Sanday Dee, One Year... Saturday Dee, One Year... Saturday Dee, One Year... Weekly Dee, One Year... OFFICES:

OFFICES:
Omaha: The fee Building,
South Omaha: Singer Bik., Cor. N and 24th Sts.
Council Bluffs: 19 Pearl Street,
Calcago Office: 51; Chamber el Commerce,
New York: Rooms 15: 11 and 15, Tribuns Bidg.
Washington; 50) Fourthenth Street. CORRESPONDENCE.

All communications relating to news and editorial matter should be addressed. To the Editor. BUSINESS LUTTERS. All business letters and remittances should be addressed to The Bee Publishing Company.

Omaha. Drafts, checks, express and postofice money orders to be made payable to the order of the company.

OMPANY. THE BEE PUBLISHING COMPANY.

STATEMENT OF CIRCULATION. e of Nebrasia, Douglas County, sait orge B. Tzs huck, secretary of The Res Pub-

Less returned and unsold copies.....

TO STATE FAIR VISITORS.

THE OMAHA DAILY BEE. SPECIAL VISITORS' HOURS.

Visitors to the fair are invited to inspect the unexcelled newspaper facilities of The Ree. In order, however that there may be no confusion they will be asked to accommodate themselves to the following hours: The press room on the ground floor of The Bee building and opening upon the west side of the court will be open to the public between the hours of 3:30 and 4:30 each afternoon. The composing room on the sixth floor, entered through room 600, will be open to the public each afternoon from 4 o'clock to 5. No one who visits the State fair should go away without seeing the finest newspaper. plant in this part of the country.

THE OMAHA DAILY BEE. THE BEE BUILDING.

THE BEE ON TRAINS.

All railroad newsboys are supplied with enough Bees accommodate every passenger who wants to read a newspaper. Insist upon having The Bee. If you cannot get a Bee on a train from the news agent, please report the fact, stating the train and railroad to the Circulation Department of The Bee. The Bee is for sale on all trains.

INSIST ON HAVING THE BEE.

"Progress and Prosperity" is the watchword of the republican party.

Cornhusking bees promise to regain their old-time popularity in Nebraska this coming winter.

Omaha never does things by halves. The superb illuminations in honor of Ak-Sar-Ben would do credit to any city of half a million people.

The merchant who advertises is the merchant whose store is crowded with lowed to rust on his shelves.

If the popocrats are thankful to Providence for the increased price of wheat, to betterment of the silver market?

The improvement of the railway pason new trains.

in the poultry department of the State fair, but that democratic game rooster and false birds.

The man, woman or child within railroad distance of Omaha who deliberately throws away a chance to visit the State fair and Ak-Sar-Ben pageants throws

Douglas county populists are t be the first to put their local ticket in the field. If any one is going to walk into the fusion parlor in this county this year the populists propose to furnish the

When the mighty potentate, Ak-Sar-Ben, calls at the city hall for the keys of the city, he will find them just as untarnished and true as they were when they were delivered to him for the day a year ago.

Bryan is amply able now to pay railroad fare, the same as is required of the common people, but it is a great deal known, therefore, in regard to a big cheaper to work the railroads for free passes on the pretended account of a crop here, we had started on the road

The Greeks do not like the conditions of peace imposed upon them by the they want out of the victors. The disby avoiding the war in the first place.

Judge Sullivan, the democratic nomines for supreme judge, was elected to the his democratic followers and republicans last June than they now are, to the who wanted to down his populist op- great gain of labor and all other interponent. Yet Mr. Sullivan appeals to populists to come to his support, even if they have to lose their party identity to vote for the democratic candidate.

JUDGE SULLIVAN'S CONVERSION. candidate for supreme judge.

mocracy of 1896, which he says he helped perity. to draft, as a proof of his sincere adherence to each and every doctrine and principle enunciated therein. As a clincher he declares: "There has never been and could not be at any time among doubt of my ardent support and approval | new blanket ballot law: of every plank in the Chicago platform."

The platform which Judge Sullivan prides himself in helping to draft, every word of which he says he indorses, contains the following declaration:

We are in favor of the election of United people.

When was Mr. Sullivan converted to this principle and what has brought 9.573 question?

In 1886 the people of Nebraska, under the constitutional provision which authorizes the popular expression of choice for United States senator, by an overwhelming vote proclaimed Charles H. Van Wyck their choice for the United States senate. Did Mr. Sullivan respect the popular will as expressed through the ballot box? Did he not deliberately join with railroad democrats and railroad republicans in a conspiracy to defeat the popular will? Is not his vote on record in the journals of the house of representatives of 1887, of which he was a member, for J. Sterling Morton, George L. Miller and other pronounced gold democrats whose candidacies were notoriously in the interest of the corpora tions?

But this is not all. Can Judge Sullivan square his present professions of faith in the people with the record on page 242 of the 1887 house journal? That record shows that on January 13, 1887, the following memorial was presented by Mr. Horst of Polk county, now a prom inent populist:

To the Honorable, the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America: Whereas It is the sense of this house that existing circumstances demand the election f United States senator by the people Your memorialists, the house of repre entatives of the state of Nebraska, respect fully petition your honorable body to submit an amendment to the constitution of the United States providing for the election of United States senators by a direct vote of the people. The vote as recorded shows that Sullivan voted for the indefinite postponement of the resolution, thus killing the true test of his make-up, no other conto be deposited in the ash bucket after it the purchase or safe of stock. has served its use.

CAUSES OF PROSPERITY

The New York republican state committee, in its address to the voters of that state, says: "With the fact established that a party was in power which | would never tolerate the thought of disowning the country's obligations, which would maintain at all hazards the national credit, which would never allow anything stamped as an American dollar to be of less value than a dollar of gold, and upon the passage of a new people and whose goods are not al. protective tariff, assuring to the people plenty of work, fair wages and a ready market, confidence was at once resto ed. Let it be admitted that the chief cause of returning prosperity is good crops whom are they thankful for the recent and an enlarged foreign demand for them, still it is true that restoration of financial confidence and improved industrial conditions were absolutely essenger train service and the increase in sential to a return of prosperity and mail facilities will be appreciated by the these things have come through repatrons of the railroads that have put publican success and republican policy. Those who ascribe the better times entirely to crop conditions ignore the fact There is a dazzling array of male fowls that improvement began immediately after last year's election, months in advance of any knowledge that this counseems to have gone astray after other try would be called upon to supply a Europe. Within thirty days after the the competition of Canadian roads. victory for sound money and protection there was a marked revival of industrial activity and the number of employes in into Canada and from there resnipped the manufacturing establishments of the to the United States are subject to the away one of the best things life brings country was increased by tens of thousands. At the same time the distrust which for months had pervaded financial were whether goods coming through a circles, prompting capital to the most extreme conservatism, was dispelled and business men who were before unable to obtain money found no difficulty in getting it to the full extent of their subject to the duty, in cases where the credit. The financial and business constraint preceding the election was relaxed as soon as the victory for sound These questions the attorney general anmoney and protection was known and from that moment the march toward prosperity begun. With this crop conditions at home or abroad had nothing be foreseen. Long before anything definite was wheat deficiency in Europe and a good stockholder in the Omaha World-Herald, to prosperity. Obviously the causes then operative were the restoration of financial confidence and the assurance of a change of tariff policy that would jutreaty settlement with Turkey. But diciously protect the industries of the then the vanquished seldom get what country and increase the demand for labor. The delay in securing the latter satisfaction could have been avoided only retarded the advance to prosperity, but still there was progress. Had the new tariff law gone into effect two months earlier than it did, as the republicans sought to have it, the manufacturing indistrict bench by a combination between dustries would have been more active

> We do not undervalue the importance of crop conditions as a factor wheat and the advance in the price of criticism or exaggeration, but the plain Public men are not to be judged by agricultural products generally has been facts are given for the information of their professions, but by their acts. of immeasurable benefit to the country. voters." Then the Chronicle goes on: While the adage that wise men change But what we contend is that returning "If a man's qualities are to be estimated and fools never holds good in politics as prosperity here is not wholly due to de- in this world solely on his ability to acelsewhere, there is a vast difference be- ficient crops abroad, as the silverites and quire wealth, Mr. Shaw may rightly be Daily Bee (Without Soniay), One Year... 35 to scientious conviction and a change for Daily Bee and Suring, One Year... 5 to policy's sake. This profiles with greater policy's sake. This applies with special better times than for several years. We bigoted, unsympathetic, arrogant money force to Judge Sullivan, the democratic insist that the restoration of confidence changer. In politics he is a narrow-In his awkward attempt to explain the enactment of a tariff law that has san." All this of yourse is in no spirit his eleventh-hour conversion to the free given encouragement to our manufactur- of "unfriendly criticism or exaggerasilver cause Judge Sullivan refers to lng industries and employment to labor tion." the platform of the Nebraska silver de- are potent causes of returning pros-

