of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Joslyn next Tuesday evening promises to be the most brilliant affair of the kind ever attempted in Omaha. Owing to the generosity of citizens it is possible to decorate the grounds in a lavish manner. A great number o incandescent lights and several are lights headlights from the railroad companies and ndreds of Japanese lanterns will combine to give sufficient illumination. The from Fort Crook will furnish music, and a pavilion will be provided for dancing. Ar musical program has arranged. Mrs. Winston has charge of the dancing, and Mr. Wilson and Mr. Chase will act as floor managers. Mrs. Offutt, as provided a supply of bathing costumes, and an attendant will be in charge of the dres-ping rooms. Mr. and Mrs. Rogers have the supervision of the music. A unique and elaborate scheme of decoration is being carried out by Mr. and Mrs. Paul Charlton. The gypsics, flower girls, dairy maids and Japanese wemen will all be in costume, and their wares will be offered for sale in various at reasonable prices. The admission fee will be low, with an even smaller charge for children.

Walter B. Roberts returned last week from four-weeks' outling in northwestern Mon-ana. Most of the time he put in fishing for trout and hunting along the headwaters of the Sun and Teton rivers, several nice strings of fish rewarding his labors with the od and a fine stag head attesting his provess with the rifle. One or two bear were seen out Walter did not tackle them, saying his gun was too light. The members of the Home Circle club of South Omaha have again resumed their resi-lences in the Magic City after a most de ghtful three weeks' outing, spent camping in Dr. George L. Miller's beautiful grove t Seymour park. The camp was located the southeast corner of the grove near the s. & M. depot and was laid out in the form of a circle, the mess, cook and store tents at one end and the family tents completing the circle. The men went to and from their business every day in buggies, on horseback and on bicycles, leaving the women and children to put in their time to suit themselves-fishing, berrying and tramping through the woods. In the evening the members of the dub usually had a good sing, entertained company and went to the lake fishing. On Thursday evening, August 12, Dr. and Mrs. Miller gave the club an elegant reception and for two or three hours the spacious halls of the doctor's beautiful mansion was the scene of as jolly a gathering as that part of the county has witnessed in many Kelley and Miss Helen, Colonel and Mrs. A Lott and Master Antone, Mr. and Mrs Bruce McCulloch, Master Hugh and Misses Cordella and Mary Craig, Mr. and Mrs. L. Stone has a bad record, he having been Stone has a bad record, he worked the onvicted in Omaha of having worked the adlock game on a couple of travelers at he union depot. He was sentenced to a ong term in the penitentiary, but is out bail pending a rehearing.

Frank E. Munn, an attorney of Omaha tho came down here claiming to represent stone, sought to intimidate the state's witesses yesterday by causing the arrest of O. T. Brown on a charge of gambling. After Brown had testified against Rae, Munn went to Omaha and secured a warrant for Brown in a justice court. Brown was taken to Omaha. Mayor Ensor said that as Brown came here in answer to a telegram from him he would look after his interests and see that he secured his liberty. The mayor eels sore at the support, or rather lack of upport, being given him in this move. The stock yards company professed to be willing to spend $5,000 to break up the gang, but since the arrest of the leaders the mayor says that not an official of the yards has and a word to say about the case, the gen eral manager not even inquiring how the resecution was progressing.

Another thing the mayor is sore on is the ction of some of the councilmen. Caldwell uring his liberty the first day of the trial nother councilman, who frequently makes ree, has absented himself from the fter he saw that there was trouble ahead. Proprietors of the tough foints invist that usiness the licensed houses must close up Rae and Stone have been so far unable furnish bail and are still confined in the city

Working for Improvements. Members of the East Side Improvement club have caused a census of that portion of the city lying east of Twenty-fourth street and north of N street to be taken. A warrant was yesterday afternoon issued out of police court for the arrest of Ruby Rosenberg, who is employed in a second-hand store near Fourteenth and Douglas streets, on the charge of concealing stolen property. The prosecution was started by Morris Rosenblatt. A few days ago Rosen-blatt's wheel was stolen. He accused one Gus Smith of the theft and swore out an in-formation against him on the charge of lar-ceny. He alleges that now he has learned that Smith turned the wheel over to Rosen-berg, but the latter refuses to give it up. berg, but the latter refuses to give it up,
