Judge Macy Decides Implement Dealers Stocks Are Exempt.

COUNTY TREASURER IS ENJOINE

Aultman-Miller Contend Goods Are Held in City for Transfer Purposes Only and the Court Sustains the Contention.

If the supreme court, which will eventually pass upon the matter, sustains a decision rendered by Judge Macy on the district bench yesterday there will hereafter be a loss of several thousand dollars in the amount of taxes paid here annually by the big wholesale implement warehouses. It has been the practice for many years to assess the stock kept on hand in the implement warehouses as the stocks of other wholesale and retail merchants are assessed, as pergive a vocal concert in connection with a sonal property. This has always caused full orchestra in the Grand Plaza, Lake Man-more or less trouble, and many of the implement dealers have objected on the grounds that the goods are simply held in transit ing for several months at Ogdensburgh, N. and not stored here for sale, as claimed by will soon leave that place for Sycamore, the county and city ascessors. Hence the court was asked to enoin the selling of the company's make their home here until they can com-

The claims of the implement company were warmly contested by the county, and while admitting that under the lowa laws all goods held in transit were not subject to ocal taxation regardless of the length of the period, the attorneys for the plaintiff claimed that these goods were not so held, but were really consigned here for sale and were kept here until sold, thus making them the Lincoln post at Grand Army hall at 1:30

S'clock this afternoon for the purpose of attending the unveiling of the monument erected in memory of Compade Barden and made perpetual the injunction the goods were in transit, subject only to axation in the county in which they were originally manufactured. The decision is of great importance to a large number of other implement ware-houses in Council Bluffs, which are operated as direct branch houses of the factories. Each of these houses pays several thousand dollars a year into the local tax fund, and if the decision of Judge Macy is upheld it will divert somewhere between $10,000 and $20,000 annually from the tax fund. The county will carry the case up and procure a reviewal by the supreme court.

Prizes have been offered for mile, half mile and three-mile professional and amateur races, and the local managers are sparing no pains to make the meet a success. A number of fine riders, such as Pixley, Mc-Call, Barnett and many others are expected here, and if the weather is favorable the meet will be the swiftest thing here in sporting circles for many days,

BRADY SAYS CORBETT WILL FIGHT Expects Carson City to Offer a Better Purse Than New Orleans. DES MOINES, Sept. 11.—(Special Telegram.)-W. A. Brady, manager for James J. Corbett, is in the city and said tonight that Corbett will accept the offer of $20,000 from New Orleans for a fight with Fitzsimmons, although it is hoped a better proposition can be secured. He said he believed Fitzsimmons would be compelled to give Corbett another fight, for the reason that he has given return matches with some of his other adversaries, and, moreover, the sporting public demands this justice to Corbett, and will refuse to interest itself in any other fight of Fitzsimmons' till he shall give Corbett another go.

Mr. Brady announces that he is making a deal by which he expects to come into control of the sporting franchise at Carson City, and that he hopes to see the next fight there. He says It is possible, on account of the valuable privileges that can be controlled there to have a fight and make money out of it, even if there is no attendance at all. He expects that a purse of $30,000 will be offered for a fight there, and that the contest will go there instead of to New Orleans.

NEW YORK, Sept. II.—In an interview at Newark, N. J., today Bob Fitzsimmons, the pugilist, in reply to the offer of the Northern Tulane club of New Orleans of a purse of $20,000 for a fight between himself and Corbett, said: "I will not fight Corbett again until he makes a reputation. Let him fight someone else. He quit like a yellow cur on the 17th of last March; besides, I have retired." Corbett, who is now in Wheeling, W. Va., has stated that he would accept the offer of the Northern Tulane club if Fitzsimmons would agree to fight him. that Corbett will accept the offer of $20 000 from New Orleans for a fight with Fitzsin