WHERE THE BLAME SHOULD REST. An open confession is good for the soul,

The Quill editor awears every time he be in use this fall. It is a shame that people will send to the legislature a lot of chumps who feel called upon to do something and then the people must suffer for it afterward. We had a fine ballot and States senators by the direct vote of the aside from a little amending our election laws and provisions were all right. The last legislature was one that causes every populist to blush with shame every time it and good-bye populist party in Nebraska.

> Who is to blame for this outrage upon the people? Governor Holcomb in his message to the legislature of 1897 declared unqualified opposition to any change in the Australian ballot law that would put a premium on illiteracy by facilitating wholesale voting with one comes time to vote? cross mark. But when the fusion legislature sent for his approval the very become a law. If any swearing is to be he should not bestow his blessings upon the legislature alone, Had Governor Holcomb had the courage of his convictions and vetoed the bill it could not have become the law, inasmuch as the legislature had adjourned immediately after its passage.

THE STOCK EXCHANGE DECISION. The decision of Judge Foster of the United States district court at Topeka, that the Kansas City Live Stock Exchange is an illegal organization, violating the Sherman anti-trust law, is of general interest. If it should be sustained by the higher tribunals to which appeal will be taken a number of stock and other exchanges throughout the country will be affected.

While the Kansas City exchange is entirely voluntary in form and does not directly require any person in the live stock commission business to become a member, it has a rule prohibiting any member from dealing with any person violating any of the rules or regulations of the exchange, A commission merchant attempting to do business at the Kansas City stock yards without Joining the exchange-for which a membership fee of $2,500 must be paid—is regarded as viomemorial. Taking the record made by lating the rules of the exchange and Judge Sullivan as a legislator as the is consequently boycotted. Thus a monopoly is created and maintained, for clusion can be reached than that he, no one attempting to do a commission like other political weather vanes, re- business in live stock independently of gards party platforms as mere fly paper | this organization can get any business, to catch the unwary and credulous and whatever inducements he may offer for

The court declared that the ultimat purpose of the exchange is to control and monopolize the entire business of buying and selling live stock at the Kan sas City stock yards and in this it violated the anti-trust law. This appears to extend the scope of that act, but it seems to be entirely consistent with the interpretation of that act by the supreme court of the United States in the Trans missouri Freight association case. There is no doubt as to the monopolistic char acter of the stock exchange and there are many like it in the country, but the essential point to be established is whether the business of the members of the organization is interstate commerce. Justice Foster held that it is, but his reasoning in this connection is no absolutely convincing. On general prin ciples, however, the decision is pretty certain to be widely approved. SECTION 22 OF THE TARIFF. Attorney General McKenna's opinion regarding the application of the 10 per cent discriminating duty in section 22 of the tariif law leaves existing conditions unchanged. This will be entirely satisfactory to New England and the northwest, but a great disappointment to the American railroad interests which had large deficiency in the grain crops of hoped for an opinion that might shut out

The attorney general some time ago gave the opinion that goods imported discriminating duty. The questions upon which he has just expressed an opinion configuous foreign country in bond are subject to the discriminating duty and whether goods brought in foreign vessels, other than the country of origin, are United States has no treaty with the country to which the vessel belongs, swers in the negative. Thus ten and other foreign products will continue to be brought into the United States over Canadian railroads and foreign vessels whatever to do, because they could not will go on bringing merchandise here from any part of the world, unless congress shall amend section 22 so as to make the discriminating duty apply as those who had it inserted in the law intended it should. It is probable that an attempt will be made to do this, but it will be found very difficult, if not impossible, to accomplish this, because it would encounter the united opposition of New England and the northwest. It is pretty safe to say, therefore, that there will be no congressional action in the matter and that the opinion of the attor- | party ney general, which is of course approved by the president, will be accepted as conclusive.

