Attorney General Points Out the Way to Reach County Judges.

HOW TO GET NAMES ON OFFICIAL TICKET

If the Populists and Democrats Are Not Differentiated on the Basis of the Vote of Last Fall Courts Must Be Asked.

LINCOLN, Sept. 6 .- (Special.)-The attordey general today handed down the following opinion in regard to the identity of the fusion parties:

fusion parties: LINCOLN, Neb., Sept. 4, 1897.-Hon. J. H. Edmisten, Chairman People's Independent Party, Lincoln, Neb.: My Dear Sir-You inform me that one of the county judges of the state "has announced this he will rule that the people's independent party and the democrats were one party has fall." be-cause, as he alleges, he "cannot tell from the returns which each party casts," and you ask me whether or not his position is correct in point of law. While the law makes it the duty of the county judge to appendit "one judge of elec-$10.

Correct in point of law. While the law makes it the duty of the county judge to appoint "one judge of election from the party polling the highest number of votes at the last general election in the precinet, and one judge from the party polling the next highest number of votes at the last general election in the precinet, and one judge from the party polling the next highest number of votes at the last general election in the precinet, and one judge from the party polling the next highest number of votes at the last general election in the precinet, and one judge from the party polling the third highest number of votes at the last general election in the precinet. The party polling the third highest number of votes at the last general election in the precinet. Therefore, the party seeking to establish this right to a judge of election may offer any evidence competent to prove the fact. To illustrate: Suppose the only vote cast in a given precinet was for the republean vick a case if the populists call, say, five men and prove by them that they voted as populist in that precinet as democratic to democratic to be the right of the democratic to be a democratic to be by them that they voted in populists and prove by them that they voted as populists and prove by them that they voted as populist and prove by them that they voted as populist is in that precinct for the populist monified number of the democratic to and if the democratic to and should have knowledge of the fact-for every intellight mank nows it to be a fact-that the democratic bound and should have knowledge of the fact-for every intellight mank over it to be a fact. This involves much labor and should have knowledge of the fact-for every intellight mank nows it to be a fact-that the democratic for the democratic to a democratic budge should have knowledge of the fact-for every intellight mank nows it to be a fact that the field of population for the democratic have the democratic have a speceed the democratic have a speceed by the speceed as the de the populists four electors), and that each cast some votes therefor. By pursuing this course the democratic, populist and repub-lican parties would each be entitled to one

In the event that the gold democrats (either branch of the prohibition party clai a judge, then it would be necessary to ca wilnesses to prove that either the popula or democrats, or both, as the case might be polled more, if that be the fact, than either the gold democrats or either branch of the prohibitionists. The law vesting the county judges with the power to appoint judges and clerks of election is a good one because it is well calculated to produce honest elec-tion boards and hence bonest elections and no man desiring that result, be he judge or layman, should put anything in the way of the enforcement of the law. Neither should any party be deprived on a techni-cality of its right to representation on the board. The law should be liberally con-strued to subserve the right of each party to a representative. s gold democrats or either branch of th board struct to subserve the right of task part to a representative. If, however, county judges are found who are bent upon the annulment of the law, or who are disposed to twist it into the service of party purposes, they should be taught their duty through a writ of mandamus issued by the district court of their district. Very truly yours, C. J. SMYTH, Attorney General. Attorney General.

The ten-year, 4% per cent renewal bonds, aggregating $206,500, just issued by the city, will be sold at a premium of .03079 per cent, with par and accrued interest. This makes the total premium $6,358.13, and the rate is fully 25 per cent higher than has ever been paid for similar bonds issued by the city. There were thirteen bids for the bonds and with one or two exceptions they were all far above any that have been previously received on this class of bonds. The bids were opened by City Treasurer Edwards yesterday in the presence of a number of other city officials and the representatives of the bond buyers.

While it was expected that the city bonds would be disposed of at an advantageous figure on account of the good name that Omaha bonds have acquired and the large amount of capital that is now seeking investment, the figures which were offered were even more liberal than any one expected.
