A vigorous effort on the part of W. J. Broatch, D. H. Wheeler and others to prevent the convention from selecting the new county central committee, and to elect Broatch as chairman of the delegat on to the state convention, took up a considerable part. of the time of the convention, but was finally . Yo defeated by a decisive vote.

The convention was called to order at 2:30 o'clock by Chairman Lewis of the county central committee and after Secretary Lunt had read the call Mr. Lewis introduced J. L. Kaley of the Ninth ward as tempotary chairman. In taking the chair Mr. Kaley congratulated the delegates of the favorable circumstances under which they met. They Lemke, all realized that they were on the winning Cormick elds and would carry Douglas county by a largely increased majority. COUNTRY RETAINS ITS GRIP.

H. T. Leavitt returned to the charge and offered a resolution by which the county central committee was instructed to base the representation on the republican vote cast each ward and precinct in calling the next and all subsequent county conventions. James Walsh made a motion to table the resolution, which he afterwards withdrew, and C. S. West of the Seventh ward offered a resolution instructing the committee to adopt the Crawford system of voting as a

The chair ruled that the substitute was in order and this led to interminable confusion, as the delegates attempted to discuss the two resolutions together. G. R. Williams made a vigorous appeal for the country representation which was loudly cheered by the country delegates. He declared that the increased representation had been given to the country to bring the farmers back from the vagaries of populism. and that now when the work had been well accompliahed the party could not afford to turn them down.

Walker wanted the word "precincts" struck from the resolution, leaving the country with its present representation, but this was not seconded, and James Austin of South Omaha shut off further discussion by a mo-tion to table both resolutions.

H. T. Leavitt tried to induce the chair to recognize an amendment to refer the resolu tions to a special committee, but failed, and the motion to table was carried by 97% to

WHAT TO DO.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills every wish in relieving pain in the back. kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passages. It corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of 1 sing compeliied to get up many times during the night to urinate. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best.