"It is right and proper," says the popocratic Chicago Chronicle, "that the voters of Iowa should know the kind and character of man whom the republicans have nominated for the exulted office of governor. Mr. Shaw's record is here in the restoration of prosperity. Dollar given, not in the spirit of unfriendly and sagacity, in the stability of a sound currency and minded, prejudiced unreasoning parti-

The new chief-of police protests that under the slot-michine licensing ordinance he has nothing else to do but to give police protection to the automatic The Schuyler Quill, whose editor was skin games, notwithstanding the existelected to the state senate of 1895 as a lence of a state law making the keeping the people of this vicinity the slightest populist, has this to say concerning the of gambling devices a punishable offense. If the council should pass an ordinance licensing footpads and burglars the same thinks about the blanket ballot which will illogical logic would compel the police to see that the criminals were not molested in their work of holding up belated pedestrians and robbing people right and left. The police can not hide behind any ordinance for their failure to enforce the

We notice that good middle-of-the-road about his complete summersault on this is mentioned. Another such a legislature populist paper, the Schuyler Quill, proposing several plans of fusion on the Colfax county ticket, in which only populists and democrats seem to figure. What has become of the so-called silver republicans? Are there none of them in Colfax county? Or is it that they do not count except as gudgeons when it

> Judge Sullivan tries to explain his lukebill he had denounced he allowed it to warmness in the silver cause and refusal to enlist in the army of silver orators done by the independent voter this fall last year on the ground that it is not proper for judges to take the stump. This version may gull the gullible, but the gold democrats with whom Mr. Sullivan has always trained can give an-

Perhaps the county attorney can give that committee of ministers a little more satisfaction than the reform police commission on the question of enforcing the gambling laws against the owners and operators of the automatic gambling

Mexico is anxious to unload some of its marchists and assassins upon the United States. The United States has a plenti ful supply of evil-doers at present and would much prefer to let Mexico take care of its own people who come within that class.

Just Bappened So.

Gloss Democrat.

It will be observed that the passage of a republican tariff happened about same time that prosperity knocked at the Promises Without Performance. General Weyler has cabled his government that he will have Cuba pacified in four months. As nobody any longer believes what Weyler says, the announcement will not artract serious artention.

Now Wind Up the Concert.

The treaty of peace which has just been signed by the ambarances and the suiten assures protection for German bondholders and makes more secure the bondage of those Armenians who have not been slaughtered. We will now close with a song by the Euro-

Nothing Surprising About It.

Philadelphia Pres It is not surprising that wheat should advance under a regulican or any other administration under existing foreign conlitions. Neither is it surprising that factory loors should always swing outward, spindles turn and anvils ring during a republican administration and immediately following lemocratic and calamity-howling era. It's not at all surprising.

The Onward March.

Another tribute to American manufactur ig superiority is conveyed in the announce nent that Japan is about to abandon the English steel rail on its imperial railway and substitute for it the heavier American known as the Pennsylvania standard. Japan is a wideawake country, with keen commercial instincts, and its preference for American manufactures, if sufficiently enouraged, may do much to change the exting trade relations in the far east.

"We Have Money to Blow."

The eastern press is disposed to criticize western communities for paying large sums to hear Bryan talk. While it is regarded as undignified for a presidential candidate to place himself on a level with big pumpcius and fut hogs as a county fair attraction et Bryan is not so much blamed for filling purse as his audiences are for being 'gulled" out of their cash. The eastern press cen't quite understand the situation. Money is so plentiful with western farmers unity and never miss it. They were so long ut money to spend that the spending "blow in" a few dollars seeing big pumpkias, fat swine and windy erators, why begrudge them the pleasure? Farmers must have amusement as well as city folk.

Dry Pock Scandals Philadelphia Ledger. Whether or not the Indiana was seriously erience, following that of the Columbia at authorities; the disasters may be as there is no reason to doubt that they in the cases under consideration, iness and unfamiliarity with the handof such extremely heavy ships, but still t creates suspicion and distrust, and these quickly generate an unpleasant feeling bewoon the nations. "The Indiana's case furan additional reason, and a very why this country should have its dry docks, suitable for any emergency, it is hoped congress, at its coming session, may be induced to take this view ci

