the Republican County Committee.

COMPLETE REORGANIZATION IN HARMONY

Charles F. Tattle Chosen for Secretary and E. J. Cornish for Treasurer_Meeting an Enthusiastic One.

The republican county central committee met at Creighton hall yesterday afternoon p was authorized to appoint an executive com-mittee of nine members, and Chairman Williams stated that he would announce the committee at a future meeting.

JEFFERSON PRECINCT PRIMARIES. Petitions from voters in Jefferson precinct. both for and against the Australian system in the primaries in that precinct were re-ferred to the executive committee, as was also a request from the Central Republican club of the Third ward asking to be allowed to name half the judges and clerks at the primaries.

only other feature of the meeting was an effort on the part of Mr. Reifield's deputy, Zimmerman, to make a little medicine for his seceding superior by introducing a resolution which provided that since on Omaha publication had repeatedly made charges to the effect that Frank E. Moores was a de-faulter, the county attorney should be requested to at once begin criminal proceed-ings against Mayor Moores.

The animus of the resolution was at once

Charley Unitt was the first man recognized and he exposed Zimmerman's motives in a manner that brought out repeated cheers from the committee. He said that this was the third or fourth time that such a resolution had been introduced before republican committees and conventions. It had resolved itself into a question whether the committee should stand by its nominees or by a man who would assassinate in the dark the man whom the republican party had elected to the highest office in the city government.

Fort Crook named Martin and Henry Walker. It is said that she promised to marry Walker, and the date of the nuptials was set for some time next month. Martin heard of this arrangement and Friday night took the woman to the house of Julia Fredericks at 103 South Night street. He accused her of jilting him for Walker, and it is alleged that he flourished a gun in her face.

Martin heard of this arrangement and Friday night took the woman to the order of litting him for Walker, and it is alleged that he flourished a gun in her face.

The woman went into hysterics and threat the republican party had elected to the highest office in the resolutions was set for some time next am American enough to believe that every he has been convicted by a jury of his peers. I believe we should stand by our nominees as against the calumnies of his political opponents. This resolution comes from a man who, although he is a member of the republican county central committee, is en-gaged in organizing clubs in the various wards of the city for the avowed purpose of defeating the republican nominee for county clerk. If Redfield knew that Frank Moores was a defaulter why did he not say so, instead of waiting until after the republican convention had declared that Moores was the man whom it wanted as its standard bearer. But no, he wanted to pose as a martyr and stab the candidate of his party In the back. And now, I want this commit your charges. Run independently if you want to, and we will nominate a man who will be elected in spite of your treachery."

SKINNING AN INGRATE. that the matter raised by the resolution was issue in this campaign. It had been in the last campaign and the peoale had repudiated the charges and elected Frank E. Moores. Moreover, the resolution was practically a criticism of the county attorney, and what right had this comhad neglected his duty upon the evidence who did not even vote the republican ticket seemed to be trying to make this a post mortem campaign with the assistance of the popocratic organ. He scored Redfield and declared that this grand stand play was too apparent to deceive any intelligent man. D. L. Johnson of West Omaha said that he had been a political friend of Redfield's, but when Redfield assumed that he was greater than the republican party, that he was the only pure man in the party and the only one who was competent to be county clerk, he could not endorse his position. Why was this resolution introduced? It was as plain as the nose on a mau's face that it was purely for the purpose of mak-ing political capital for Redfield. He thought it would get into the newspapers and adver-tise his independent campaign.

Zimmerman obtained the floor to explan that the resolution was not aimed at the county attorney, and in response to a ques-tion he admitted that he did not intend vote for the republican candidate for unty clerk. He was freely hissed by the lobby, and after Fred Bruning and several others had spoken in opposition to the resolution, it was laid on the table by a practi-

EARLY COMPETITION. "My partner, Judge Porter (now of Los Angeles), and myself were appointed agents for the packet line. The travel was large. the competition between the boats and the stage line was strong, and I assure you we had lively times working for business. after the establishment of the packet line the Hannibal & St. Joseph sent a passenger agent here. It was our old friend James Reed, now with the Lehigh Valley. Some of our experiences in getting business were very rare. For reasons that are plain to every ticket agent—they paid commissions in those days-I was anxious to sell railroad tickets from St. Joseph. I wrote to the gen-eral passenger agent of the Hannibal & St. Joseph requesting him to send me a few forms as an experiment. He did so, sending me eight forms to the principal cities of the country. This was the commencement of the selling of railroad tickets in the then territory of Nebraska, and it was so successful that it was but a short time until he sent me a full line of tickets. I shall always remember selling the first ticket in the territory, over which occasion we had quite an ovation. It was to New York via the Hannibal & St. Joseph, the Burlington and the Pennsylvania railroads. It was the first coupon ticket ever sold in Omaha and we celebrated it, I think, with lemonade. So matters went along until the Kansas City & St. Joseph was completed to Council Bluffs. when the packet line was discontinued and remained with the K. C. as ticket agent."
