Wallace Bros, of the Live Stock exchange sold a bunch of eartie to a farmer living at Bellevne Wednesday afternoon, and the drive to that village was commenced at once. On the way down two steers played out and wers left beside the road, it being the intention to return yesterday and pick them up. When the new owner went to look for his steers he could not find them. From persons living along the road he learned that Albert Jones, who lives on the island below Believue, had loaded one of the steers into a wagon and carried it away. Another man was seen to load the second animal into a wagon and drive away, but his identity has not yet been learned. Wallace Bros. engaged an silorney yesterday and a demand will be made on Jones for the atcer. In case he refuses to to part with the animal he will be arrested. A search is being made for the second steer, out us yet it has not been located.

Hucksters Arrested for Fighting.

John Brandon and John Sutton, both Omaha peddlers, are in jail on a charge of assaulting J. A. O'Banion. The hucksters came down here to sell berries and soon became engaged in an altercation with O'Banion over the price of fruit. O'Banion says that Brandon struck him first. At any rate O'Banion was hit and in falling his head struck the curbstone, cutting a deep gash. Brandon escaped, but was captured in a clump of weeds, where he was hiding, by Officer Deters. Sutton was afterward arrested. It was necessary for a physician to be called to dress O'Banion's wounds, after which he swore to complaints charging Sut-