RETURNING TO COMMON SENSE. Bryanism Sidetracked by the Democ racy of the Empire State. New York World. The action of the state committee in ignorthe Chicago platform and nominating Judge Parker was the most important political event to the democratic party since the defeat of Bryan. The first official act of the organized democracy of New York since the presiden election was to turn its back on the Chicago platform. It did this not merely incidentally and casually, but deliberately and purposely. It so acted in the face of a strengous demand for an indorsement of the 16 to 1 folly, and in spite of a threat that the free silver adherents would bolt the As if to emphasize this return of the organization to a same and true democratic policy, the committee nominated for chief udge of the court of appeals an upright udge and independent citizen who rejected

Chicago platform and refused to vote In leading the state committee to this ourse Governor Hill has shown that, as dr. Gladstone said through the World on a notable occasion, "only common sense is necessary" to guide parties and nations into paths of peace and honor. The exADVANCING PROSPERITY.

Globe-Democrat: Business failures in the United States have declined to about 170 a week, against an average of 260 a week in the September of four preceding years. Last Last year's September average was 300 a week.

Minneapolis Journal: Croakers who try to discount the return of prosperity by pointing to the advance in price of many commodities forget that this advance demonstrates a bet-ter demand for these articles, showing that the consumer is better able to purchase many things which in the past he has had to deny himself.

Kansas City Star: The most gratifying feature of the present improvement in business is the plain evidence of its permanency Business cannot go on much longer increas ing at the present rate, but the gains made will be maintained, and though there will be natural temporary reaction the general tendency will be upward for a long time to All rational people recognize this, and sensible business men are shaping their af-fairs with that idea constantly in mind.

New York Mall and Express: The value of our imports during August was $39.876,640, the smallest for any month in eighteen years. The exports during August were valued at $79,497,820, the largest of any Augus ecorded by the bureau of statistics and an increase over those for August, 1896, of $12,-807,839. Here is a thirty-day score which broadens the smile on the face of the counand indicates what the farmer is doing with his surplus grain.

Philadelphia Record: With the progress of autumn the last of the markets and trades to benefit by the renewed prosperity are beginning to experience a genuine revival of business. The iron trade and the shoe and leather industry have both experienced notable improvement during the past week. wheat markets have been fairly well main-tained despite some loss in values, and the wool situation continues as strong as ever Cotton has been at the mercy of much lous speculation on futures. The wheat novement has been large on both the Atlanti and Pacific seaboards. The seaward movement of the cereal in Oregon has broken the record; but there have been recent injurious rains in the Snake river valley. The usual legree of heat, with widely prevalent drouth conditions, has injured the late planting of The entire corn crop is now estimated at 1,175,000,000 bushels.

PERSONAL AND OTHERWISE

The ice man still lingers in the lap of the oal dealer. The European concert is practically ove xcept for the party who is to pay the bills. For the moment the railroads are monopolizing the casualty columns, but they wil be sidetracked presently by foot ball. A rolling mill in Cleveland, O., has re seived an order for 1,000 tons of bar steel from manufacturers in Birmingham, Eng. Chairman Jones-Jones of Arkansas-is ac used of addressing the New York democrats with two tones in his voice, but whether both vere silver tones is not recorded. Having pinched Greece for the benefit of oreign holders of Turkish securities, the ambassadors of the powers agree that their labors represent the loftlest form of European statesmanship. The saying that talk is cheap calls for revision. The Bell telephone people have re-ceived dividends amounting to 10 per cent on eight months' business, and there are our months to hear from.

Governor Pingree of Michigan delivered an address of welcome the other day at the annual convention of the Concatenated Order of Hoo Hoos, at Detroit, after an introduction by the presiding officer, the Grank Spark of the Universe. In his opening address on the eastern situation at Brown university on Wednesday, Dr. Andrews quoted an unfamiliar saying to to beat an Armenian and two Armenians to beat the devil. By reason of a law passed by the last legislature of Onio lynching is likely to become unpopular in that state. Helrs of lynched persons are entitled to sue the ounty wherein the lynching occurs for $5,000. When taxpayers go down into their puckets for the ducats, it is not probable they will be anxious to contract the bill. A of the law is about to be made at Urbana.

roof to cellar with electricity. The dining room, kitchen and wine cellar are all con nected by means of a miniature electric rail-way. In order to convey things from one room to another the article required has only to be placed on a little car, a button pressed and the car is almost instantly where i ought to be

Ex-Senator Ransom of North Carolina ho, until recently, was minister to Mexico is always the pink of courtesy, but there has not been in this day and generation a more expert dodger of the interviewer than Gen eral Ransom. His inquiries after the health of the reporter and his words of welcome are cordial and redundant, but when it comes liciting a single opinion or comment from the veteran tar heel statesman there has no yet been found the newspaper man who could compass that feat.

THE PRICE OF CORN.

Condition of the Market and the Prospects of an Advance. Kansus City Star

People who have been looking for th price of corn to go to a higher level, following the great advance in the wheat market, were disappointed by the drop of several cents that occurred last week. Corn in Chicago is now selling only a few cents above tha extreme low prices on record. It seems anomalous to see corn selling for less than 30 cents a bushel while wheat is worth nearly a dollar. A vigorous speculative movement set in a few weeks ago, which carried prices up about 6 cents a bushel, but it so hapis a positive luxury. If they want to pened that this wave swept into the market just at a time of extraordinarily large receipts in Chicago, which piled up such enormous stocks of corn at that center that many buyers got discouraged and sold out, putting the price down again.

There is no satisfactory way of accounting for this big movement of corn to marnjured in the Halifax dry dock, its ex- | ket. It is more than twice as large as the movement at this time last year, whereas mhampton, should be enough to deter our there are good reasons why it should be vernment from ever again attempting to much smaller now than then. The crop ck these big vessels in a foreign country, this year is not as large as that of last year. e may be no malice on the part of There are fewer farmers who are forced to sell by their financial necessities. There is so much more profit in wheat and in live stock now than at that time that the farmer might naturally be expected to hold the cheaper product, corn, and supply his needs by selling those commodities which yield him greater profit. It is true that many big producers have nothing but corn to sel But there are so many thousands of farmers who raise both wheat and corn, and who feed much of their own corn to live stock, that the higher prices of wheat and live stock ought to have a pronounced effect in keeping corn off the market.

It will probably turn out that the recent great receipts of corn were due to special mporary causes, and that before long there ill be such a falling off in receipts as to make the sentiment in favor of higher prices nore effective than it has been in the month. The more prosperous times all over the country, the remunerative prices for ther staple farm products and the ortion between the price of wheat and the rice of corn certainly ought to add a good eal to the value of corn before long, re-It is rather remarkable that the foreigners are not buying great quantities of cheap American corn. Their feeding crops are smaller than usual and the high price of sheat should result in the use of creased quantity of coarser grains as a substitute for wheat. More than that, Argen-tine has shipped no corn to Europe in the past three weeks, whereas in the same time last year that country's exports amounted to over 5,000,000 bushels. But Europe is no taking extraordinary quantities of corn. satisfactory reason for this can be given. is reasonable to expect that before long the corn exports will greatly increase, if the European crops of all kinds are as small as they are represented to be. All things considered, there is a substantial basis for the belief that the corn will advance materially before many months, and thus add greatly to the pros perity which the farmer is enjoying.

FAITH IN GENERAL WOODFORD

Ex-Minister Taylor Says the New Minister Can Be Trusted.

WILL PROVE -EQUAL TO ANY OCCASION

Mr. Taylor Declines to Discuss the Interview of Ills Successor with the Spanish Foreign Minister.

LONDON, Sept. 21.-Hannis Taylor, the former United States minister to Spain, arrived here last evening and called at the United States embassy today. In an interview Mr. Taylor said: "The grave negotiations pending between the United States and Spain as to the war in Cuba are now enirely in the hands of General Woodford, who has had fruitful experience both in peace and war and will be equal to the occasion, whatever it may be."

Mr. Taylor was questioned in regard to the accuracy of the statements contained in the dispatch from San Sebastian to the Temps of Paris, purporting to give the substance of the interview which took place on Sunday last between General Stewart L. Woodford the United States minister to Spain, and the duke of Tetuan, the Spanish minister of foreign affairs, in which General Woodford is said to have insisted courteously but firmly upon the necessity of terminating the war n Cuba, and to have declared that if it is not terminated by the end of October, the United States will feel justified in taking measures to secure the independence of Cuba. in reply the former minister said

"My lips are a lips are sealed until after my arrival While Mr. Taylor refused to discuss the matter, his manner tended to confirm the story told by the correspondent of the Paris

Regarding the general feeling in Spain, dr. Taylor said, "I must in justice say that I have never received any personal disourtesy from any one, but for the las rear my residence was guarded by soldiers." Mr. Paylor will pay a visit to Prof. Free-nan at Oxford, and will complete his book on "The Origin and Growth of the English constitution," and will sail for home on October 2.

