

RACING AT THE STATE FAIR

and Crowl Watches a Trio of Very Interesting Events.

SKILLFUL DRIVING IN THE FIRST TROT

McCoy Shows How a Colt Can Be Held Down and Loses the Money as a Result of His Handling.

There was a good big crowd at the races yesterday afternoon. The grand stand was fairly well filled and there were scores of carriages, buggies and gay traps in the quarter stretch.

The first race, the 3-year-old trot, was called promptly at 1:30, with four starters. He held out fairly well until several laps. Keystone and Annie E. quickly had it back to themselves. May North followed back to a respectable distance and Harry S pulling up a poor last. Curry behind him led Cleverly round, as they made good themselves thoroughly, as they made good neck chase of the whole mile. McCoy, however, being compelled to exercise a good deal of ingenuity to hold Kentucky in check. As it was managed to win by a nose under a strong pull, an experienced reinsman might well be proud of May North after having acted badly at the outside, recovered herself in the last lap and finished third, although she and Harry S were well ahead of the rest.

McCoy's Comedian seat, as they made good themselves thoroughly, as they made good neck chase of the whole mile. The second event was the 2:14 pace with four starters. After a tiresome delay of half an hour the big hand was sent away well run out. Tom Lee had the pole, but was displaced in the first turn by Clinton Briggs. Ward, who reached the quarter in 0:32. Nearing the half mile Harry S. and Tom Lee, who were well ahead of the rest, were in front, but only for a moment. Harry forging into the van and remaining there until the finish. Time: 2:14 1/2. Nell Caffrey and Harry S. were second and third.

The third event was the 2:30 trot, purse $500. The horses were sent away well on the trot, D. O'Leary first showing the way. From the first quarter, however, the race was confined to Nell Caffrey and Harry S. the former winning by a length. Time: 2:30 1/2. After one scoring the horses were sent away in a line in the second heat. It was a good race, Nell Caffrey leading and Harry S. much better than the bunch that he robbed the struggle of all excitement. Time: 2:30 1/2. The third heat North Star made a couple of losing breaks which cost him the heat. Roscoe won by a nose from Lucy Cotton, who had the best of the Star by about the same distance. Time: 2:30 1/2.

The afternoon's card closed with a one mile running race $100. Billy Travers won, Billy Sunderland, second. His time, third, time: 1:45. Estate and Ogil also ran. The Roman big diploma of a half mile, landing running race, was much enjoyed by the spectators. The race was won by a consistent starter of the runners, understand a business and got the bragging off in front.

VIEWED BY MANY THOUSANDS

Inger, W. M. Glass and Elmer E. Bryson. The Ancient Order of United Workmen headed it. The band of the order, with twenty pieces under the leadership of William Lee and Drum Major Charles Fay, came first. Following marched the drill team of Ak-Sar-Ben lodge, the men in blue blouses and white pants under command of Captain L. D. Pickard and Lieutenant H. Foley. Other members of the lodge without uniforms came next. Behind marched the drill team of the City lodge, No. 98, commanded by Captain H. P. Peterson. Finally the drill team of Washington lodge, Degree of Honor, rode in a coach drawn by four horses. The team was attired in the robes of office. The captain was Mrs. Hattie Jordan.

The Fraternal Union of America had an attractive section. At the head was a carriage containing Supreme President F. F. Hays and wife, Deputy Supreme President O. Bailey and Mrs. Yotum. Then followed three bands. The first was the band of the fraternal union, draped in the American flag and crowned and bearing in her hand a standard which announced the name of the society that had been paid out by fraternal societies in insurance. The goddess was represented by a handsome young woman, Miss Vanah. At her feet were grouped thirty-two young girls in white, upon whose breasts were emblazoned in gold the letters of the name of the order. Behind this came two more bands, one representing the comfortable home left by deceased members of insurance orders, and the other showing the miserable legacy left by parents who died without insurance.

The Young Men's Christian Association Junior Military band of twenty-seven pieces, directed by Leader C. L. Shook and Drum Major B. E. Coy, was at the head of the National Alliance of Theatrical Stage employees, under command of William C. G. Each man carried a cane. Following marched a big contingent from Independent Playmakers union No. 1 of Nebraska. The men were under the direction of John Willard and Vic Maloney. Each man was attired

BOSTON FALLS DOWN AGAIN

Drops a Game to Brooklyn by a Score of 22 to 5.

BOSTON, Sept. 21.—By a strange mixture of hitting and poor fielding Brooklyn piled up twelve runs against Boston in the first inning of the first game today. The Brooklyn men made seven safe hits in succession and six men had gone to bat before the Brooklyn men were retired. Seven of the runs were made after two men were out. In the fourth, with the bases full and three runs scored, Hickman was placed in the box and after the first two innings did fairly well. Dunn pitched and fielded his position finely. The second game abounded in sharp hitting, excellent pitching and fine hitting, being a decided contrast to the first game. Lewis played an enigma, and Whitney, Long and Duffy, Collins and Hamilton were notably effective. Score, first game:
