NEW YORK, Aug. 28.—The attendance at Sheepshead Bay was excellent, the card good, the weather warm. The Ocean handicap was a fine race, aside from some crowding as the lot ran into the stretch. As they swing into the stretch Belmar came on the outside, while Hastings squeezed through on the rail, and there was a rattling finish between Sloan and Taral, in which the former managed to squeeze in by a head. Then came complaints of foul, which were disallowed. Rondon was badly crowded. After the race Taral was suspended for two racing days, Simms for one and Powers for one for insubordination at the post. The stewards of the Jockey club decided that there was nothing dishonest in the riding of Penn at Brighton Beach and restored him to good standing. Neumeler, who was summoned for his riding of Marshal at the same track, was also reinstated pending investigation by the full board of stewards. Results:

was a good sprinkling of the feminine sex. To give the affair the proper air a band was on hand and rendered selections of music between the events.

The racing was good, some excellent time being made. The best time was 1:11 in a haif mile pace. Everything passed off smoothly with the exception of some ill feeling on the part of a South Omaha contingent, who seemed to think that they were getting the worst of it. This feeling almost culminated in something serious at the conclusion of the 1:20 pace. In the last and deciding heat of this race Billie Pierce, a South Omaha horse, which was on the outside, jumped or was driven to the pole immediately after leaving the wire, striking the other two horses in the race. The thing had all the appearance of a faut and the judge decided it to be such, although the driver lalleged that he was unable to control his horse. The decision went, however, to the very apparent satisfaction of the biggest part of the audience and Billie Pierce was sent back to the third and last place in the race, although he crossed the wire first.

NEW YORK, Aug. 28. Calcago sent a dozen specially trained athletes, among whom were Heineman, the heavy man; Kraenzlein and Richards, the hurdiers; Maybury and Rush, the sprinters, and Barrett, the half-miler. All the western men, since their arrival a week age, have been the guests of the New York Athletic club at Travers island, and they, as well as the representatives of the "winged foot," came on the grounds this afternoon in perfect condition for what was called the athletic battle between the east and the west. The greatest interest centered in the meeting of Wefers, the world's champion sprinter, with Maybury and Rush of Chicago. Despite the fact that Maybury and Rush were considered capable of pushing Wefers to his utmost, the runner from Georgetown college was a favorite of odds of 4 to 1, and although a party of three New Englanders was on the ground with money to back the champion, they failed to secure any important bets from friends of the westerners. cago sent a dozen specially trained athletes.

Maybury won his trial heat handily in ten and one-fifth seconds, while Wefers won his in the same time, with a little to spare. In the final of the 100 Wefers came away like a streak and won by two yards from Rush and Maybury, who, according to the judges, ran a dead heat for second place. To many of those who were close to the finish line, it was evident that Rush was some inches ahead of his clubmate, but the decision of the judges did not change the final result, as the second and third points went to Chicago. The time, 94-5 seconds, just equaled the American record. Wefers and Maybury met again in the final heat of the 220-yard dash, which the former won by five yards in 21-25 seconds, when Maybury was seven yards ahead of Ehrich for second honors. Summaries:

440 yards dash: Won by T. E. Burke, N. Y. A. C.; A. J. Townsend, Chicago A. A., second; M. W. Long, N. Y. A. C., third; J. H. Rush, Chicago A. A., fourth. Time: 6:49. Burke won by ten feet. He led the way throughout. Townsend, who was tiring badly, fell across the tape and got second place by a couple of linches.

One mille run: Won by J. F. Cregan, N. Y. A. C.; Alexander Brodie, Montreal A. A. U., second; R. Grant, Toronto A. A., third. Time: 4:27-3-5. Cregan won by fifteen yards, fifteen yards between second and third.