HURRY PROVISIONS TO ALASKA.

Expect to Push Three More Steamers Up the Yukon,

WASHINGTON, Sept. 21.—Secretary Alger spent some time yesterday in conference with President Weare and Michael Cudahy of the Alaska Transportation and Trading company at his office in the War department. They announced their intention to make every effort to get as much of the supplies at St. Michaels up the Yukon as possible and expected that three more steamers can be run up before the river closes entirely to navigation. So far no steps have been taken to insure the carriage of supplies after that event by way of the mountain passes, such as Chilkoot, but it is likely that this matter will now enlist the attention of the company's officers. Weare reported that the steamer Humboldt will be ready to sail from Seattle for St. Michaels next Thursday, so Secretary Alger called a consultation of the bureau officers of the War department to hasten the preparations for the equipment of the troops the effect that it takes two Turks to beat a who are to go forward to Alaska on that Greek, two Greeks to beat a Jew, two Jews vessel. Mr. Weare said that the transportation company had for the accommodation of this force suitable quarters which would serve for a temporary home, and the large supply of food stores at St. Michaels would provision them. It was arranged with him that the company's agent at St. Michaels should accept the vouchers of Lieutenant Colonel Randall, the officer who will command the troops, so that the soldiers may be paid regularly. The men are already on Secretary Alger has been anticipated The house of Dr. Siemens, the Berlin electricity. The doing to cellar with electricity. The dining roof to cellar with electricity as a ceretary of the received a telegram from E. B. Hartley, secretary of the roof to cellar with electricity. The dining roof to cellar with electricity as a ceretary of the roof to cellar with electricity. The dining roof to cellar with electricity as a ceretary as been anticipated in his scheme for supplying transportation over the Yukon by steam show sleds. Today he received a telegram from E. B. Hartley, secretary of the "It isn't a question of propriety but of Klondike Transportation and Commercial mpany of St Louis, stating that his company has already contracted for several of the locomotives, and trains will be tunning ever the Yukon river in December.

MONEY FOR NARROW GAUGE ROAD.

Railroad Over White Pass to Lake Bennett to Be Ready by May. SEATTLE, Wash., Sept. 21.-New York and eattle men have subscribed the capital necessary to build a narrow gauge railway from Skagway over the White pass to Lake Ben-1 nett. In the syndicate are ex-United States Senator W. C. Squire of this city, Senator P. Jones of Nevada and James A. Mc-Naught, formerly general counsel of the Northern Pacific railroad. The preliminary survey was made by F Farnham, a mining engineer of San Francisco. He returned from Skagway a short time ago, went to New York, his report was ccepted and the money subscribed. The material for construction has already been purchased and as soon as it arrives here Mr. Farnham wil go north with it and begin work. Right of way has been secured from government and filed with the secretary It is the intention to bill passengers and freight through from Seattle to Lake Bennett. River boats will be built here and sent to the lake for use. to have the road ready for It is expected operation by May 1.

Eckels on a Pleasure Trip. COLORADO SPRINGS, Sept. 21.-James H. Eckels, comptroller of the currency, arrived here Sunday on a pleasure trip. Today he goes to Cripple Creek to inspect some of the big mines of the district, returning here in time for dinner at the El Paso club. by the bankers of the city. Mr. Eckels talkative as regards his trip through the west, but says he is simply on a pleasure trip and will not discuss the financial situation. He will be in Denver Wednesday.

THE EXPOSITION. Iowa's Part in the Productive Exhibit of the Imperial West.

Davenport Republican. The Transmississippl exposition, in so far as the state of Iowa is especially concerned, is receiving encouragement. The appeal of the commission to the people of the state has been generously treated by the press. Even the weekly papers, which do not have large space to devote to one subject, have been very generous in publishing the appeal entire. Some of the strongest endorsements have come from democratic papers. The commission is, of course, a nonpartisan body, but the Republican takes pleasure in ac-knowledging the courtesy of the democratic editors. The editor of the Davenport Demo-crat is among these. His endorsement was strong and cordial. Of the local papers the Catholic Messenger also lends its influence.
The exposition as a whole is progressing beyond what the lowa commission expected when it was first organized. The recent appointment by President McKinley of a mem-ber of the exposition board, who will act as its president, is an official recognition that can but be a great impetus to general interest. Colonel J. H. Brigham, assistant sceretary of agriculture, who will represent the president and cabinet, as president of the board, is a man embrently qualified for such a position, not only by ability and tact, but by a special preparation in lines which render him conversant with transmississippl

BRYAN AND HIS PASSES.

Denouncing Corporations While Accepting Their Favors.

The Omaha Bee publishes a fac-simile of the letter in which William J. Bryan made application for a free railroad pass from Sacramento, Cal., to Portland, Ore. Bryan had previously traveled from Ogden to Sacraento on a free pass. Bryan defends his application by say's that he asked for the pass on the ground of his connection with the Omaha World-Herald. As Bryan's position as an editor of the World-Herald's staff expired last year, he claims the free transportation by virtue of owning a few shares of stock in that paper, and on the paper's advertising contract. The busicess manager of the World-Herald says that it has no advertising contract with the Southern Pacific coad and has not been printing any of that road's advertising matter.

This is the man who, although he traveled o the Chicago convertion on free passes, in-sisted with a great flourish on paying the fare of himself and wife on the return trip, and who, during his presidential canvass, called everybody's attention to the fact that he was paying his way and to his contention that no one was entitled to special privileges from the railroads. Now as a capitalist, a stockholder, he asks favors of a railroad com

If Bryan had not been receiving recently a large income from his book and from the lectures in which he has denounced corporations and their favors, his offense would out be so rank. Or if he had asked for the half-fare usually allowed to children, no one would have objected. But it looks as if he had been crucifying opposition to corporate privilege on a cross of personal profit. The only loophole for escape left Bryan is to plead that he was spoiling the Egyptians by making them expend motive power in carrying him long distances without receive g any return for the service.

POINTEDLY PUT.

Chicago News: Block-Have you known coolittle long? Jones-Never; always short.

Washington Star: "Nine times outer ten," said Uncle Eben, "a gemman advises young men to choose some yuthuh business dan whut he got into. He takes it foh granted cat it took a heap mo' dan common smaht-ness to succeed like he did."

oungest boarder, "are the true conserva-You are right for once," said the Cheerful Idiot. "Nearly every woman I know is at least four years behind her age." Idiot. Chicago Record: "She saved the whole

Indianapolis Journal: "Women." said the amily from drowning once "Indeed! She must be an Amazon " 'Oh, no; she simply dressed so slowly that they all missed the boat."

conscience. If you have no scruples against lying you may use the word in such a connection. Detroit Journal: "Your majesty," sug-

ested the grand vizier, "might attain the setting your majesty's desired end desired end by setting your majesty's Christian and Moslem subjects against each The sultan shuddered visibly hollow voice "No." he answered in a hollow voice. "With my luck I shouldn't think of playing ONE THING SHE COULDN'T DO.

Cincinnati Commercial Tribu She climbs upon a street car and She takes a smoker's seat; The men all frown and look askance. And likewise scrape their feet, But quick from out her pocketbook A cigarette she snatches, And asks, "Please, may I have a light?

"I-er-I can't scratch matches. AUTUMN ASSURANCES. Washington Star. Oh, keep looking forward to times that

To hours when the earth will be gay; When jewels will sparkle; when mirth will beguile A country serene as May. Think not of the present, nor grieve o'es your fate.

The promise behold of a glorious date! So turn to your calendar gaily and wait Till after election day. There'll be nothing to do then but sit down and wish. And things will come straight your way.

Will be ready for all, they say. We'll heed not the present. We cannot go Each candidate sings us the same dutcet Scrig. Cheer up, all ye voters; it will not be long

Till after election day!

The handsomest garment, the dantiest dish

Visitor

Will find quite a holiday aspect in our store already-the season of festive occasions is upon us and men who would be well dressed for a good deal less than the merchant tailor charges is wise if he comes to us-We advise you that our Fall Overcoats and Suits for old men-young men and children-for stout men and slim men---for boys in long trousers and shavers in short pants-are all here and are as fine in texture and as finely made as it is possible for them to be at the prices, and the prices are from the lowest to the highest. All are welcome at our store, especially mothers and small children-our second floor has all conveniences for their comfort-and you are invited to make yourself thoroughly at home here.

