Mrs. Morgan Dying as the Result of Sheriff Morgan returned yesterday from Lewis, the home of his aged mother, who was brutally mistreated by masked burglars in her home at midnight some time ago and who left her bound and gagged for several hours. The sheriff says that a good deal of active work is being done on the case, but he is fearful that it will not result in bringing the guilty parties to justice. Mrs. Morgan is over 70 years old and the rough treatment she received has left her in a very enfeebled condition. Her face and neck are still swolen from the injuries she received while the men were binding and gagging her. A bundle of clothing was forced into her mouth with such violence that her lips of James Meginness, C. L. Gillette and E. were bally bruised and were so swollen for D. At this juncture the convention was officially advised of the existence of the perspiring populists down in the basement. With the announcement came the information that they were anxious to fuse while everything was hot. The bearer of the intelligence also acquainted the convention with the fact that the populists had organseveral days afterwards that she could only talk with great difficulty.

inclined to insist upon the two candidates originally suggested and the democrats posltively refused to recede from the instruc-tions that had been given by the party leaders to permit the name of only one populist to appear upon the county ticket. Various positions were suggested on the ticket when the populists found there would be room for only one, and a compromise was finally reached by agreeing to give and accept one, and a compromise was finally the choice of naming one of the candidates for the legislature. When the populists put forward the name of H. S. Alexander of Macedonia the democrats recalled the time when he used to be a bright and shining light and they welcomed his candidacy with enthusiasm and the report was fixed up.

RESOLVE SOMEWHAT. When the convention reassembled in the afternoon the reports of the committees were presented. The report of the organiza-tion committee made the temporary officers permanent. ### TEN YEARS SICK.

Victim of Nervous Dyspepsia and Nervous Prostration.

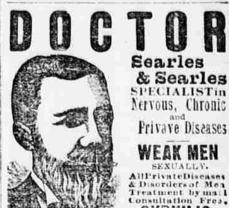

Onalaska, Wis .- For ten years I have been the suffering victim of nervous prostration and nervous dyspepsia. I cannot begin to tell you or remember the remedies I have taken or the prescriptions. I have tried.
Take what I would, I grew worse instead of better, and was well-nigh discouraged. Then came the grateful change. One month ago—on the advice of my brother, who sent me a box—I commenced taking Dr. Charcots Kola Nervine Tablets. I have taken one box and gained five pounds, but that is nothing compared to the physical relief I have experienced. I am better and happies than I have been for five years. If I could make the recommendation stronger I would
