URUGUAY IS RIPE FOR A REVOLUTION

Crisis Has Long Been Pending and the Assassination Will Doubtless Bring Matters to a Focus at Once.

MONTEVIDEO, Aug. 25.—During a national fete, which was held here today, President J. Idiarte Borda was shot and killed by an assassin.

Senator Borda died almost immediately after he was shot.

Another attempt to assassinate the president on the afternoon of April 21 last.

On that occasion, the president, accompanied by his aide, Lieutenant Colonel Turanzo, had been horseback riding.

Another attempt to assassinate him was made on May 29, when he received a bomb sent to him from La Plata, Argentina.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 25.—The assassination of President Idiarte Borda of Uruguay, which took place today at Montevideo, here, who have watched the recent outbreak in Uruguay.

The last issue of the Montevideo Times, received here today, states that the president remained away from the state house in evident fear of his life.

Much interest attaches to the nationality of the assassin of the president.

"It would not be surprising," said one diplomat, in speaking of the affair tonight, "if the murderer belonged to the socialists or anarchists.

LONDON, Aug. 25.—A dispatch to the Morning Post from Buenos Ayres says that while the assassination of President Borda is universally denounced, his removal from the sphere of control is regarded as a good thing for Uruguay.
