Daily Morning Bee and Sunday Bee printed during the month of July, 1897, was as follows:

This is the exact language used by a prominent business man when asked his opinion of the appointment of U. V. Gallagher as chief of police. While it is decidedly at variance with the general sentiment of the business community, we quote it to show how readily men of standing are led to acquiesce in an act which threatens to inflict the most serious disorders upon the city in reckless disregard of the demands and interests of the taxpayers.

The city of Omaha is entitled to the most ample police protection which the proceeds of the taxes levied specially for police purposes will afford. The members of the police commission who control the expenditure of the police fund are pledged under oath to make only such appointments and promotions in the force as will promote and insure its greatest efficiency. They could not live up to that oath without selecting as the chief of police the most competent and experienced man available.

AGITATION IN FAVOR OF LOWER INSURANCE RATES. The agitation in favor of lower insurance rates is not confined to Omaha. In nearly all the large cities of the country the underwriters are being called upon to explain why decreased fire risks and diminution of losses by fire do not justify a demand for reduced insurance rates.

PERSONAL AND OTHERWISE. "Chicago Tribune": "Dear," said Mrs. Grouch, who has shined her head and face with a picture of a hat with a pretty woman's face on it. "I wish you would get me a hat like that." "I'll be glad to," granted old Grouch, "if you will only get a face like that."

THE BEE ON TRAINS. All railroad newsmen are supplied with enough Bees to accommodate every passenger who wants to read a newspaper. Ticket agents have got the Bee in their pockets. If you cannot get a Bee on a train from the news agent, please report the fact, stating the train and railroad to the Circulation Department of The Bee. The Bee is for sale on all trains.
