BALTIMORE, 5: LOUISVILLE, 1. BALTIMORE, 5: LOUISVILLE, I. BALTIMORE, Sept. 8.—The champions took the first of this sories from the Louis-villes in a dull and uninteresting game. Waddell, President Pulliam's new south paw pitcher, pitched a good game, but worked against some very hard luck. But for Stenzel's error in allowing Clingman's grounder to go through him, the Colonels would have been shut out. Attendance, 1,800. Store:
