in Department of Public Works. With three big paving contracts and . number of smaller ones to be completed this fall, in addition to a number of sewer contracts, there will be more opportunity for mployment in public works during the next hree months than has been offered in Omaha for several years. In order to complete these contracts it will be necessary for the contractors to employ as many men as can be used to advantage and altogether the operations will afford temporary employnent to nearly as many men as would be involve nearly 100,000 yards of paving, exclusive of guttering, curbing, paving be-tween street railway tracks and extras. The ntire cost of the improvements will Monday morning the Omaha Street Rail-way company will set a big gang of men at work on West Farnam street. The north track will be reconstructed first, so that that side of the street can be paved and then traffic will be thrown to that side structing the tracks. It will put a force of men at work resetting the curb Monday morning. Inside of a week the repaying will probably be in full operation. An effort will also be made to secure a majority petition for repaying the remaining four blocks or Farnam street and carry

The Center street paying will begin as soon as Contractor Murphy puts in a few blocks of curbing. This has been delayed by a controversy over the bond, but this has now been adjusted and active work on the etreet will begin at once. There are 17.265 yards of macadam to be laid on Cen-ter street, in addition to 2,409 yards of brick includes 924 yards of paving.

The Twenty-fifth, Eighteenth and Seventeenth street jobs, on which the material has not yet been designated, contemplate about 12,000 yards of paving.

The time in which the property owners on South Sixteenth street may designate material does not expire until September

ANDERSON GETS INTO THE TOILS.

Arrested on the Charge of Insulting Women. served many terms in various penitentiaries.

Some years ago Peter Anderson worked in this city as a messenger boy and then ec-cured other employment. About four years ago his father took him in hand and the rested in Council Bluffs for turning a trick, after which both were sent to the penitentiary. When he completed his sentence, Young Anderson went into business on his own account, and a short time afterward was arrested for a confidence game worked in Montana and was again sent to the peni-tentiary. He has been out come three menths. He is now about 24 years of age.

of the street while the south side is being paved. The Grant Paving company is ready to begin paving as soon as the street rail-way company has made a start on reconout the preliminary legislation in order that these blocks may be finished with the re-mainder of the street. The present contract provides for repaying the street as far west as Fhirty-eixth street, but so far the petition for paying from Thirty-sixth to Portieth street has not secured the required signaguttering and the curbing.

The Omaha Building and Construction company will soon begin paving Dayenport street, from Thirty-eighth avenue to Thirty-ninth street, with vitrified brick. This job material does not expire until september 20, but there is no question but that asphalt will be designated and the contract will be immediately awarded to Hugh Murphy at $1.22 a yard. By rushing the final ordinance through the council it is expected that work can be begun on this street before October 1 and fit ished this fall.
